

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ANDREW O'BRIEN
(She is the former Miss Regan Ann McGonigle)

Miss Regan A. McGonigle Marries Robert A. O'Brien

Miss Regan Ann McGonigle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. McGonigle of Westfield, was married on Saturday, September 10, to Robert Andrew O'Brien. He is the son of Mrs. Maureen O'Brien of Centerville, Mass. and the late William O'Brien.

The wedding and reception took place at the Aldrich Mansion on Narragansett Bay in Warwick, R.I. The Reverend Bob Hawkins, a friend of the bride's family, officiated at the afternoon ceremony in the mansion's chapel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a champagne, strapless gown by Judd Waddell and an elbow-length veil and carried a bouquet of burnt orange calla lilies.

Miss Joanna McGonigle of Philadelphia, Pa. was her sister's maid of honor. The bridal attendants included Mrs. Renee Szalkowski of Fredon Township, a close college friend of the bride; Mrs. Joelle DeLisa of Golden, Colo.; Mrs. Samantha Hack of San Francisco, Calif. and Ms. Rebecca Powell of Alexandria, Va., also friends of the bride, and Mrs. Linda Thompson of Ontario, Canada, the bridegroom's sister. They wore black gowns in different styles and carried mixed bouquets in fall colors.

Rich Abate of Reading, Mass., a childhood friend of the bridegroom, was the best man. Serving as groomsmen were Mark O'Brien of Haverhill, Mass., the bridegroom's brother, along with Christopher Caruso, Michael Girouard, Sean Ronayne and Jon Zahlaway, all of Reading, Mass.; Eric Meyer of Windham, N.H. and Randy Walker of Wolfboro, N.H., friends of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Jennifer Meyer of Windham, N.H., Mrs. Melissa Curley of Auburn, N.H. and Ms. Irene Hodor of Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif., all close friends of the couple, gave readings.

A 1990 graduate of Westfield High School, the bride received a Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Science from Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa. in 1994. She has been employed with Exxon Mobil Corporation for seven years as an environmental engineer.

The bridegroom graduated in 1988 from Reading High School and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Bentley College in Waltham, Mass. in 1994. In August 2002, he graduated from the Massachusetts State Police Academy and will earn his master's degree in criminal justice in July from Curry College in Milton, Mass.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the mother of the bridegroom, was held the night before the wedding at Barnsider's Mile and a Quarter in Providence, R.I.

Following a wedding trip to New Zealand, the couple returned to their home in Boxborough, Mass.

Golden Agers Club to Install New Officers at Luncheon

SCOTCH PLAINS - The Scotch Plains Golden Agers Club will complete another year with a luau today, Thursday, June 29, at the Scotch Hills Country Club in Scotch Plains, at which time the club also will install new officers for the next two years beginning in September. Newly appointed President Jean DeTorre, Vice President Jeanette Rotella, Treasurer Mary DeJesso and Secretary Ilse Heinemeyer will assume responsibilities of running the club.

The Golden Agers will start the new trip year by visiting Ehrhardt's in Lake Wallenpaupack, Pa. on Thursday, September 28. Tickets are $54, which covers the cost of the luncheon, a variety show, the bus and a train ride that will enable participants to view the scenic fall foliage at that time of the year. The bus will leave from the Scotch Plains Municipal Building parking lot, 430 Park Avenue, at 8:30 a.m. that day. Booking will be accepted over the summer.

The club offers senior citizens an opportunity to meet with their peers, share ideas, interact and gather useful information to enhance daily living.

The club meets weekly on Thursdays at 10 a.m., September through June, at the Scotch Hills Country Club. Birthday celebrations, bingo and socializing are all part of the weekly meetings.

Members are invited to offer suggestions for activities, and free lunches are provided at least one week during each month. Guest speakers also present information on a variety of topics.

Membership, theater excursions, musical revues and other activity trips are available to everyone. For trip details, please call Jean DeTorre at (908) 889-4121 or Mary DeJesso at (908) 654-4512. Club information is available from Olga Bruce at (908) 322-8530.

Area Residents Invited To 'Spirituality Basics'

WESTFIELD - The Reverend Dee Dee Turlington, Senior Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Westfield, will offer three classes on "Spirituality Basics." Open to the public, they will take place from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Sundays, July 2, 9 and 16, in the church lounge. The First Baptist Church is located at 170 Elm Street.

