

Walter T. Werner, 70, Army Veteran; Was Corrections Officer For 25 Years

Walter T. Werner, 70, of Mountainside died on Monday, April 8, at his home.
Born in Jersey City, he had lived in Irvington prior to moving to Mountainside 22 years ago.
Mr. Werner had been a corrections officer at the Essex County Sheriff's Department for 25 years before retiring in 1994. Earlier, he was a car inspector for the New Jersey Central Railroad and Conrail in Newark for many years.
He served as a military policeman with the United States Army in Germany during the Korean Conflict.

Surviving are his wife of 43 years, Halina Korzenko Werner; two sons, Walter Victor Werner of Pittsford, N.Y. and Henry Richard Werner of Mountainside; a sister, Elenor Romanowski, and two grandchildren.
The funeral was held on Friday, April 12, from the Higgins and Bonner Echo Lake Funeral Home in Westfield. An interment service followed at the Gate of Heaven Mausoleum Chapel in East Hanover.

April 18, 2002

DEATH NOTICE

William E. Willoughby, 81

William E. "Web" Willoughby, age 81, of Bernardsville, N.J., died on Wednesday, April 10, at his home following a long illness.
He was born December 15, 1920 in Westfield, N.J., to the late William H. and Ada Willoughby. He served in the United States Army 8th Air Force during World War II as a First Lieutenant and a pilot flying B17s. He flew 17 combat missions before being shot down over Belgium and landed in an airfield recently taken over by the Allies. He was awarded the Purple Heart.
He was married to Peggy Saitta, also from Westfield, for 55 years. In 1953, Web and Peggy settled in Bernardsville where they raised their family of three children.
Mr. Willoughby founded WEDCO, Inc. in Garwood, N.J., in 1960. WEDCO designed and built size reduction equipment and provided custom grinding services of plastic materials from its plants.
Over 36 years, WEDCO grew to an international public company with eight plants in the United States, two in Canada and five in Europe, headquartered in Bloomsburg, N.J. Mr. Willoughby served as President and Chief Executive Officer until his retirement in 1996.
An avid sportsman, he enjoyed hunting, fishing and golf. He was a member of the Raritan Valley Country Club, Amwell Valley Conservancy and the Log Cabin Gun Club. He was also a sailing enthusiast, keeping various boats at Block Island, R.I. He enjoyed skiing in the United States and Europe until he was 77.
Mr. Willoughby is survived by his wife, Peggy, son William C. and his wife, Regina, of Pipersville, Pa., daughter Catherine Stephens and her husband, John, of Makawao, Maui, Hawaii, son J. Scott of Lebanon Township, N.J., and grandchildren Bryan Willoughby, Bradley and Megan Stephens.
A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 20, 2002 at St. Bernard's Episcopal Church, Claremont Road, Bernardsville.
In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to: the National Kidney Foundation, 30 East 33rd Street, Suite 100, New York, N.Y. 10016 or the Air Force Memorial Foundation, 1501 Lee Highway, Arlington, Va. 22209.
Arrangements are by the Galloway & Crane Funeral Home, Inc. of Basking Ridge.

April 18, 2002

Helen Tamburello, 88, Taught Piano In Local Area For Over 50 Years

Helen Del Nero Tamburello, 88, of Long Branch died on Thursday, April 11, at Avante Health Care in Red Bank.
Born in Scotch Plains, she had lived there most of her life before relocating to Long Branch five years ago.
Mrs. Tamburello had been a piano teacher in the Scotch Plains-Fanwood area for more than 50 years. She had previously worked as a telephone operator for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in East Orange.
She was a parishioner of St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains and a member of its Rosary Altar Society.
She was predeceased by her husband, Frank B. Tamburello, in 1969.

