SP-F 11s Baseballers Win Three in Babe Ruth Tourney

This past weekend, the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Youth Baseball Association 11-year-old tournament team roared into the Babe Ruth district tournament with three wins to stand alone in the winners bracket. They began with a 13-7 victory over North Elizabeth with Colin Grimm earning the victory on the mound. Then came their toughest test as they faced off against last season's winners, Westfield Blue. This was the same team that knocked the Raiders out of the tournament last season and advanced all the way to the National semifinal round. Behind the pitching of Kevin Maroney and a potent offense, the Raiders notched a 7-3 win. Against Westfield White, the Raiders sank in a 4-0 hole but battled back for a 7-4 win with Jimmy Burke picking up the win.

In the tournament for the Raiders so far, Maroney has been an offensive machine collecting eight hits, four runs scored and eight RBI. Burke stroked six hits and three runs scored while Matt Berka collected four hits and scored three times. Tyler DellaBadia and Anthony D'Annunzio stroked two hits and each scored three times while Mike Lauricella added two hits with two runs and Greg Zabel had two hits and one run. Steve Berger chipped in one hit and one run scored. Mike Klotz scored three times with Joseph Del Prete, Jackson Udelsman and Saxony Nielsen crossing the plate once.
