DEATH NOTICE

Margaret Waltman, 84, Was Dietician; Involved In Scouting, Church and CSH

Margaret Grubb Waltman went peacefully to the loving arms of her Lord on Monday, May 2, 2005 in Chesterfield, Va. at age 84.

Born and raised in Lancaster County, Pa., Margaret graduated from Quarryville High School at age 16. She was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics from the University of Delaware in 1941. The following year, she married her high school sweetheart, Owen Leonard Waltman, and began married life in Louisville, Ky.

Margaret and Owen moved to Scotch Plains in 1946. They settled in Westfield in 1954, and joined The Presbyterian Church in Westfield soon thereafter. As an active member, Margaret served in numerous capacities, including the role of Elder. She was known for her high level of integrity and willingness to serve.

During her 48 years in Westfield, she distinguished herself through exceptional service to community organizations. While her children were young, she served as both a Cub Scout and a Girl Scout leader.

She was honored for giving thousands of hours of service to The Children's Specialized Hospital, as a member of the Senior Auxiliary. She also made significant contributions to the College Woman's Club and the Westfield Day Care Center.

Margaret was employed as the Head Dietician at the Elm Street Junior High School and then for 18 years as a nursery school teacher with St. Paul's Episcopal Church. She was an independent thinker with a lifelong drive to learn and educate herself. An avid reader with varied interests, Margaret's many other hobbies included yoga, sewing and knitting, playing the piano, bridge and golf.

Margaret is survived by her devoted husband, Owen (Walt), now living in Chesterfield, Va., as well as their four children, Owen, Jr. (Jock) of Chesterfield, Va., Allen of Milton, Mass., Susan of Clifton Park, N.Y., and Mark of Princeton Junction, N.J.; seven grandchildren and one great-grandson. Her sister, Hilda G. Herr, resides in Tampa, Fla. There are two surviving nephews and one niece.

A memorial service will be held at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield later this spring.

The family requests that those wishing to honor Margaret make contributions to the Alzheimer's Foundation, 225 North Michigan Avenue, Suite 1700, Chicago, Ill. 60601.
