Prayer to the Blessed Virgin

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN: (Never known to fail)

Oh most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine splendor of heaven. Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me show me herein, you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3X). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances in my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for the things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer three consecutive days. After three days, the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favor is granted. K.M.C.

The Arc of Union County To Hold Candlelight Ball

MOUNTAINSIDE - The Arc of Union County will hold its 42nd Annual Candlelight Ball on Saturday, April 8, at L'Affaire in Mountaintside. There will be a cocktail reception at 7 p.m., with the dinner and awards presentation to begin at 8 p.m.

Beverly Roberts, who for the past 17 years has been The Arc of New Jersey's Director of Mainstreaming Medical Care, will be honored during the event with the 2006 Community Service Award.

Mrs. Roberts has been contributing to the welfare of individuals with developmental disabilities for over 30 years, having served as an administrator, health care advocate, newsletter editor and counselor.

An advocate who helps ensure that health care providers are educated about the special needs of persons with disabilities, she also acts as a resource to help consumers and their families resolve problems related to Medicaid managed care.

The Kendall Park resident travels throughout New Jersey helping to educate professionals, providers and families who are seeking understanding and guidance.

Additionally, Mrs. Roberts spearheads the Healthy Times newsletter and the Annual Conference on Medical Care for Persons with Developmental Disabilities.

Offered through The Arc of New Jersey, both are designed to help health care professionals, staff from provider agencies and caregivers expand their knowledge and to provide increased access and a coordinated approach to medical care for people with developmental disabilities.

Area residents and members of the business community are invited to attend the event, which will feature dinner, dancing and celebration. For ticket price and/or advertising information, please call (973) 315-0000. Additional information on The Arc of Union County and The Arc of New Jersey are available on their respective websites, www.arcnj.org and www.arcunion.org.

Arboretum to Conduct Maple Sugar Program

SUMMIT - The Reeves-Reed Arboretum, located at 165 Hobart Avenue in Summit, will present a family program on maple sugaring on Saturday, February 25.

Participants will learn how to identify a sugar maple tree and tap it for its sap. Indoors, they will be able to watch the sap boil down into syrup and then taste the result.

Demonstrations are scheduled beginning at 9 a.m. The fee for the program is $5 per person. Children under two will be admitted for free. Pancake breakfasts will be available starting at 8:15 a.m. for an additional fee.

The arboretum also offers hands-on after-school Family Fun workshops designed to educate children about nature in a fun format. Those pre-school age through second grade are eligible for the classes, which run on Mondays and Fridays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Pre-registration is required for the Family Fun workshops, maple sugaring and pancake breakfasts. Interested individuals are asked to call (908) 273-8787, extension no. 15.

IHM Plans Sessions Of 'Why Catholic?'

SCOTCH PLAINS - The small, community-based program entitled "Why Catholic?" will begin the week of Sunday, February 26, at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains.

Day or evening sessions will be held on various days and will continue throughout the weeks of Lent. Using "The Profession of Faith: What We Believe" material, sessions will focus on helping deepen Catholic adults' understanding of the complexities of their faith and applying these beliefs to everyday life.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Church is located at 1571 Martine Avenue in Scotch Plains. For further information, please call the Parish Center at (908) 889-2100.
