

Fanwood Library Friends Announce Book Sale Date

FANWOOD - The Friends of the Fanwood Memorial Library will hold their annual book sale on Saturday, September 21, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. In the event of rain, the book sale will take place on the following Saturday, September 28.

Proceeds from the traditional event - the Friends' major fundraiser - benefit library programs and services. Funds will help increase video and book-on-tape collections, among other materials, and support programs.

Donations for the book sale may be dropped off at the library beginning on Tuesday, September 3. The Friends are accepting used books in salable condition and are especially seeking recent publications, paperbacks, classics, children's books, games and toys. They will also take used, commercially-produced videos, compact disks and cassettes.

The Friends have asked that books of little interest or value, such as textbooks, outdated non-fiction or fiction, mildewed or damaged books or magazines not be submitted. Such unwanted items may be taken for recycling. For questions about donations, please call (908) 889-0998.

Individuals who would like to contribute or help sort, set up and clean up for the sale is asked to call the library at (908) 322-6400 or sign up at the library. People capable of lifting materials are especially needed at the beginning

Y Highlights Topics For Lunch & Learns

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Y, located at 220 Clark Street, has announced its 2002 Fall Schedule for the Lunch & Learn Lecture Series for Older Adults.

On Wednesday, September 18, Dr. Karen Enslie from Rutgers Cooperative Extension will conduct a family-focused workshop entitled "Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?" Personal belongings that hold special meaning for family members will be the theme. This program is designed to help families make decisions about transferring personal property during one's lifetime.

On Wednesday, October 16, the subject will be "Senior Scams." Alison Cook, from the Union County Division of Consumer Affairs, Elder Fraud Division, will give advice about avoiding con artists and schemes that target older adults.

Additionally, on Wednesday, November 20, Tish Isak, a Licensed Social Worker, will discuss good eating habits for people of all ages to maintain physical and mental health. Ms. Isak will address the basics of a good diet, what to avoid, medication interactions and preparation tips.

Finally, on Friday, December 20, a "Holiday Party" will feature entertainment, gifts, food and fun.

All Lunch & Learn programs are free and open to the public. Participants are asked to bring a bagged lunch and enough desserts to share with approximately five people. The Y will provide a beverage.

The programs begin at 12:15 p.m. To reserve a spot, please call (908) 233-2700 or register at the Y front desk.

PASSING THE GAVEL... Mary Brautigam, who served the most recent term as President of the United Fund of Westfield, passes the gavel to Matt Forstenhauser, who was formally named to the President's position at the organization's annual meeting. Mr. Forstenhauser headed the United Fund committee assisting local families of the September 11 tragedy.

'Bag Day' Sales Start Tomorrow At F-SP Thrift Shop

SCOTCH PLAINS - The Fanwood-Scotch Plains Thrift Shop, located at 1730 East Second Street in Scotch Plains, will hold its "Bag Days" beginning tomorrow, Friday, August 16. The sale will continue on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 20, 21, 22 and 23.

Customers can fill a large grocery bag full of merchandise from the shop for a nominal fee, beginning at $3 and then dropping to $1 over the duration of the sale.

The Thrift Shop is operated by the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Service League. On August 23 at 1 p.m., the shop will close for the remainder of the summer.

The shop's summer hours are 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday through Friday. Customer queries may be answered during shop hours by calling (908) 322-5420.

'Paws in the Park' Event Scheduled For Sunday

CRANFORD - People for Animals, a non-profit animal welfare organization serving New Jersey, will sponsor a "Paws in the Park" adoption event this Sunday, August 18, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The event, featuring dogs, cats and kittens, will take place at Nomahegan Park, located across from Union County College on Springfield Avenue in Cranford.

Among the many dogs offered for adoption will be "Megan," a medium-sized Spitz-mix with a long, black and tan coat. A two-year-old female, she is spayed and current with her vaccinations.

Described as affectionate, Megan is crate trained, walks well on a leash and rides well in a car, according to People for Animals.

To adopt or for further information, please call (908) 688-1073 and press 1 for dog adoption and 8 for cat adoption. Other pets available for adoption may be seen on the Internet at www.pfa.petfinder.org.
