

LEAPING HIGH AGAINST SUMMIT...Westfield PAL "C" football team wide receiver Jackson O'Leary, No. 85, leaps high to snag a catch against Summit.

Westfield PAL 'C' Comes Up Short against Summit, 12-7

A potent passing offense by the Westfield PAL C football team came up short against Summit, 12-7, on October 9. Quarterbacks Patrick Dyer and Nathan Mitchell combined to throw for 163 yards. Wide receiver Jackson O'Leary led all receivers with five catches for 101 yards. Trailing 12-0 halfway through the third quarter, Dyer pitched to halfback Mitchell, who ran around the outside and threw a 36-yard pass to O'Leary. On the following play, Mitchell connected with tight end Jake Harris, who scampered 32 yards to the Summit 30. Wing back Brandon Vassallo (3 rushes for 27 yards) faked a reverse to O'Leary and barreled to the Summit 21. The drive ended on the next play when Westfield fumbled a snap. Westfield's only score came late in the fourth quarter. Running back Paul Werner (9 rushes for 70 yards) swept around the outside, following the blocking of linemen Richard O'Connor, Nicholas Ertman and Tyler Monaco for a 32 yards. Two plays later, Werner ran in for a TD then converted the extra point. Earlier, Werner had a 58-yard TD run called back for a penalty. Also, Running backs John Lanzano, and Chris Albanese carried the ball for Westfield.

Linebackers Alex Williams and Ryan Elliot (10 tackles each) led the defense, which limited Summit to only 32 rushing yards. Linemen Anthony Amatucci, Alec Gerity, Mathew Trinkle, linebackers Josh Poslusny, Nick Knepper and Mike Kalimtzis delivered crushing tackles. Summit, unable to establish any up the middle running, tuned their game to the outside, resulting in two touchdowns.

SCORING THE FIRST TD...Westfield PAL "A" football team defensive end Sean Scrudato, No. 54, picks off a pass and returns it to score Westfield's first TD of the game. Westfield defeated Summit, 22-6.

Westfield Area Y Introduces New Youth Sports Programs

The Westfield Area Y is offering a new Instructional Kindergarten Basketball League available to boys and girls to introduce children to team play. Teams meet every Sunday for one hour. Teams practice for the first 25 minutes and play a game for the last 35 minutes. The league runs from October 30 to January 15 at the new East Broad Street Family Branch.

Together with BRUSA, the Westfield Area Y will offer Futsal Clinics beginning October 30. BRUSA is an organization with an educational mission to teach the simple, exciting and winning Brazilian soccer style in a way that meets North American soccer needs. Futsal is the internationally known form of indoor soccer. It is a great skill developer and requires quick reflexes, fast thinking and pinpoint passing.

Clinics are available for children ages 4 to 9 and are taught by Brazilian soccer player and coach Eduardo Paulo, who holds three BRUSA licenses to coach soccer and has won numerous championships both in the United States and Brazil.

For more information on either program, please call Jennifer Hessberger, Sports Director at (908) 233-2700 extension no.258.

WF PAL 'E' Deadlocks Parsippany PAL, 0-0

The Westfield PAL football E team (3-1-1) played Parsippany to a 0-0 tie at Kehler Stadium on October 9 in a defensive struggle as both teams played exceptional defense.

Leading the Westfield 'D' was Matt Barber from his nose guard position, disrupting the Parsippany offense with two sacks and two tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Linebackers Thomas Anderson and Chris Callahan made big hits. Thomas Gerris, Mark Trinkle, Andrew Simcox, David Kane and AJ Monaco made tackles for losses.

Offensively, Jack Levine and Conner Cummings made positive plays for Westfield against a tough Parsippany defense. Westfield PAL E will travel to Irvington on Sunday, October 16.

DRIVING TOWARD THE GOAL...Westfield PAL B fullback Tony Pafumi, No. 22, drives towards the goal line with Springfield defenders in tow. Two plays later he scored a TD. Westfield defeated Springfield, 25-13, to bring its record to 5-0.

WF PAL 'B' Grid Kids Beat Springfield PAL 'B', 25-13

The Westfield PAL "B" football team improved to 5-0 by defeating Springfield, 25-13, on October 9. The little Blue Devils overcame a 6-0 deficit when Springfield ran for a 65-yard touchdown on the opening play of the game.

Westfield quickly regrouped in its next possession to tie the game when quarterback Dan Kerr connected with wide receiver Ryan Hess for a touchdown. Deep in their own territory, the Springfield boys attempted to answer but nose guard Mike Giacone came through with an interception to bring the ball within 10 yards of the goal. Moments later, Kerr scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak. Halfback Craig Callahan, running behind tackle Nick Matthews, converted the extra point, giving Westfield a 13-6 lead.

Springfield responded with another sprint down the left side for a touchdown. The extra point was good. In the second half, Westfield completed a series with a touchdown when Jack Kephart swept down the left side. The extra point failed.

Westfield's defense dictated policy the rest of the game, when defensive end Matt Buccino leveled Springfield's running back for a five-yard loss. Linebacker Tony Pafumi, safety Patrick Bergin and cornerback Hayden Kopsper stopped Springfield in its tracks. Tom Snyder recovered a forced fumble.

Westfield's final touchdown came when Hess made a fingertip grab of Kerr's 30-yard pass. Pafumi followed with a 10-yard touchdown run.

Westfield will face undefeated, unscathed upon - as of October 7 - host Scotch Plains on Sunday, October 16 at 1:15 p.m.
