Leukemia Society to Honor Mothers With 'Tea Party'

WESTFIELD—The Northern New Jersey Chapter of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society will provide an opportunity for people to honor their mothers on Mother's Day this year by raising funds to help find cures for cancer.

Groups or individuals will ask friends, neighbors and family members to take a moment on Mother's Day, and "have a cup of tea at the hour of three."

"Although there's no real tea party, we believe it's important to take a moment on Mother's Day to reflect on the value that moms provide in this world," said Stacey Boman, Executive Director of the Northern New Jersey Chapter, based in Westfield. "Mothers give us life, and it's natural to honor them by contributing to the Society, which is in the business of prolonging, enhancing and saving the lives of people with leukemia.

Hodgkin's and non-Hodgkin lymphoma and myeloma."

The Society's Mother's Day Tea raises hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, in communities all over the country. More than 75 percent of funds spent by the Society will be used to advance blood cancer research, patient services, education and advocacy.

The Society is looking for local clubs, organizations or individuals to volunteer as hosts for this year's tea. For additional information on how to host or participate, call Kisha Achee at (908) 654-9445, call (800) 726-CURE or email achoek@nj-no.leukemia-lymphoma.org.

For additional information on ways to help the Society by donating or volunteering, call (888) HELP-LLS.
