Bone Density Test Among Activities Set For Health Fair

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Y, located at 220 Clark Street, will offer a low cost bone density screening on Sunday, April 14, from noon to 3 p.m. during its annual Health Fair. The purpose of the screening will be to increase awareness of osteoporosis. Global Medical Supplies, Inc. will come to the Y and utilize the latest Ultrasound technology to determine an individual's risk for osteoporosis.

as well as develop a personalized bone density report. The cost of this test is $40 and appointments are necessary. Osteoporosis is defined as a loss of calcium from bones and affects more than 25 million Americans. It has no warning signs or symptoms. For more information about this test or the Health Fair, please call Michael Johnson at (908) 233-2700, extension no. 251.

Women's Resource Center Plans 10-Week Workshop

SUMMIT — The Women's Resource Center, located at 31 Woodland Avenue in Summit, will offer a 10-week workshop entitled "Getting Stronger - Beginning Running for Women," beginning Tuesday, April 16.

Led by longtime runner and therapist Joan Burns, the class is designed to provide basic instruction in running, along with support, motivation and camaraderie. It will be held on successive Tuesdays, from 9:30 to 11 a.m. The goal is for participants to increase their distance to three miles, in slow increments, over 10 weeks. The fee is $110 for members and $130 for non-members.

Individuals are asked to register by Friday, April 12, by calling the Women's Resource Center at (908) 273-7253. For information about similar programs, please call the center or visit www.womensource.org.

Volunteers Are Sought As Friend-Advocates For Older Individuals

WESTFIELD — The Friend Advocate Program, which provides advocacy and friendship to older persons, will hold an orientation and training program for volunteers on Thursday, April 18, at 6 p.m. at the Westfield Municipal Building, located at 425 East Broad Street.

Kind and caring volunteers are sought to assist older adults whose friends and family are no longer able or available to help with such functions as arranging for services, bill paying and companionship.

Volunteering can involve as little as a few hours per month. For information, please call (973) 680-5599.

'Seniors In Motion' Offers Equipment To Seniors, Disabled

AREA — The "Seniors in Motion" program of New Jersey provides mobility equipment to senior citizens and physically challenged individuals, usually at no cost to the patient.

The equipment available through this program includes motorized and manual wheelchairs, scooters and other items.

The program features free in-home evaluations and equipment fittings. In addition, all paperwork is completed by the "Seniors in Motion" staff, working directly with the patient's physician.

Equipment is delivered to the patient by a rehabilitation representative, with safety and operation instructions given.

For a "mobility needs" consultation and free in-home evaluation, please call (800) 594-1225.

Annual Home Tour Slated By Symphony Friends

WESTFIELD — The Friends of the Westfield Symphony Orchestra (WSO) invites the public to join them on Saturday, May 4, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. for their 18th Annual Home Tour, during which Westfield's most endearing residences will be opened wide in welcome.

All funds raised will benefit the WSO, as well as its educational outreach programs, which educate over 2,000 students through special concerts and master classes.

According to Sharon Zydnev, Chairwoman of the WSO Tour, "This year's emphasis in keeping with our nation's reflective mood, is on the profounder pleasures of home creation."

Featured during the tour are homes which represent a variety of signature American styles and periods.

Deirdre Malacrea, President of the WSO Friends, stated, "Each house draws on its own inspiration, inviting you in, making you happy to be there and revealing great design ideas along the way."

Tour participants may enjoy live music, free refreshments, a sale of spring flowers and a raffle for gift baskets filled with luxury merchandise and services donated by area businesses.

Tickets are $20 in advance or $25 on the day of the tour. Tickets are available at Baron's Drug Store, Lancaster, Ltd. Coldwell Banker Realtors, Weichert Realtors, Burgdorff Realtors, Prudential New Jersey Realty, The Town Bank of Westfield, and other town locations.

The WSO, which is comprised of professional musicians led by Maestro David Wroe, is the Resident Orchestra of Union County.

For more information on the Home Tour or a schedule of WSO events, please call (908) 232-9400 or visit www.westfieldnj.com/wso.
