

I'M YOURS...McKinley Kindergarten teachers Kathy Speir and Trish Corcoran recently involved their students, with help from the fifth graders, in a Valentine's Day remembrance for soldiers serving in Iraq. Lots of love, hugs and heartfelt messages were signed, sealed and delivered in time for Valentine's Day.

Holy Trinity Competes In Scholastic Olympics

WESTFIELD - Holy Trinity Interparochial School recently competed in the Roselle Catholic Scholastic Olympics various subject areas in Art, Current Events, English, American History, Mathematics, Religion, Science, Spelling and Forensics. The team placed second and just missed first place by two points.

The majority of the Holy Trinity representatives won a place in the competition. Those students earning places were: Alexandra Manduca (Art, second), Conor Loughlin (Current Events, first), Jennifer Sgalardi (Current Events, second), Caraugh Ball (English, second), Lorraine Cambria (English, third), Ben Stracquantano (History, second), Patricia Whitehead (History, third), Jessica Mondon (Mathematics, first), Connor Tucciarone (Religion, second), Christina Ventura (Religion, third), Caroline Williams (Science, third), Christopher Buldo (Spelling, second) and Emma DiGiovine (Spelling, second).

Other participants included Agatha Kuza, Catherine Munkittrick and Meghan Salvati. Patricia Byrne and Joseph Wargo, eighth-grade faculty, moderate the Scholastic Olympics Team.

FUTURE OLYMPIANS...The three-year old classes at Wesley Hall Nursery School participated in their own winter Olympics this month. They had an opening ceremony and Olympic parade complete with flags. The children had bobsled races, tried speed skating on paper plates and finished with a "snowball toss." Each child was awarded a gold medal for his or her efforts. Pictured, left to right, are Dominic Maurillo and Jack Nolan from the Duck Pond Class.

LANparty on Tap Tomorrow Evening

SCOTCH PLAINS - A LANparty will be held tomorrow, Friday, March 10, at 6 p.m. at the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad building at 1916 Bartle Avenue.

The Amateur Computer Group of New Jersey (ACGNJ) will host the event, during which computer gamers network personal computers to play video games. Games typically played include Battlefield, Call of Duty and Unreal Tournament.

Players must bring their own computer and cables. Anyone may come and watch but players are asked to donate five dollars.

Additionally, ACGNJ will hold its Window Pains meeting on Friday, March 17, at 8 p.m., when the topic will be AJAX. AJAX is a technology used for Web-based programs such as Google maps. For details on these or any of the group's other monthly meetings, please visit www.acgnj.org.

St. Mark's Social Club Plans Mass and Dinner

AREA - In lieu of the regular March meeting of the St. Mark's Social Club, the Reverend Bill Morris, founder of the club, will celebrate a memorial Mass for members' loved ones.

The Mass will take place at 6 p.m. on Friday, March 24, at St. Mark's Church, located at 287 Hamilton Street in Rahway. Afterward, the group will meet for dinner at 7 p.m. at Flynn's Irish Pub, 1482 Main Street in Rahway.

A fixed menu offering a selection of four entrees, including salad, coffee, tea, soda and dessert is priced at $21. Reservations must be made in advance by Wednesday, March 15.

The St. Mark's Social Club is a club for unmarried mature adults. To make reservations for the dinner, please call Ann at (908) 272-8796 or Nina at (732) 381-1298.
