header bounced off the artificial turf and caromed off the crossbar where Fleissner smothered it.

Midway through the half, the Raiders came on the attack but the Cougar defenders were successful in keeping them pinched in the corners. Before game's end, Hensal did get another shot off but it cleared the crossbar.

In the second half, "The wind stopped our balls from getting out so we had to keep it on the ground. So Cranford had most of the play on their long balls over the top. They were getting farther in," explained Charles.

The Raiders have appeared in six-straight UCT finals and lost only one in 1999.

"I have to say that Scotch Plains has to be a little bit of a dynasty when it comes to the counties," commented Raider Head Coach Tom Breznitsky. "It was something that I talked about to the kids. I used a little bit of the tradition of Benedict's (St. Benedict's Prep). We are the King of the hill.

Benedict's, when they come to play us, feels the same way. They are the King of the hill."

Breznitsky added, "Our Benedict's game did a lot for us. I told our kids at halftime of our Benedict's game that we played exceptionally well. I said 'if you can play like that, you're going to walk through the remaining games that you have with the county and the state championship.' I sort of called upon them to dig down for that type of thing. And I think they responded."

The 16-1-3 Raiders, who have not lost to the Cougars since 1982 and have beaten them 4-2 and 1-0 twice this season, may have another opportunity to face them in the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 3 tournament.

"I'm proud of our team. We did it for the seniors this year. Three-peat! We're thankful," said Charles 6:49 on the clock. "After that second touchdown, all the momentum shifted. You could see by their (Farmers) body language. They were confused," Tranchina pointed out.

Toward the end of the quarter, the Farmers retaliated with an interception and marched to the Westfield 27. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Union attempted a field goal but Brad Trzesniewski blocked it to give Westfield possession at the 24.

"We stood up and played great defense," said Tranchina.

After an eight-yard reception by Adam Lessner and a three-yard squirt by Tom DeDuca, Coccoziello designed a play that caused everybody to flow right, except Butts who slipped out of the backfield to the left. Coccoziello fired. Butts grabbed the ball and sped to the end zone with 4:09 remaining.

"They play a man-to-man zone. Nobody saw him," explained Tranchina. "It's called a throwback to the halfback."

The Blue Devils' Mr. Hyde defense ripped the Farmers, forcing a punt that came to rest at the Westfield 34. Coccoziello hit Wilt for a 55-yard pass play and Butts barreled 11 yards for the winning TD.

"It was a great, great comeback win. What made it greater was Brian was sick and had no warm up. Montel (Glasco) was ill. Several guys were injured. They all seemed to put it past them, sucked it up and won," said Tranchina.

SURROUNDED BY WARRIORS...Raider Kyle Baker, No. 33, was surrounded by a host of hostile Warriors. Watchung Hills defeated the Raiders 35-20.

drive, Frank pushed in from the one with 2:44 left in the half. Jon Cesareo's successful point after gave the Warriors a 14-13 lead.

The success of the Warriors' single-wing late in the second quarter must have bewildered the Raiders' defense throughout the third quarter. Watchung Hills took just three plays to chew up 65 yards, concluded by Fred Vitollo's 23-yard TD sprint with 10:26 left in the quarter. Less than three minutes later, Frank hooked 62 yards around the right side to jump the Warriors' lead to 28-13. With 3:11 left in the third, Vitollo slanted through a big hole off tackle and zoomed 32 yards for the TD.

Highlighted by runs of 25, 15 and 14 yards by Adams, the Raiders marched from their own 25 to the Warrior 14 where Walker handed off to Adeyemo who dashed in for the TD with 9:05 left in the game.

"We talk about peaks and valleys in the game. As long as I've been around people or society, everybody handles peaks well. Everybody is your friend when things are going well. It's when the valleys hit that we have got to learn how to pick it up. I don't think we handled it well today," expressed Ciccotelli. "It's always a learning process. If we walk out of here and don't learn anything from this, we are fools. Hopefully, we have learned something and we are going to get it straightened out. We just got to regroup. We are in the playoffs. We got a home game. We just got to go from there."
