WF's Lexi Boor Gets Second in Net Tourney

CHATHAM - Nine-year-old Lexi Boor of Westfield reached the finals of the prestigious Christine O'Reilly Tennis Tournament, a sanctioned USTA level 5 National Event, at the Center Court Tennis Club.

Borr, seeded sixth, downed third-seeded Valentina Cantin, of New York 6-1, 6-4, in the quarterfinals and ousted top-seeded Eva Raszkiewicz of New York, 6-3, 6-1, in the semis. She lost in the finals in a three-hour, three-set dual to Denise Starr of Staten Island 1-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Borr currently holds a ranking of 4 in the Southern region in the girls' 12-and-under (12U) and holds an eastern ranking of 32. Lexi trains daily at the Westfield Indoor Tennis Club with her sister Samantha, also a highly ranked 12U competitor who holds an eastern ranking of 49, and recently won a L2 southern regional championship at the Jersey 34 Tennis Center in Matawan.

Lexi and Samantha are coached by their parents Adam and Marcy Borr, both former Division 1 full scholarship college players who competed on the professional circuit.

SPF U12 Soccer Tempest Top North Brunswick Girls, 5-0

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood U12 Girls soccer team, the Tempest, opened their indoor season on January 9 with a commanding, 5-0 win against North Brunswick at The Center Circle complex in Rahway.

Emma Kelly and Melanie Rome opened the game by peppering the North Brunswick goalkeeper early and often but it was not until 17 minutes into the game that the Tempest scored the first goal. Rebecca Kreyer took a pass from Erica Randazzo and found the corner of the net to make it 1-0. Liz Tenzer then set up Meghan Cunningham with a beautiful pass to give the Tempest a 2-0 lead.

Paige Della Badia followed with two goals 50 seconds apart then Kelly made it 5-0 off a cross from Claudia Falconeri. North Brunswick's offense was kept in check with solid pressure from Ali Pearl, Michelle Rogoff and Avika Shah, while goalkeepers Della Badia and Shah combined for the shutout. Emily Nagourney was unable to play due to injury.
