Ms. Katherine Egan to Wed William Lynch Wertheimer

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis E. Egan of Westfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ms. Katherine Anne "Katie" Egan, to William Lynch "Boomer" Wertheimer. He is the son of the Honorable and Mrs. William L'E Wertheimer, also of Westfield.

Raised in Westfield, the bride-elect was a member of Westfield High School's Class of 1998 and graduated in 2002 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Colby College in Waterville, Me. Ms. Egan is the head varsity coach of girls' soccer at Westfield High School and is working towards her teaching certificate in secondary education at Kean University in Union.

A lifelong resident of Westfield, the future bridegroom graduated from Westfield High School in 1995. He attended Landmark College in Putney, Vt. and graduated from Kean University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice. Mr. Wertheimer is employed as a team sales representative for Lax.com in Carlstadt.

Both Ms. Egan and Mr. Wertheimer reside in Westfield. The couple will be married in July 2006.

Lizard Guys Due Saturday At Local Farmers Market

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce will present The Lizard Guys as special guests at the Farmers Market this Saturday, August 27, from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Dressed in safari outfits, the Lizard Guys will be accompanied by a collection of their exotic animals. They will present information about where the animals come from, what they eat, how they hide and protect themselves, and the ways in which they differ from humans.

Donaldson Farms and Peaceful Valley Orchards will offer Jersey Fresh corn, tomatoes, peaches, beans, potatoes, lettuce, peppers and squash at the Farmers Market, plus an assortment of complimentary items, such as pies, jams and fresh mozzarella cheese.

The Farmers Market also features fresh baked goods from the Lithuanian Bakery and the Amish Country Bakery. Visitors will have an opportunity to sample multigrain breads, various pies and quick breads offered by these bakeries. Fresh flowers and special gift items also will be available from The Classic Basket and Kabloom, both local businesses.

The Westfield Farmers Market operates every Saturday in the South Avenue train station parking lot from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. through October 29. In addition to fresh produce and baked goods, there also is a full schedule of children's activities.

The Westfield Farmers Market is made possible through the support of Commerce Bank in Westfield and is organized by the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce. For more information, please call (908) 233-3021.

Garden Club of Westfield Honors Jennie Williams

WESTFIELD - The Garden Club of Westfield conferred an Honorary Membership on Jennie Williams at its meeting/luncheon on June 14 at the Echo Lake Country Club in Westfield.

The honor was bestowed in recognition of and appreciation for her many years of service and her support of the club's purposes and traditions.

"Jennie has an incredible talent for motivating individual members to participate in club projects and activities," remarked Jane Curtis, President of the Garden Club of Westfield.

"Her warmth and enthusiasm, coupled with her unflagging energy and leadership, have been remarkable. All of the members of the Westfield Garden Club are so grateful for her talents and her willingness to share them," Mrs. Curtis added.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD MATTHEW JOFFE (She is the former Miss Kelly Marie Bower)

Miss Kelly M. Bower Marries Edward M. Joffe

Miss Kelly Marie Bower, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Bower of Overland Park, Kan., was married on Saturday, June 4, to Edward Matthew Joffe. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joffe, Sr. of Westfield.

The Reverend Andrew Foster Connors officiated at the early evening garden ceremony. A reception followed at the Elkridge Furnace Inn in Baltimore, Md.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Dr. Kimberly Bower of San Diego, Calif., as her Maid of Honor. Her bridal attendants included Ms. Marnie Gillis of Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Rita Williams of New York City, college friends of the bride; Ms. Dustin Skidgel of Chicago, Ill. and Mrs. Susan Smith of Kansas City, Kan., childhood friends of the bride, and Mrs. Laura Jensen Bower of Hoboken, the bride's sister-in-law.

Brian Joffe of New York City and Sean Joffe of New Orleans, La., the brothers of the bridegroom, were the best men. Serving as groomsmen were Paul Hayes of Westfield, Victor Watkins of Fort Washington, Md. and Mark Delgrego of Fairfield, Conn., all friends of the bridegroom; Dr. Gary Buckholz of San Diego, Calif., the brother-in-law of the bride, and Steven Bower of Hoboken, the bride's brother.

The bride graduated from the University of Richmond in Richmond, Va. and earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree and master's degrees in Public Health and Community Health Nursing from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Md. She is a doctoral student in the university's School of Public Health and a faculty member in the School of Nursing at Johns Hopkins University. A Westfield High School graduate, the bridegroom earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pa. and a Master of Business Administration degree from Johns Hopkins University. He is employed as a Senior Project Manager for Whiting-Turner Construction Company in Baltimore.

The parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding at McCormack and Schmidt's in the Inner Harbor in Baltimore. Friends of the bride's mother, Mrs. Colin Sutherland and Mrs. Cheryl Smith, gave a bridal brunch at the Carriage Club in Kansas City. Mrs. Lynn Leitner, a friend of the bridegroom's mother, hosted a bridal shower in her home in Mantoloking.

The bridal attendants honored the couple with a pre-wedding party in Baltimore. A bridal luncheon, hosted by the bride's mother, was held on the day of the wedding at Helen's Garden in Baltimore.

Following a wedding trip to Belize, Central America, the couple resides in the Federal Hill section of Baltimore.
