

Dr. Glassman Nominated For "Alumni of The Year"

Mountainside resident Dr. Ronny Glassman has been nominated for the "Alumni of the Year" award at Livingston College of Rutgers University. Dr. Glassman is a 1981 graduate of Rutgers - Livingston, and is currently a member of the Dean's Advisory Committee.

The nomination is in recognition of his contributions to healthcare in New Jersey. A board certified hypnotherapist, he is also an adjunct professor of psychology, sociology and philosophy at several colleges. Dr. Glassman specializes in weight-loss, smoking cessation, stress reduction, and chronic pain management.

In 1983, he received a U.S. Public Health Award while still attending Columbia University College of Physicians & Surgeons, where he received a master's degree in public health. He was awarded the doctoral degree from Columbia State University School of Social Science. He's also been named "Most Valued Instructor" by his college students.

Dr. Glassman has been a guest speaker at NYU, Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, Cornell, and Columbia. He is an author and researcher interested in the use of hypnosis in persons with early and mid-stage dementia, including Alzheimer's disease.

He was born and raised in Passaic, New Jersey. His wife, Meryl is a divisional vice president of a national chain of department stores.

Coldwell Banker Westfield Is Featured On New Interactive Website

The Westfield office of Coldwell Banker, located at 209 Central Avenue, is featuring detailed information about every facet of buying or selling a home on a new, easy-to-use website, www.ColdwellBankerMoves.com. This exciting new site also connects clients to the wide array of necessary services needed throughout real estate process, with the click of a mouse.

"This new website is yet another example of our commitment to truly remarkable service," said Michael Scott, the office's Manager. "Customers can learn about every step involved in buying or selling a home in INDICATE NEW JERSEY OR NEW YORK, in easy to understand language. After viewing information, customers will be better educated and in better position to make real estate related decisions."

The new site, which replaces www.nymetro.coldwellbanker.com, enables clients to search for a home via a map or county, town, neighboring town, price or property type. Other new features include dates and directions to open house from a client's home, complete with a mapping function.

To determine how much home they can afford, clients can use an easy-to-use mortgage calculator and even get a real-time pre-approval on a mortgage from Coldwell Banker Mortgage.

"Clients can also e-mail Sales Associates to set up a time to view a home and receive a prompt response," Michael Scott continued.

Other features include a Just Listed Notifier, which can notify a buyer via e-mail when a home that fits their criteria becomes available. "Additionally, the homes for sale featured on the site include photos and some even include 360 degree views of the homes," Scott continued.

Throughout the process of buying or selling a home, there are a variety of services needed to complete the transaction. "Our office prides itself on providing value-added services before, during and after a client completes a transaction," said Scott. "Clients can get information about all of our services on the site, including floor plans of developments offered through the New Homes Division, home warranties and title services. They can also access information about our Concierge Program, which connects clients to a variety of Sales Associate-recommended vendors, ranging from painters to daycare centers."

Sellers can also receive a report of recent sales in their neighborhood from their Sales Associate, to determine the average selling price of comparable homes. When they market their home through Coldwell Banker, they receive the benefits of incomparable statewide and worldwide market exposure on the new website, in addition to extensive advertising in local newspapers.

Buyers can access comprehensive lists of schools, restaurants, sporting and other entertainment venues throughout the region of a town through the site, information that will help them to get settled into their new home.