Surviving are a daughter, Maryann Bogle; a son, Anthony Tamburello; two sisters, Margaret Caparola and Irene Carlin; two brothers, Rudy Del Nero and Dan Del Nero; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.
The funeral service was held on Saturday, April 13, at the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. A Mass followed at St. Bartholomew the Apostle Church. Interment was at St. Gertrude's Cemetery in Colonia.

April 18, 2002

James F. Englert, 54

James F. Englert, 54, of King of Prussia, Pa., died on Saturday, April 13, at his home.
Born in Queens, N.Y., he had lived in Fanwood prior to moving to King of Prussia 11 years ago.
Mr. Englert had been a dispatcher with Federal Express in King of Prussia for 15 years.
He was a Sergeant in the United States Army, 25th Infantry Division, serving three tours in Vietnam. Mr. Englert was the recipient of a Bronze Star.
He was a Past President of the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad, a member of the New Jersey First Aid Council and a life member of the 25th Infantry Division Association.
Surviving are his wife, Susan Boughner Englert; two daughters, Judy A. Mueller and Jeanne M. Englert; a son, William J. Englert; two brothers, Gary J. Englert and Robert G. Englert, and two grandchildren.
A service was held yesterday, Wednesday, April 17, at the Dooley Colonial Home, 556 Westfield Avenue in Westfield. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield.
Memorial donations may be made to the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 356, 335 Watterson Street, Westfield 07090.

April 18, 2002

Obituaries

DEATH NOTICE

Warren Thomas Vliet, 77

VLIET — Warren Thomas Vliet, 77, a resident of Rio Rancho, N.M., for the past 12 years, passed away on Sunday, March 31, 2002 at Presbyterian Hospice in Albuquerque, N.M. Warren was born October 12, 1924, the son of Willard S. and Mabel Emmons Vliet, in Elizabeth, N.J. Warren served in the United States Navy Seabees during World War II, in the Pacific, Hawaii and Midway islands. He graduated from Nichols College in Dudley, Mass.
He was a partner and treasurer for Kucher, Harney and Vliet Insurance Agency of Westfield and later Scotch Plains, before retiring. He was a Trustee at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield; a Parole Counselor with the Rahway Penitentiary; Westfield YMCA member and Board member; member of the Masonic Lodge in Westfield; coached girls' softball and boys' Little League, and wrote a hiking column for a paper near Clinton, N.J. He was a certified life underwriter with his business profession.
Warren volunteered with the Albuquerque Convention and Visitors Bureau and thoroughly enjoyed promoting New Mexico. He was a member of the Rio Rancho Country Club and the Seniors' Tennis group. He enjoyed skiing and painting local scenes, and following sports, especially baseball.
He was also a member of the Rio Rancho Presbyterian Church. He is remembered as a wonderful husband and a great father. Warren was preceded in death by two brothers, Allan Vliet and Robert Elliot Van Vliet. He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Barbara "Bobby" Vliet of Rio Rancho; four children, Anne Merkley of Granville, Ohio, Elizabeth Vliet of Albuquerque, Susan Vliet of Rio Rancho and Thomas Vliet of Albuquerque; four grandchildren, Sarah Richard, Callie Martin, Scott Merkley and Meredith Merkley, and numerous nieces and nephews.
A memorial service was held on Wednesday, April 3, 2002 at the Rio Rancho Presbyterian Church, with the Reverend Dr. Lawrence R. Hitchens officiating. Donations may be made in Warren's memory to the Presbyterian Foundation, Hospice Inpatient Unit, P.O. Box 26666, Albuquerque, N.M. 87125 or the Rio Rancho Presbyterian Church, 1004 24th Street, Rio Rancho, N.M. 87124.
Arrangements were by Vista Verde Mortuary, Rio Rancho, N.M.

