Rugby Mudturtles Extend Record to 3-1

The Union County Rugby team, the Mudturtles, extended its record to 3-1 with a 15-0 victory over Princeton on October 8 in Princeton. The Mudturtles' next two home games will be on Saturday, October 15, and Saturday, October 22, at Unami Park on the Westfield/Garwood/Cranford border. Both games are scheduled for 1 p.m.

Spectators are encouraged to observe this exciting sport.

U14 Blue Sharks Rout Westfield Girls, 6-0

The Scotch Plains Blue Sharks U14 Girls intercounty soccer team finally ended its scoring slump with a vengeance as they routed Westfield, 6-0, at Houlihan Field in Westfield. The game was a makeup from the previous Saturday when monsoon rains cancelled most weekend events.

The fourth consecutive shutout lifted the Sharks' record to 3-0-1 but there was none of the tension evident in the first three games as a four-goal, first half made the result inevitable. Annie Rubin and Alyssa Young each scored twice and Jessica and Rebecca DiGiacomo added second-half goals. For the first time this fall someone other than Melissa McKenna played goalie as Kara Gaynor split time.

Other standouts included Sarah Lazarus, Giulia Mercuri Sarah Weber, Amanda Rodriguez, Emily Cohen, Dominique Osterman and Nikki Hodulik.

WF Strikers Blank Soccer Hurricanes, 2-0

The Westfield Strikers scored two second-half goals to down the South Mountain Hurricanes, 2-0, in a U14 Girls Inter-County soccer game.

Westfield dominated early possession, playing the ball into wide areas and exploiting the space behind South Mountain's defense. The Strikers created several chances, but the finishing touch was missing and the Hurricane's keeper stayed strong with good hands. South Mountain offered offensive resistance later in the first half.

In the second half, South Mountain nearly scored straight from the kickoff when a break from their forward resulted in a shot whistling a fraction wide of the far post. Westfield, however, scored six minutes after the interval when Anna Powell broke free from her marker and unleashed a strong shot to find the corner of the net.

The Strikers maintained their concentration and looked to provide a cushion. Christina Scaglione showed great determination and attitude to secure the ball in the penalty box and release a low, powerful shot through a crowd of players to score the second goal.

SP Tennis Teen Wins SP-F Doubles Title

Imagine playing 67 games of tennis! For the young and fit, maybe it's just another day at the tennis court. For Alyssa Torpey, Scotch Plains resident and a junior at The Wardlaw-Hartridge School in Edison, it is a part of what she did to snag the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Doubles Championship title this past August with her tennis partner Tommy Sutte, a sophomore from Scotch Plains Fanwood High School.

"We won five matches in 67 games and a tiebreaker," she explained. "We made a good team and were able to change our way of playing according to our opponents. We both had strengths that were complimentary." The tournament, sponsored by the township, took place at the Kramer Manor tennis courts in Scotch Plains.

Alyssa also won the Girls 16-and-Under Singles Championship in Plainfield, sponsored by Plainfield and held in the Plainfield Tennis Center. Alyssa has been playing tennis for 10 years and plays first singles for the Wardlaw-Hartridge team.