This short-term course will include lecture, discussion and practical application exercises on Listening to God, Making Choices, Finding Time for Sabbath "R and R" and other topics linked to people's good intentions about healthy lifestyles.

The course is offered free of charge. For more information, interested persons are asked to call the church at (908) 233-2278 or e-mail firstbaptist.westfield@verizon.net.

Library to Commence Reading Program

SCOTCH PLAINS - Area students entering sixth grade and above are invited to participate in the Scotch Plains Public Library's summer reading program that kicks off today, Thursday, June 29, and will continue through Thursday, July 27.

This year's theme will be "Creature Feature." Young adults can read for prizes and attend an assortment of special events. Classic monster movies will be shown on Thursdays from June 29 through July 20 at 6:30 p.m.

A cartooning workshop will be held on Monday, July 10, at 6:30 p.m., when professional artist Rick Sector will teach the basics of drawing cartoons. A taekwon-do workshop is set for Tuesday, July 18, at 6:30 p.m. Black-belt members of Jeff Serdinsky's Martial Arts America will demonstrate skills and teach some basic techniques. Advance registration is required for both workshops.

Young adults can register for these free events at the library, located at 1927 Bartle Avenue, starting today. For more information or a full schedule of events, please call (908) 322-5007 or visit www.scotlib.org.

Miss Jessica May Harris and Anthony Joseph Bossolina

Miss Jessica Harris To Wed Anthony Bossolina

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Harris of Westfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jessica May Harris, to Anthony Joseph Bossolina. He is the son of Mrs. Georgette Bossolina of Rivervale and the late Anthony David Bossolina.

The future bride, a 1996 graduate of Westfield High School, earned both her bachelor's degree and master's degree in speech-language pathology from Loyola College in Baltimore, Md. Miss Harris is employed as the Senior Speech-Language Pathologist for Meadowlands Hospital in Secaucus.

Her fiancé is a 1993 graduate of St. Joseph's Regional High School in Montvale. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Green Mountain College in Poulney, Vt. and is employed as Director of Physician Relations for American Surgisite Centers in Somerset.

An October 2006 wedding is planned in Cranford.

Library Reveals Offerings For Teens This Summer

WESTFIELD - The Westfield Memorial Library is offering "Creature Feature," an online summer reading program designed specifically for teens, through Saturday, August 12.

Any teenager who is a full service library cardholder, entering grades 6 to 12 and who has a valid e-mail address can become part of the club via the Internet. All eligible participants must register online at www.wmlnj.org/main/teens.asp.

Registration is now open and can be done from any Internet-ready computer, including those located in the library. Prizes include free nights of rentals from the library's video/DVD collection and new hardcover books. Those who complete 25 hours of reading will automatically be entered in a random drawing to win one of four $25 Visa Gift Card grand prizes.

Also for teenagers, the library will sponsor "Snack and Yak," an informal discussion group about favorite books and authors; Teen Gaming Night, featuring Dance, Dance Revolution, X-Box sports and arcade games plus a variety of board games, and three movies geared toward teens.

For more details about "Creature Feature" and a complete schedule of summer activities for teenagers, please visit www.wmlnj.org/main/teens.asp. The programs for teens are free and open to full-service Westfield Memorial Library cardholders. No pre-registration is required.

For adults, the library will present "TGIF: John Phillip Sousa" on Friday, July 7, at 1:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. Adult programs are free and open to Westfield Memorial Library or M.U.R.A.L. cardholders.

For children, the "Mother Goose Group" for toddlers to age two-and-a-half and a caregiver, will meet Wednesday, July 5, from 10 to 10:20 a.m.

Additionally on July 5, children are invited to play chess at the library from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

"Tots' Story Time," for those age two-and-a-half to three-and-a-half with a caregiver, will meet Thursday, July 6, from 10 to 10:30 a.m.

"Preschool Storytime," for youngsters age three-and-a-half to five but not yet in kindergarten, will meet July 6 from 2 to 2:30 p.m.

"Creative Dramatics," for children in kindergarten through third grade, will be held July 6 from 4 to 4:45 p.m.

"ABC Bingo," for young children who know some of their letters, will be offered on Friday, July 7, from 10 to 10:45 a.m. Children play bingo and win stickers.

Children's programs are open to all full-service Westfield Memorial Library cardholders.

The library is located at 550 East Broad Street in Westfield. For more information, please call (908) 789-4090, visit www.wmlnj.org or pick up the quarterly newsletter.