April 18, 2002

Arthur P. Mazzucchelli, 89, Engineer; Held Patents and Published Articles

Arthur P. Mazzucchelli, 89, a former resident of Scotch Plains, died on Monday, April 8, at the McCutchen Friends Home in North Plainfield.
Born in 1912 in Como Province village in Italy, he grew up in Bloomfield and moved to Scotch Plains in 1950. He lived in North Plainfield since 2000.
Mr. Mazzucchelli had been employed by Union Carbide for 41 years, beginning as a laboratory assistant and eventually becoming Assistant Director of Research and Development. He retired as Product Manager in 1971.
During his career with the company, he spent two years in Argentina as a plant manager and also participated in many pioneering plastics developments. He received multiple patents and published a number of journal articles.
He attended Newark College of Engineering, graduating as a chemical engineer in 1937. Mr. Mazzucchelli earned membership in Tau Beta Pi and was President of the resident school and NTS Fraternity.
He was a member of the Westfield Men's Garden Club.
He was predeceased by his wife, Naomi Mazzucchelli, on December 1, 2000.
Surviving are two nieces, Joan LiButti and Dolores Darpino.
A memorial service will be held at 2:30 p.m. today, Thursday, April 18, at the McCutchen Friends Home.
Arrangements are being handled by the Memorial Funeral Home, 155

South Avenue in Fanwood.
In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the McCutchen Friends Home, 112 Linden Avenue, North Plainfield 07060.
Frederick A. Konig, 92
Frederick A. Konig, 92, of Fanwood died on Friday, April 12, at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield.
Born in Fall River, Mass., he had lived in Middletown for 40 years before moving to Fanwood three years ago.
Mr. Konig had been an administrative assistant with Central Railroad of New Jersey for more than 40 years prior to retiring in 1974.
He was a parishioner of St. Bartholomew the Apostle Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains and a member of the Fanwood Senior Citizens.
He was predeceased by his wife, Anne Eva Mazur Konig, on January 10, 1999.
Surviving are two daughters, Geraldine A. Inman of Fanwood and Paulette Jensen of South River, and five grandchildren.
The funeral was held on Monday, April 15, from the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood. A Mass followed at St. Bartholomew the Apostle Church. Interment took place at Fair View Cemetery in Middletown.

April 18, 2002

George Tzamos, 70, Licensed Engineer; Was Construction and Zoning Official

George Tzamos, 70, of Westfield died on Thursday, April 4, at his home.
Born in Grevena, Greece, he was a Westfield resident for many years.
A licensed professional engineer, Mr. Tzamos had been a construction and zoning official with the Township of Westfield for 35 years, prior to retiring in 1994.
He was a graduate of Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa.
Mr. Tzamos served in the United States Army during the Korean Conflict.
Surviving is a sister, Ifegeneia Papanikolaou, and two nephews.
The funeral service was held on Friday, April 12, at the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Westfield. Interment took place at Hillside Cemetery in Scotch Plains.
Arrangements were under the direction of the Higgins Home For Funerals in Plainfield.
Memorial contributions may be made to the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church Building Fund, 250 Gallows Hill Road, Westfield 07090.

April 18, 2002

Franco E. Ferri, 64

Franco E. Ferri, 64, of Westfield died on Saturday, April 6, at Overlook Hospital in Summit.
Born in Italy, he lived in Westfield since 1965.
Mr. Ferri was employed as a tailor for the Country Squire in Clark for 15 years. Prior to that, he worked for Hahne's and Co. in Westfield.
Surviving are two stepisters, Nicola Ferri and Felice Ferri.
The funeral took place on Tuesday, April 9, at the Rossi Funeral Home in Scotch Plains. A Mass followed at the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church in Westfield. Interment was at Woodbridge Memorial Gardens in Woodbridge.

April 18, 2002

Angelo J. Petrella, 79, Superintendent Of AKA Masons in Scotch Plains

Angelo J. Petrella, 79, of Edison died on Monday, April 8, at the Woodlands Care Center in Plainfield.
Born in Newark, he grew up in Plainfield and lived in Edison for the past 45 years.
Mr. Petrella had worked for his brother's construction company,

Petrella Construction, later known as AKA Masons, of Scotch Plains for 30 years prior to retiring 10 years ago. He had been Superintendent of the firm.
He bowled with leagues at the Strike 'N Spare Lanes in Green Brook.

