Old Mountainside Pictures Sought For Prospective Book

MOUNTAINSIDE — The Mountainside Historic Preservation Committee is making an appeal to longtime borough residents to lend the committee any pictures they have of Mountainside from years ago, in anticipation of a book being published on the community.

"We have an opportunity, through a publisher of regional and local interest books, to put Mountainside on the national map," Scott Daniels, Committee Chairman, explained.

"But to qualify, we must come up with enough pictures to justify writing and publishing a book of interest," he continued. Mr. Daniels said each picture will require identification so that captions can be prepared.

The borough was recently approached by Arcadia, a South Carolina publisher of regional books, with an offer to feature the borough as one of its 2002 list of new titles.

Pictures should be forwarded, totally identified and marked with the sender's name, to the Mountainside Historic Preservation Committee, 1385 U.S. Highway 22, Mountainside 07092, for review, consideration and cataloging. They should be marked to the attention of Publicity Chairman Don Jeka. All images will be returned.

"Photos and documents can cover a wide range of subjects, including the early years, transportation, parks, sports and recreation, neighbors and neighborhoods and schools," Mr. Daniels said.

"We're looking for photos of scout activities, municipal swimming team shots, old houses and grounds, group and individual pictures of local office holders, etc. While we can't promise to use everything submitted, we will review anything you have that might qualify," he added.

Photographs and documents should be submitted no later than Sunday, June 30.

Nominations Being Sought For Mayor's Charity Gala

This year the Scotch Plains Mayor's Gala will again honor a male and female volunteer of the year in addition to a volunteer organization of the year. Nominations are now open and everyone is encouraged to nominate a special person or organization to be feted at our Mayor's Charity Gala evening. The only requirement is that the volunteer work must be done in Scotch Plains. Nomination forms may be obtained from the Scotch Plains Recreation Office, Scotch Plains Municipal Building, 430 Park Avenue, or by calling 322-6700, extension 221. Forms may also be obtained at the Scotch Plains Public Library and at Walls Stationary. Nominations are due by June 28.

This year's Mayor's Charity Gala will be held on December 6 at Snuffy's Pantagis Renaissance in Scotch Plains. The evening begins at 7 p.m. and continues until midnight with music and dancing. Tickets are $50 per person and the Gala will once again feature a silent auction with items available from area merchants.

The Mayor's Charity Gala is a non-partisan affair for the entire community to come together enjoying music, fun, delicious food and great conversation. The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Municipal Alliance Committee will be the recipient of the proceeds of the Mayor's Gala. The alliance is a community organization for the prevention of substance abuse and has served our communities since 1988 supporting programs such as Project Graduation, Teen Night, Senior Citizen Luncheons and much more to every segment of the population.

Please take the time to nominate the hard working volunteers that you know and be certain to return your nominations to the Recreation Department.

IN AN EMERGENCY,
WHO CAN YOU
TRUST AS MUCH AS YOUR PEDIATRICIAN?
HOW ABOUT ANOTHER
PEDIATRICIAN?

It started with a simple fact — kids are different.

Then — from the region's leader in Emergency Room services — came the innovations. A separate "kids-only" area. Special beds and surroundings designed especially for children. A medical staff trained to take care of kids. And, the only Pediatric Emergency Department in the area staffed by pediatricians and an entire pediatric care team who are there when you need them most.

Working hand-in-hand with your pediatrician, we treat more than emergencies. We treat kids like kids. Along with the Atlantic Children's Medical Center, it's just another sign of our commitment to remaining the region's leader in children's health care.

For any child-related emergency, call 911 first then alert your pediatrician.

For more information or for a referral to an Atlantic pediatrician, call 1.888.878.KIDS or visit ChildrensMedicalCenter.AtlanticHealth.org.
