After ABBC eked a run in the top of the first, the Resolutes were mentally prepared first and staggered them with a six-run barrage. Ferrone singled, Matt Myers and Flanagan each tapped RBI singles, Hal Flatua walked, Singer slapped an RBI double and Mauer plopped a two-run single behind second.

The Atlantics answered meekly with a run in the second when Ty Kiener singled and scored on Dengel's RBI single but the Resolutes growled with four more runs to carry a 10-2 lead to the third. Fred Cassel singled, Rick Myers reached on an error and Flanagan ricocheted crossed home in the sixth then the Atlantics scored two in the seventh to reduce the Resolutes' lead to one. Awakened, the Resolutes went on a seven-run rampage. Jeremy Lisnock knocked a single. John Patricio punched an RBI single and Bill Heaney walked then swiped second. Ferrone bopped an RBI single, Cassel hacked an RBI grounder to short and Matt Myers reached first on a fielder's choice. Rick Myers yanked a two-run single and Flanagan hammered his two-run homer to remote right-center.

ABBC scored two runs in the eighth and the Resolutes answered with the contributed with an RBI single. After Steger and Ken Blaes bashed singles, two runs were scored on passed balls.

CLOSE CALL AT SECOND...St. Lou's Mary Scherb barely beats the throw to St. Thomas' Lou Balestriere. The St. Louis machine defeated the men of St. Thomas, 12-10.

The "Toms" focused and fired back with four runs in the fourth. Lou Balestriere singled, Bob Stratton slapped an RBI single and Rivera ripped an RBI double. Boone then burned up the base paths with his towering two-run home run.

St. Louis posted three additional runs in the fourth. Captain Tom Rutkowski led off with a single, Pirella followed with a free pass and Raphael launched a two-run triple to right. Marty Marks stepped up to the dish next and drilled a shot deep into the woods. "Foul," was the call. "You didn't get your hips into it," hollered the advisory hecklers from the stands. Marks responded with an RBI sacrifice just short of the same spot, much to the delight of his so-called fans.

St. Thomas added a run in the fifth on an RBI sacrifice by Nate Mangiris after Antoine singled and McGall doubled. St. Louis countered with one run in the bottom of the inning on a Steger single, a double by Marvin Scherb and an RBI sacrifice fly ball by Gary Cardinale.

The "Toms" thumbed closer with a run in the sixth when Rites bopped a single and Stratton cracked an RBI double. Up by three, "Cardiac Keith" Gibbons had his boys holding their breath in the top of the seventh after Rivera and Boone each chopped singles then advanced to third and second, respectively, with the tying run to the plate. After a fly ball, Matuska's sacrifice fly scored Rivera. Still alive, Antoine reached first on a bobble and McGall got a free pass. The final salvo was lobbed toward left center, but the fleet-footed Steve Pirella tracked it down.

"We're in sole possession of first place," Rutkowski said after the game. "We're one game up on St. Pat's with two games remaining, one against St. Joe's and one against St. Pat's. If we lose and they win, we're dead even. Then we will face off in the final game of the season for first place. Then, the second season begins on August 23, the playoffs. There is a lot of intensity and lots of serious thoughts involved, believe me. So, it's going to be very interesting and we hope to continue to play strong as we have throughout the season."

far as far as scoring."

"With Orsini and Ciemniecki in the outfield, nobody is going to get the ball by them. They can chase down anything," expressed Watson teammate Doug Kolody.

Watson Avenue scored its first run in the bottom of the first inning when Ciemniecki hacked a hopper to left, legged out a double then scored on Orsini's single to center. Orsini boldly tried to score the second run when he tagged up on a pop fly to very shallow center but was gunned down at the plate by Shady shortstop Mark Gorman.

Stubborn pitching combined with strong defense prevented any cleats from scuffing the plate until the "Glory Boys" trampled home with three runs in the fourth to take a 4-0 lead. Jasco drew a leadoff walk, Ciemniecki cracked another double and Orsini cranked an RBI single to center. Quentin Redding and Bob Baykowski followed with back-to-back RBI sacrifice flies.

In the fifth, Laner Gordon zipped a single to center and advanced to second on a fielder's choice. Kamler stepped to the plate and chopped the ball down the third baseline. The ball was mishandled and Gorman scored.

In the sixth, Breuninger hacked a single past short, swiped second and bolted to third on a passed ball. Herbert walked and Orlando Perozzi legged out an infield RBI single to narrow the score to 4-2.

Shady's season came to a close when Jasco shut down the Laners 1-2-3 in the seventh.

a "stinging" shot off the pitcher. Flatua grounded to short but the throw was errant and two Resolutes scuffed home. Singer looped an RBI single and team captain Paul Salamone, who went 2-for-3, rolled an RBI grounder to short.

ABBC found a weakness in the Resolutes' defense in the fifth, capitalizing on three errors and two passed balls, and added two singles and a walk to score four runs and to narrow the score to 11-8.
