enth. But the game ended with a smooth short (Joe Kornik)-to-second (Cardinale)-to-first (Jack Kerr) double play.

"Both teams played tough tonight. People were hitting. We knew that whomever made an error might lose the game," said Campanella.

The Grillers totaled 18 hits, including two home runs and three doubles. In addition to Campanella, Kerr rapped three singles, had two RBI and scored three runs, including the game winner. Barba went 3-for-4 with a double, scored two runs and added an RBI and Bob Chez smacked a double and a single, scored once and knocked in a run. Ollie Androsko added an accent with a solo blast in and Leitner both singled, Tom Giannone flied out to right and Bernardo later scampared home on an errant throw. Mike McKenna singled and Walsh slid a two-run single past short. Scher and Roland both added RBI singles.

Mojave heated up the contest with four runs in the second when Chez doubled, Barbasingled, Kerrknocked an RBI single and Campanella hammered his three-run homer. The game knotted at five in the third when Androsko launched his solo shot.

Electrician Webster singled and scored on Roland's ground out in the fourth then Grillier Kerr singled and later scored on Jim Nolan's RBI single in the bottom of the inning. In the speak for themselves."

Ed Belford and Tracy fired off the first shots and demonstrated awesome wheels with back-to-back singles in the bottom of the first. Mike Smalls came out blazing, hitting an RBI double. Nick Norton followed with a RBI sacrifice. "Bang, Bang," Wyman launched a two-run shot that went out of sight, giving Westfield a, 4-0, lead.

Further scoring occurred in the second, when McCullough and Billy Moffett whizzed singles and Joe Czarneci poked an RBI single to center.

"The objective is manufacturing runs," said Czarneci. "Moffett, who bats in front of me got it going. He can run pretty well, so we made it pretty well on the base paths."

Elizabeth had some success when they scored two runs on three hits in the top of the fourth inning. Westfield slapped back with two runs on three hits of their own in the bottom of the inning. Wyman and Steve Voom ripped singles and Frank Padovano nailed an RBI single.

Westfield Blue commenced its thunderous ways, blasting away for three additional runs in the fifth. Norton powered a triple and Wyman lashed an RBI single to right. Padovano scuffed up the plate when he banged out an RBI triple followed by McCullough who bashed an RBI sacrifice.

"Basically, I believe we're a 'singles' team," said Wyman. "We get ourselves into trouble when we try hitting for the triples and home runs. When we stay with the singles and the doubles, we're a good team and we can contend with anybody on the field. If we can continue on playing like we have been, hitting the ball down and hard, and not make any mental mistakes, we can go all the way."

Chief Tracy had much to celebrate following the victory. "Next to my children and my grandchildren, softball is my next love."

Barney quickly darted off to meet his daughter to help celebrate the birth of his granddaughter, Caitlin Marchese, born 7:39 p.m., August 14.
