

Brian Farrell Wins First Place In Division For T-Shirt Design

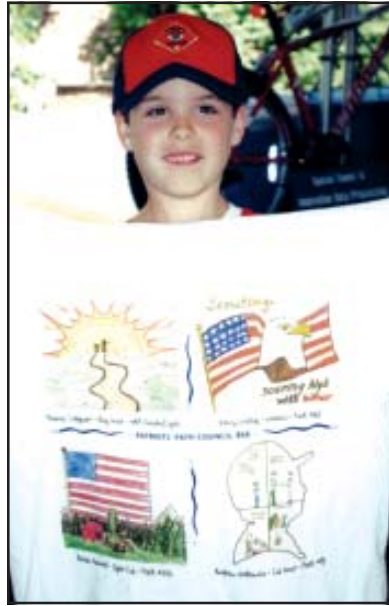

WESTFIELD — Brian Farrell, a Washington Elementary School Tiger

Cub in Westfield, recently earned first place in the Patriots' Path Council Design-A-T-Shirt contest.

He won for his submission of an original design demonstrating the "Spirit of Scouting" in the Tiger Cub division. A member of Pack No. 270, Brian designed a scouting campsite against an American flag backdrop.

The youngster's design was judged against entries from troops around the state. As a first-place recipient, his design and the winning entries for the Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Webelos ranks adorn the 2002 scouting jamboree T-shirts.

Award winners were honored in late May at the Parsippany Hilton. In recognition of his divisional first place finish, Brian was awarded a $400 cycle shop gift certificate.

WINNING ENTRY...Brian Farrell displays the 2002 Patriots' Path Council scouting T-shirt that portrays his winning design entry in the Tiger Cub division, along with the entries of fellow first-place finishers in the three other advanced scouting ranks.

REALLY HAVING A BLAST...Many people were more than happy to get blasted with water to cool off at the annual Scotch Plains Volunteer Firemen's wetdown on August 17 at Firehouse No. 2.