Linda L. Botulinski, 59

Linda L. Botulinski, 59, of Westfield died on Monday, April 8, at her home.
Born in Newark, she had been a resident of Westfield for 37 years.
Mrs. Botulinski had been employed as a manager at Lucent Technologies in Holmdel for 26 years before retiring last year.
Surviving are a son, Alexander Steven Botulinski, Jr.; a daughter, Debra Botulinski; a brother, Brian Dowd; a sister, Barbara McMaster, and two grandchildren.
The funeral was held on Friday, April 12, at the McCracken Funeral Home in Union.

April 18, 2002

He was predeceased by his wife, Mary Ventriglia Petrella, in 1970; as well as a sister, Madeline Lorenzetti, and three brothers, Joseph Petrella, Louis Petrella and Ralph Petrella.
Surviving are his twin sons, Angelo Petrella of Edison and Joseph Petrella of Lopatcong; a sister, Doris Petrella of South Plainfield; two brothers, Anthony Petrella of Mountainside and Patrick Petrella of Punta Gorda, Fla., and two grandchildren.
Funeral services were held on Friday, April 12, at the McCracken Home For Funerals in South Plainfield. A Mass of Christian Burial followed at the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church of South Plainfield. Interment took place at the Holy Redeemer Cemetery in South Plainfield.

April 18, 2002

Joanne F. Lavender, 66, Was Involved In Children's Leukemia Research

Joanne F. Lavender, 66, of Sarasota, Fla., died on Wednesday, April 10, at Sarasota Memorial Hospital in Sarasota.
Born in LaGrange, Ill., on June 14, 1935, she had lived in Westfield for 20 years and then in Dallas, Tex., for five years before relocating to Sarasota seven years ago.
Mrs. Lavender had been active in the medical field and in children's leukemia research at Children's Hospital in Chicago.
She graduated from St. Mary's College of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.
Mrs. Lavender was a member of St. Martha's Roman Catholic Church, the Meadows Country Club and the Ladies Nine Hole Golf Association, all of Sarasota.
She was also a member of St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield and was active with various Westfield organizations.

Surviving are her husband of 40 years, Robert Lavender; a daughter, Lisa M. Ripperger of Westfield; two sons, Mark R. Lavender of Richmond, Va. and David A. Lavender of Marietta, Ga.; a sister, Marlene O'Meara of Western Springs, Ill., and eight grandchildren.
A memorial service was held on Saturday, April 13, at Selby Botanical Gardens in Sarasota.
Another memorial service will be held at 6 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, April 19, at St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield.
Arrangements were under the direction of the Toale Brothers Funeral Home in Sarasota.
In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Jackson Memorial Foundation-Schiff Liver Institute, 901 NW 17th Street, Suite G, Miami, Fla. 33136.

April 18, 2002

Dolores Marshall, Was Marriott Chef; Also Worked for SP-F School Board

Dolores Maguire Marshall of Freehold died on Saturday, April 13, at her home.
Born in Elizabeth, she had lived in Scotch Plains for 40 years prior to moving to Freehold 17 years ago.
Mrs. Marshall had been a chef with the Marriott Corporation in Woodbridge for 15 years before her retirement in 1995.
She had previously worked for the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education for 11 years.
She was a former den mother for Pack No. 34 in Scotch Plains.
Surviving are her husband, James H. Marshall; a daughter, Juneann Hudson; three sons, August T. Eisenhauer, Alan P. Eisenhauer, Sr. and James R. Marshall; six grandchildren and a great-grandson.
The funeral service was held yesterday, Wednesday, April 17, at the August F. Schmidt Memorial Funeral Home in Elizabeth. Interment was at Somerset Hills Cemetery in Basking Ridge.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association, 101 Eisenhower Parkway, P.O. Box 513, Roseland 07068.

