

UNLEASHING THE AWESOME POWER...Chico's designated hitter Jeff Kaszak went 4-for-4 with five RBI and crushed a towering home run against D&L Locksmith.

Locksmiths Hand Over Keys, Jailed by Bailbondsmen, 15-12

Bailbonds pushed ahead 6-3 in the top of the third inning when Marsella and Kuchar strutted their stuff to the plate and launched back-to-back solo homeruns deep into never-never land. Matt Dolly turned the D&L key with a single and Sean Goldate unlocked an RBI double to center in the bottom of the inning.

Chico's Bailbonds jammed Locksmith with three runs in the fifth when Marsella punched an RBI single and Kaszak drilled a two-run single. Ciccotti then battered his solo home run in the sixth; however, still in the game, D&L rallied for five runs in the bottom of the sixth. Clint Cordes yanked a double and later scored. Bill Bawers and Mike Walch zipped singles, then Bill Durow bounced an RBI single past second. Next, "Big Stick" Newhauser mangled a two-run triple. Later, head locksmith Leo Hoy closed the score to within one with an RBI single narrowing the score to 10-9.

Bailbonds grabbed the keys nearly for good in the eighth when they exploded for three runs. Kaszak and Mike Manocchio rapped back-to-back singles, Ciccotti cracked a two-run single and Jake Jakubik launched an RBI sacrifice.

Things darkened even more for D&L when the "Chico's" punched in two runs in the ninth. Pitcher Buonpane crushed a homerun, tough running Nick Musano scampered for a triple and Fitzpatrick added the final run with an RBI sacrifice. D&L managed to retaliate somewhat with two runs on RBI singles by Goldate and Steve Prasek.

"I thought we became a little complacent early on when we were up by four and gave it back," said Buonpane. "In the ninth inning, I knew the 'D' would pick up and the pitching was there. As I matter of fact, I could do what I want, so when I got the first strike on him, I tried to go as high as I could without getting the pitch called illegal, so it worked out alright."

Westfields 13s Advance In Babe Ruth Tourney

By SAL ANTONELLI
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

In what Coach Mike Venezia called a "total team effort and a team win" the Westfield 13-year old Babe Ruth Baseball team advanced to the Northern New Jersey State Tournament.

After losing the first game, 5-3, Westfield came back on July 4 to trounce Monroe, 6-0. Peter Antonelli pitched six shutout innings with help from closer Mike Venezia. Ross Abramowitz had a bases-loaded triple in the sixth to break open the game. Joe Tressitt chipped in with a two-hit performance.

In the final game against East Brunswick, Westfield won, 4-0 with a masterful pitching performance by lied with two flawless innings. Antonelli closed out the game in the seventh by pitching out of a bases-loaded jam.

Westfield banged out 15 hits, led by Venezia with four hits. Davidson had three hits, while Tressitt and Ferro each had two hits.

"The team was nervous at the beginning of the game, but as the game went on the kids really settled down and play a great game," said Coach Venezia.

In game 2, Westfield lost to an excellent Edison and moved into the losers bracket to blank host New Milford, 5-0. Venezia, who pitched a complete game, yielded only a single in the sixth inning.

GETTING A PEP TALK...The Westfield 13s Babe Ruth baseball team gets a pep talk from the coach. The pep talk worked as Westfield won and advanced to the North Jersey State Tournament.

Joe Schurig who pitched a complete-game one-hitter, allowing only an infield single in the second inning. Catcher Kevin Hennessey called a nearly a perfect game.

Schurig helped himself with a sharp single to drive in the first run in the first inning. Sean Ferro, Peter Rucinsky, Tim Jacob and Kevin Hennessey all had hits and again Tressitt had a two-hit performance.

Westfield's defense was flawless with Venezia, Jacob, Rucinsky and Antonelli anchoring the infield. Brian Davidson, Ferro, Jim McManus and Tressitt secured the outfield.

In the first game of the State Tournament against River Park at New Milford, Westfield pulled out an exciting 9-7 victory. After falling behind 4-2, Westfield exploded for four runs in the fifth and three more runs in the seventh. Starter Schurig pitched four strong innings and Jacob re-

Westfield scored two runs in the first and third innings and added an insurance run in the sixth. Antonelli and Tressitt had two hits each, Hennessey, Abramowitz and Zach Deegan added singles.

"The team is having a great time playing in the States. If we can continue to get the same type of pitching and timely hitting like we have, this team can keep progressing in this tournament. We are still one of eight teams left in the States and all the coaches and parents are very proud of all the boys performance," said Coach Venezia.

Bernstein Strikes Track Gold Twice

Irwin Bernstein of Westfield earned a pair of gold medals in the Long Island Masters Track and Field Championships at Mitchel Athletic Complex in Uniondale, Long Island on July 14. Representing the Shore Athletic Club in the 65-69 age group, Bernstein won the 400-meter dash in 1:11.1. Later, he placed first in the 800-meter run in the time of 2:52.8. Both times were his season's bests.

SAVORING THE HOME RUN...The Westfield Legion players head back to the dugout after congratulating Brett Picaro, second from right, for smashing a home run.

fence. The two-run smash gave Westfield a 9-4 lead. After the homer, Picaro said, "I didn't know I had it in me."

Unfortunately, the homerun trot did have a downside as well. Picaro injured his hamstring while rounding first base, knocking him out of the game.

The inning was still not done although Clark starting pitcher Joe Abruzzo was taken out of the game. Abruzzo pitched one-third of an inning, but gave up seven hits, nine runs and three walks, while striking out none. His replacement, Steve Dunn, hit Richardson and committed an error, but only yielded two runs and finished the inning quickly.

Errors also ran rampant in that wild first inning, as both Westfield and Clark committed three. Only one of the four Clark runs was earned.

Clark's second inning was quick and painless, thanks to the stellar defensive play of John Leonardis. Westfield added two more runs in its half of the second, which was capped by a deep RBI-double by Keket, who finished 2-for-3 with two runs and one RBI.

Justin Roscowski of Clark contributed to his team's score by doubling home clean-up hitter Drew Thomas, then stealing home on a double steal. Roscowski finished 2-for-3 with one RBI and one run scored. Thomas finished with two runs and one RBI.

Thomas and Roscowski totaled four hits, while the rest of their team only scored four additional hits.

In the bottom of the fourth, Cook and catcher Josh Ludmer, who finished 3-for-4 with three RBI and a run scored, each tallied RBI to give Westfield the 10 runs they needed to have the game called after five.

Greg Mathews, who replaced Picaro in the lineup after his injury, contributed well for Westfield, rocking two singles and scoring twice.

John Boyd relieved Cook in the fifth, and pitched himself out of a jam to hold Clark scoreless.

Keket said, "We have chemistry like no other team."

This Westfield team consists of eight seniors who graduated last month. Ludmer, who served as captain of the varsity squad last year, sees this last season as one last chance for the team to play together.

"We've been playing together since tee-ball, and now we're at our last season. I want to finish strong and make this something to remember," he said.

Westfield improved to 8-4-1 while Clark dropped to 5-8. Westfield plays their final three games today, tomorrow and Saturday.
