

CHRONO'S TAVERN SOFTBALL CHAMPS...The Chrono's Tavern of Mountainside Annual softball game was, once again, won by the Chrono's Oldtimers, this time by a score of 7-5. Last year, the Oldtimers pulled out a 15-7 victory.

Chrono's Old-Timers Defeat Young Guys in Softball Classic

MOUNTAINSIDE — On Saturday, Sept 17 at the Chrono's Annual softball game in Mountainside, the Old-Timers pulled off a 7-5 victory. The senior gents also bombed the Chrono's kids last year by a crushing score of 15-7.

Team Captain Willie Costine put together the winning team. Neal Bradley put together the losing team again.

Nick Archambault knocked in an RBI at the start of the game. Then Charlie Swab brought in two more runs in the third, putting the old timers ahead. By the 6th inning, the "geeser guys" were on fire with the help of Cliff D'Anna and Lucky Jack Hay, each picking up a run.

There was only one injury in the 6th when a foul ball landed on John Walsh's windshield — shattering it.

By the ninth inning, the game was tied until Mike Chrono brought in two runs with a lucky swing.

Willie Costine on the mound threw his best pitch of the game, but it was lined like a rope right back at him. Willie stuck his arm to take one for the team to stop the ball with his forearm. He shook off the pain and stopped the runner at 1st.

The oldest representative of the league and now a spectator, Joe "the fireman" Yaworski said, "The score was closer this year because John Bradley had to work. Umpire Walter Betyeman had no one to provide a little cash to, to loosen up the score." He went on to say that while growing up as a kid in Curwensville, PA, "I don't recall anyone missing an opportunity to exchange a little friendly cash with the ump." Umpire Walter Betyeman good-naturedly remarked, "It is absolutely false that money exchanged hands from Gents Manager John Bradley last year prior to the start of the game.

This year, all calls of the umpire Walter Betyeman seemed to be fair.

The money raised is being matched by Ameriqwest Mortgage to total over $1500. This money will go to help those from Hurricane Katrina.
