of the UCT, appeared very relaxed en route to victory. "She (Louie) was laughing at something I said and did, but that's all," said a giggling Morawski. "We played them during counties, so we were pretty confident." "In the beginning, I was kind of nervous because Kim and I have just come back together after a week off because she has been out with an injury," admitted Louie. Next, first singles player Nikki

"We felt confident because we were the first seed but we don't underestimate any team because all the teams are good and you have to put in your all in every match," said Reich. "I played well. I was aggressive and she is a good player. My serve was on and whenever she gave me a short ball, I just put it away. I was making all of my approach shots." Lane Maloney took no chances with Chanel Alexander and rolled to a 6-1, 6-3, triumph at third singles.

POSITIONING HERSELF...Blue Devil Co-Captain Lisa Aliche gets herself in position to make a good return against the Union Farmers.

sprinted seven yards into the end zone for the touchdown with 5:16 left. The Tigers' next TD came in the third quarter when Thomas took a punt 80 yards into the end zone. The two-point conversion to Jerry Jones was good as Linden claimed a 14-0 lead. Tremendous defensive efforts by both teams turned out to be the story for the remainder of the third quarter.

The Blue Devils got on the board with a touchdown in the fourth quarter when Gagliano hauled in the 35-yard TD toss from DeRosa. Bonard's punt after kick sailed through the uprights to narrow the Tigers' lead to 14-7.

Linden expanded its lead to 21-7 on Jones' 17-yard TD pass to Samuels, then put the game away on Capers' 30-yard TD run.

"It was rough. We were in it all the way and they led only 6-0 at the half," said senior tackle Stewart Cowles. "They took a punt back for a touchdown and it seemed like we to fell apart from there. We had a nice touchdown pass, but it wasn't enough today. Defensively, we look good at times but we can also look very bad at times. We need to keep our heads up and get back to the drawing board next week."

PULLING OFF THE STIFFARM...Blue Devil Andrew Shaffer, No. 29, stiff arms a Tiger defender.

Reich knew that she could not let down against a sporting Krysten Chen, and did not as she guided her way to a 6-1, 6-1, victory.

"I don't take anything for granted. You have to keep a level head going into the tournament," commented Maloney.

Scotch Hills Women Tell Golf Results:

A spokeswoman for the Scotch Hills Women's Golf Association of Scotch Plains announced the results of the Best Ball of Four Tournament held October 4.
