PAGEANT CONTESTANT... Abby Danielle Price of Scotch Plains was named the second runner-up in the American Coed Teen Miss New Jersey Pageant, held July 5 and 6 at the Parsippany Hilton. Abby, who was first runner-up in Sportsweat Modeling, will compete in the nationals during the week of Thanksgiving.

JCC to Hold Registration Soon For Fall Programs

SCOTCH PLAINS - The Jewish Community Center (JCC) of Central New Jersey has announced that member registration for fall classes will begin on Wednesday, September 4, at 9 a.m. Non-member registration will take place on Tuesday, September 10.

The JCC Fall Program Guide details each department's new offerings. Copies may be picked up at the reception desk of the Wilf Jewish Community Campus, located at 1391 Martine Avenue in Scotch Plains.

The JCC Fitness Department features an expanded series of aerobic, body sculpting and Pilates classes, in addition to yoga, spinning and Taeboxing classes. Personal training and massage therapy sessions will also be available. A babysitting center is provided nearby at the facility.

The Early Childhood Department offers classes for newborns, such as "New Mom/New Baby," through full-day kindergarten. Extended day courses, meanwhile, feature enrichment opportunities for various age groups.

Cultural Arts and Education offerings include cooking classes, Book Club discussions and Hebrew class, plus special events throughout the year.

The Adult and Senior Services Department features programs on art, exercise and Jewish culture, as well as discussions of current events. These programs are offered Monday through Wednesday. A kosher lunch is available for a nominal suggested donation.

For youngsters, there is Teen Fitness Day, along with enrichment programs for middle school students, such as workshops for the arts, scrap booking and Red Cross Babysitting. College preparatory classes for high school students, encompassing everything from trips to college campuses to SAT preparation, round out the programs for youth.

A variety of healthy after-school alternatives are offered for children from pre-school through age 12.

Kid-Zone provides a secure, structured, after-school environment for children in kindergarten through eighth grade. Many vacation day programs are also scheduled this fall to coincide with days off from area schools.

There are also adult basketball and volleyball programs, as well as an adult water exercise class. In addition, swim lessons are available for children.

For more information about JCC programs, please call (908) 889-8800.