Carl R. Young, 71

Carl R. Young, 71, of Manalapan died on Wednesday, April 10, at his home.
Born in New Brighton, he had lived in Wheaton, Ill., Mountain Brook, Ala., Westfield and Sea Bright before moving to Manalapan in 1998.
Mr. Young had been the Vice President of Finance at Associated Container Transport in New York City for 20 years, prior to retiring in 1994.
He had previously been the controller for Vulcan Material Foundry in Mountain Brook, Ala., and an accountant for U.S. Gypsum in New Brighton and Chicago.
He was awarded a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in business administration, both from Wagner College in Grymes Hill.
He was a United States Navy veteran of the Korean Conflict, having served as an ensign and machinist while stationed in Norfolk, Va.
Surviving are his wife of 46 years, Maureen Kelly Young; three sons, Carl Young, Patrick Young and Michael J. Young; three daughters, Mary Anne Young, Elizabeth Rotella and Sheila E. Golden; two sisters, Alma DiSimone and Betty Driscoll, and six grandchildren.
The funeral was held on Saturday, April 13, from the Harmon Home For Funerals in West Brighton, N.Y. A Mass of Christian Burial followed at St. Paul's Church of West Brighton.

Joseph Neubauer, 78

Joseph S. Neubauer, 78, of Tinton Falls died on Sunday, April 14, at the Jersey Shore Medical Center in Neptune.
Born in Newark, he had resided in Scotch Plains for more than 30 years before moving to Tinton Falls eight months ago.
Mr. Neubauer was the founder and President of the Astro Tool & Machine Co., Inc. in Rahway, from 1963 until his retirement in 1996.
He was a member of the New Jersey Tool & Die Association, as well as the Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains and the St. Anthony of Padua Secular Franciscan Fraternity, both of Scotch Plains.
He was predeceased by his parents, Michael and Anna Elis Sommers Neubauer, and a brother, Francis Neubauer.
The funeral will be held at 9 a.m. today, Thursday, April 18, from the Memorial Funeral Home, 155 South Avenue in Fanwood. A Mass will follow at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church at 10 a.m. Interment will be at St. Gertrude's Cemetery in Colonia.

April 18, 2002

MASTER MEMORIALS
524 Central Avenue
Westfield, NJ
(908) 233-2350

Designer • Builders of fine
MONUMENTS
MARKERS
MAUSOLEUMS
Lettered • Cleaned
Tim Doerr
Bruce Bauer
(established 1939)
Also: 300 Rt. 37 East
Toms River, NJ
(732) 349-2350

Dooley Funeral Service, Inc.
Caring & Courteous Service to the Cranford/Westfield Area Since 1913

Westfield
556 Westfield Avenue
233-0255
John L. Dooley
Manager

Cranford
218 North Avenue
276-0255
Charles V. Dooley
Manager

We appreciate our neighbors
Like you, we appreciate having good neighbors. That's why we also do our best to be good neighbors.
As established members of the Westfield business community, we understand the security of dealing with people you know, people you trust! We've built our reputation on this trust.
For over 100 years, we've provided area families with sound advice and caring service at times of personal loss. We believe we help the most by listening and providing choices.
We hope you remember you can turn to us in times of need. You can also talk to us about planning ahead... removing this burden from the minds of others. Please call us or stop by.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
— Since 1897 —

• FRED H. GRAY, JR. • WILLIAM A. DOYLE • PAULETTE CRABIEL WAHLER
• DALE SCHOUSTRA • DAVID J. CRABIEL
Executive Administrator — William A. Doyle
WESTFIELD: 318 East Broad St., Fred H. Gray, Jr. Mgr. • 233-0143
CRANFORD: 12 Springfield Ave., Dale R. Schoustra, Mgr. • 276-0092