second highest in the tournament game two. With a tournament-high 1,084 in game three, the Blue Devils accumulated a total of 3,037 and outdistanced second place Roselle Catholic that totaled 2,959.

"We were not even in the top-five after the first game," pointed out Blue Devil Head Coach Mike Tirone. "Right now I'm emotionally spent but as happy as could be. Our guys did a fantastic job. They started out with an 878. They were shaky. I said that if they gave me an 880 game, we will come back and win this thing. They went absolutely nuts in the second game with a 1,075 and a 1,084 in the third game."

Junior Scott Villa rolled games of 241, 225 and 205 to record the tournament's high series of 671.

junior Matt Rothstein who rolled a 622 series with a high game of 236. Junior Scott Villa rolled 613 with a high game of 244, sophomore Andrew Royston rolled 599 with a high game of 218 and junior Willy Masket rolled 523 with a high game of 182 to give Westfield a 199 per game, per man team average.

"I would take that average anytime in a heartbeat," said Tirone.

In the finals, Rothstein was on a roll and recorded the day's highest series with a 682 (233-212-237) total. Royston came through with the third-highest series at 666 (215-230-221) just behind Anthony Amato of Linden at 672. Sanders had a 633 series (214-214-205), Masket totaled 632 (182-225-225) and Villa totaled 564 (181-179-204).

After game 1, Linden held the upper hand with a 1,093 game followed by Roselle Catholic at 1,026 and Westfield at 1,025. The Blue Devils rolled a 1,060 in the second game to take over first place by nearly 70 pins. Linden plunged with a 917 game while Roselle Catholic totaled 960.

According to Tirone, "We were sitting in first, but if we slipped up, we would have lost."

To capture the crown, Westfield had to put it all together in the third game, and did with a 1,092 total, the highest of the finals. True to Tirone's words, Linden, Roselle Catholic and Union all rolled over 1,000 totals in the third game. Rothstein banged out a 237, Royston totaled 221, Masket rolled a 225, Sanders had a 205 and Villa had a 204.

Blue Devil Bowlers Capture

> The road to victory in game 3, however, began with a big rut. "By the time game 3 comes (in the tournament), the lanes begin to break down," pointed out Tirone. "In the first frame, four of our five guys opened. We made our standard adjustment and it seemed to work. From the second frame on, the kids forgot about the first frame.

Referring to Linden's performance, Tirone commented, "When you bowl a 3,097 and don't win, it's almost like highway robbery.

On January 24, Westfield captured the overall Watchung Conference title. Coach Tirone indicated, "that was step one and the Union County title was step two." The state sectional meet was to begin just two days later on February 9 at Eagle Rock Lanes in West Orange. Tirone had some concern. "We have two steps out of the way and it's not easy to duplicate scores like that. I don't want the kids to peak too soon. I want them to continually improve."

HIGH GAME OF THE SECTIONALS...Blue Devil sophomore Andrew Royston shattered the pins and rolled the highest game of the North Section 2 Bowling Tournament with a 257.

Lady Viking Cagers Swamp GL Highlanders, Nip Rams

An offensively healthy third-quarter run by the Union Catholic High School girls' basketball team provided the momentum it needed to glide to a 53-33 victory over Governor Livingston in Berkeley Heights on February 5. The scenario was quite different, however, in Scotch Plains on February 8 when the Vikings scored the game winner in overtime to nip Roselle, 32-31.

Sophomore Lauren Huber led the Viking assault against the GL Highlanders with 15 points. Amy Snyder, who finished with 13 points, five rebounds and five assists, and Huber netted six and five points, respectively, in the pivotal third quarter.

Margaret Goodspeed led the Highlanders with 11 points, Meghan Butler bucketed 10 points and Peggy Lallis added six. Kenyail Johnson finished with nine points, three steals and four assists for the 13-5 Vikings, Lisa Mortkowitz scored eight points and Amanda Kelly had two points and three steals.

The struggle against the stubborn Rams was based on defense, especially in the first half where Roselle went into the locker room with a 13-10 lead. Melinda Rosado, who had seven rebounds, nailed a jumper at the buzzer to send the game into overtime. Huber, who finished with 10 points, burned the net with the game winner.

Johnson and Green both finished with eight points and Snyder finished with four points.
