point on, Cook would sit down 14 of the next 15 batters.

"In the first two innings, I started throwing fast balls to see what they would hit. They got onto a couple of fastballs and I hung up a curve ball when Vicci hit that home run," explained Cook. "I wanted to make sure that wasn't going to happen again. Toward the later part of the game, I became more of a pitcher as opposed to a thrower. Throughout my whole career, I always finished stronger than I've started."

In the third inning, although Westfield did not score, Cook singled to end his career with a 40-game hitting streak.

The Blue Devils unloaded with hard hitting in the fifth and upped the score to 7-4. Josh Ludmer drew a walk, got a great jump and scored on Blair Richardson's double to left. Leonadis pulled off a beautiful bunt single to move Richardson to third and McKeon hopped an RBI single by short.

In the sixth, after Koked (No. 11) hit a check swing single, the Blue Devils drilled the ball, but straight into the gloves of Crusaders. In the seventh, Brian Butts, an 11th grader, got the Blue Devils' 11th hit.

Brewster pointed out, "We left nine guys on base. We were just one more hit away from blowing the game wide open but I will give Clark all the credit. They hung in there and were swinging the bats very well. That one inning, we didn't get ourselves down. We kept banging away. But I'm proud as heck of these guys. They played a great ball game."

Speaking on behalf of the team, Ludmer said, "It's been a long time coming. This has been the goal. We have had many but this is the one we said we've got to win. We knew when to turn it up in the big game. We came through."

Brewster concluded, "I'm getting soaked here! I know I'm going to get soaked!"

He was right.

at 1:00.9. Colleen Coyle placed third in the discus with a heave of 100'5" and Lauren Bianco took fifth at 94'11". Bianco also took sixth in the javelin with a distance of 91'7" and Mary Shashaty came in sixth in the 1,600 at 5:41.2.

GL Highlander Megs DiDario, normally known for her strength in the 800 meters, ran a smart race in the 3,200, trailing Ashley Wolf of Montville until turning on the kick in the final 200 meters to win convincingly with a time of 11:40.2.

her but I haven't run this race in three weeks. I feel I let my team down."

Dana's sister Christine came in sixth in the event at 1:10.23. Dana also finished second in the 100 hurdles with a time of 15 seconds. GL took fourth in the 4x400 with a time of 4:13.7. Marge Goodspeed took third in the javelin with a distance of 112'0" and Karen Bocian placed fifth in the shot put with a plunge of 30'9".

Highlander Mike Carmody crossed first in the 800 with a time of 1:58.3

"I ran it strategically because it is only my second time running it competitively and I wasn't sure how to pace myself," explained DiDario. "And because I'm a half-miler, I out-kicked her in the end. I felt strong coming home. I was really surprised."

DiDario did take first in the 800 with a time of 2:19.1 then finished second to Wolf in the 1,600 with a time of 5:18.

Highlander senior Dana McCurdy crossed second in the 400-meter hurdles with a time of 1:07.62 behind Sara Bekele of Hanover Park who finished in 1:05.29. Bekele led from the start and seemed to open her lead a bit in the far turn.

"She was the girl I had to beat. She was an awesome runner," said McCurdy, who will attend the University of Pennsylvania in the fall. "I have had injury after injury all season. I tried my best and the wind was awful over there (far turn). I guess I had to step up my pace to stay with and Marty Moroney had a brilliant heave of 175'4" to nail down first in the javelin. Colin Price took fifth in the javelin at 142'1" and sixth in the shot at 41'2.25 behind Moroney at 41'6.25. Alex Hotz placed third in the 1,600 at 4:34.2 and fourth in the 3,200 at 10:07.9. Jason Gionta took fourth in the discus at 111'1", Matt O'Holla and Anthony Abitante respectively finished fifth and sixth in the pole vault with heights of 11 feet. GL took fifth in the 4x400 at 3:31.51 and Brian Dressel at 5'8" and Derrick Ongchin at 5'6" placed fifth and sixth, respectively, in the high jump.
