Alfano Wins WTA Men's Open, Errazo Takes the 'B' Crown

Joe Alfano won the Westfield Tennis Association (WTA) Open Men's Singles Tournament for the second time, defeating Gary Wasserman in the finals, 6-3, 6-3. Robert Errazo won the "B" bracket by defeating Dan Siegel, 6-4, 6-4.

Alfano broke Wasserman early in the first set, Wasserman came back but Alfano won the decisive break at the end of the first set. The second set saw a number of breaks on both sides. Alfano was thanked the WTA for serving to the Westfield tennis community. Vince Camuto will play Mark Bernstein of Springfield for the bronze trophy this weekend.

Weldon Chin bested Tuyen Diep, 6-4, 6-2, for third in the "B" bracket.

The men's open doubles tournament as well as the women's open tournament is planned to take place in the second half of June. Check the website for details: www.westfieldnj.com/wta

SPF Blue Sharks Snip Westfield U14, 2-1

The Scotch Plains Blue Sharks U12 Girls inter-county soccer team out-hustled, out-dribbled and out-passed the Westfield U14 team to win its third straight game, 2-1 in Westfield on May 15. The victory improved the Sharks to 3-2-1.

Westfield scored first on a long kick that took a strange bounce on the hard field, eluding goalie Melissa McKenna. The Sharks quickly evened the score as Amanda Rodriguez took a pass from Sarah Lazarus and split two defenders for a breakaway goal that left the teams even at halftime.

The Sharks netted their second goal when Erin Brown converted a direct kick from 20 yards away. McKenna saved the victory when she tipped away an apparent Westfield goal in the final minutes.

There was a total team effort that included McKenna, Lauren Berk, Toni Ann Capece, Sarah Weber, Alyssa Young, Jessica DiGiacomo, Kara Gaynor, Rebecca DiGiacomo, Jessica Feeley, Annie Rubin, Lauren Buckley and Desli DeMarsico.

WTA MEN'S 65+ DOUBLES CHAMPIONS...Howard Long, left, and Warren Victor won the WTA Men's Doubles Championship.

MANOR PARK CHARMER

This Henry West built Colonial-Split is absolutely spectacular. Expect character, charm, grace and plenty of space. The eat-in-kitchen and both baths are new. What's old are the Chestnut doors and they're gorgeous. Yes to arches, stained glass, gleaming hardwood floors, French doors, a stone fireplace with bookcases and full mantle, C/AC, and large beautifully presented rooms. Other features that make this home so special are the sunroom, deck, patio and professionally landscaped property. Three bedrooms, two full baths. High $650's. Dir: Central Avenue to Elizabeth Avenue to Irving Avenue.
