SP-F Soccer Thunder Ties St. John Vianny Pumas, 1-1

The Blue Thunder of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Soccer Association U-12 division locked horns with the St. John Vianny Pumas and battled to a 1-1 tie on September 22. The game was hotly contested and both teams were evenly matched. There was plenty of action at both ends of the field as each team had several scoring opportunities. Matt Bonner started in goal for the Thunder and played flawlessly as the two teams went into halftime knotted at 0-0. Andrew Smith went in to the goal in the second half and came up with several key saves. The Pumas, however, on a breakaway, took a 1-0 lead. With time winding down, it appeared that the Thunder would come up short; however, Danny Gore intercepted a Puma pass and launched it over the goalie's head for the score. In the closing seconds of the game, the Thunder had several chances but, each time, the Puma goalie rose to the occasion. Thunder forwards Joseph Del Prete, Reid Miller, Chris McManus, Andrew Manns, Greg Bencivengo, Mark Koransky and Bonner unleashed a barrage of shots as they out-shot the Pumas 19-10. Marc Fusillo, Colin Grimm, Mike Roth, Danny Rodriguez, Billy Johnston and Gore formed an impenetrable defensive wall that the Pumas could not beat.

The Westfield Blue Devils intercounty 14-and-under girls soccer team, consisting of 14 seventh graders and three eighth graders, battled to a, 1-1, tie with Scotch Plains 2 on September 15. Westfield had two controversial calls that nullified two goals go against them. Jamie Freeman's goal was disallowed when the ref called her offside, after a redirect shot by Stephanie Slodyczka. Erin Miller scored on an indirect kick that looked like the goaltender touched, but the ref saw differently. Scotch Plains only had one shot on goal in the scoreless first half. Goalie Erin Scialabba benefited from the tough Westfield defense led by Krissy Wendel, Arielle Magnanini, Mary Mahoney, Erin Bange, Rachel St. Lifer and Allison Oberlander. The Westfield goaltenders made 14 saves in the game. Scotch Plains scored first, 10 minutes into the second half, on a corner kick that Westfield failed to clear. Westfield midfielders Elizabeth Zoidis, Augustine Healy, Danielle Infantino and Christine Kandigan kept putting the pressure on. Then, finally with 10 minutes remaining, Ariel Gale made a great shot from the right side into the far left of the net. In other U14 Girls intercounty action, the Westfield Jersey Girls lost a tough, 1-0, battle to Scotch Plains 1. The Mountside Big Green defeated Westfield 4, 5-0, and New Providence defeated the Westfield Waves, 3-1. In their first intercounty contest, the Westfield Panthers lost to the Summit Breakers, 7-1.
