SPF Blue Thunder Compete In Voorhees Soccer Tourney

The Blue Thunder of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association U-11 division participated in the Voorhees Memorial Weekend Tournament. The Thunder entered the tournament in order to test their mettle against some of premier teams in the tri-state area.

On May 25, the Thunder faced off against Lake Grove and Winslow and on May 26, they went up against Sachem and Medford. The Thunder gave it everything they had. In the end, however, they came up on the losing end of each of their games, but not without letting their opponents know they were in a battle. They fell to Lake Grove, 6-1, Winslow, 3-1, Sachem, 2-1 and Medford, 4-1.

Andrew Smith did an excellent job

Kim Many to Morgan Burke, who sent in the first goal. Burke followed with an unassisted high-arching goal from the right side to put the Rebels up 2-0. Excellent defensive play by Ally Prestridge and Becky Krakora kept the ball pushed up in Rebel territory.

In the second quarter, excellent midfield play by Jen Kickenwitz and Devon Daly kept the ball up on the front line where Michelle Goldberg and Lindsey Douglas had some nice shots that were turned back by the aggressive Spider goalie.

After the half, the Spiders game out strong with an unstoppable shot on goal to go on the board. Douglas answered off an assist from Sweeney. Strong defense by Sarah Canfield, Kathryn Dinizo and Cassie Zito continually frustrated the Spider offensive attempts. Sweeney finished out the scoring by converting a pass from Douglas.

in goal. Had it not been for some outstanding goaltending by Smith, the games would not have been as close as they were. The defensive unit of Marc Fusillo, Mark Koransky, Danny Gore, Colin Grimm, Mike Roth, Garry Rodriguez and Mike Lauricella did a solid job protecting their end of the field.

Meanwhile, the Thunder forwards used speed and passing to constantly pressure their opponents. Greg Bencivengo, Eddie Byron, Joseph Del Prete, Brendan McEvoy, Matt Bonner, Reid Miller, Chris McManus and Jack Dunphy kept the heat on the opposing goalies. Del Prete, Dunphy, and McEvoy (twice) provided all the scoring for the Thunder with Byron and Bencivengo collecting assists

SP-F U11 Soccer Sparx Calm Red Dragons, Hurricanes

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood U11 Sparx soccer team won their last two games by shutouts. On Mothers Day, the Sparx tamed the Greater Flemington Red Dragons 3-0 then calmed the West Orange Hurricanes, 6-0.

Against the Red Dragons, Jenny Altman ignited the offense, scoring off a cross from Olivia Francavilla. Flemington tried to answer back off a corner kick but were denied by a phenomenal diving save by goalie Jaclyn Law. Allison Goldberg scored the second goal off an assist from Saxony Nielsen. Flemington rallied again but Brittney Veeck made a leaping save in front of the goal. Jenna McGarry assisted Sheryl Markovitz on the final goal.

Against the Hurricanes, Law nailed a high shot from 25 yards out then followed up with another huge shot from the side. Samantha Bremer, Kim Shelus and Stephanie Glover kept the ball out of the backfield. Francavilla took a shot that was bobbled by the goalie and was quickly knocked in by Altman. McGarry guided a corner kick in front of the goal and Goldberg punched it in the corner.

The Hurricanes were denied a chance to score when Nielsen made a great save on a penalty kick. Strong Midfield play by Corrine Walker, Becca VonLangen and Erika White continued to allow the Sparx offense to pressure. Francavilla found the far corner of the net for the fifth goal and Altman scored the sixth unassisted.
