

John A. Carter, Jr. Is Named Trustee of Counseling Agency

MOUNTAINSIDE - John A. Carter, Jr. of Mountainside has been elected to a three-year term as a Trustee of Youth and Family Counseling Service (YFCS).

"I am delighted to serve this organization, which has provided counseling to youth and families of our communities for more than 75 years," said Mr. Carter, who was welcomed to his new position by Milt Faith, YFCS Executive Director, and Jim Slabe, President of the Board of Trustees.

"The reputation of the agency is outstanding and its services are needed now more than ever. As a Trustee, I will do everything possible to support and expand its services," he added.

A lifelong resident of Westfield and Mountainside, Mr. Carter retired from Connell Finance Company, Inc. in Berkeley Heights two years ago. While there, he had originated or participated in arranging over $1.3 billion in real estate financing since joining Connell in 1990.

Previously, he was associated with Stone and Webster, Incorporated, as a Vice President and was President of its real estate subsidiaries, including a development firm, a licensed brokerage company, a management company and a construction company.

He additionally was a Director of the National Association of Industrial and Office Parks (NAIOP) and was the founder and first President of the New York City Chapter of NAIOP.

Mr. Carter and his wife, Marian Carter, have two married children.

Youth and Family Counseling Service provides affordable, professional counseling for individuals and families. Located at 233 Prospect Street in Westfield, the agency serves people from Westfield, Scotch Plains, Mountainside, Berkeley Heights, Clark, Cranford, Garwood and Rahway.

For information about the agency and its services, please call YFCS at (908) 233-2042.

Prevention Links Named New United Fund Agency Member

WESTFIELD - Prevention Links, a non-profit organization dedicated to the prevention of alcohol, tobacco and drug abuse, has joined the United Fund of Westfield as its 22nd member agency.

The United Fund of Westfield's Board of Trustees unanimously approved the organization's membership following the Admissions Committee's recommendation.

Donnell Carr, Chairman of the Admissions Committee, stated, "Upon reviewing their application for membership, the Admissions Committee realized Prevention Links' special role in the prevention of substance abuse through their educational programs. They provide a service that complements well the United Fund family of agencies. By having them as part of our family, we enhance their capacity to serve the citizens of our town."

Prevention Links is the lead agency for the Union County Coalition for the Prevention of Substance Abuse. In this capacity, they assist individuals and organizations, collaborate with the efforts of others similarly concerned, and alert and educate the community through various community efforts.

Some of their programs include "Babes," a primary prevention program for third and fourth graders, designed to give children a lifetime of protection from substance abuse and "Forest Friends," a developmental puppet program for Pre-K to second graders, which is currently being offered in Westfield schools.

"Prevention Links has been serving the Westfield community for 25 years," stated United Fund Executive Director Linda Maggio. "We are pleased to welcome them as a member agency."
