Emma weighed 7 pounds and 1 ounce and measured 19 3/4 inches in length at birth.

She joins her sisters, Katie, age five, and Julia, age three.

The baby's maternal grandmother is Rosemary Horkay of Fairfield. Her paternal grandparents are Addy Clark of Spotswood and the late Joseph Clark, Jr.

Stephen Horkay of Fairfield is Emma's maternal great-grandfather.

P.E.O. Chapter U Conducts Installation of New Officers

WESTFIELD - P.E.O. Chapter U of Westfield installed its new slate of officers on March 1 at the home of Midge Hogan of Warren. A philanthropic and educational organization, P.E.O. is dedicated to promoting education opportunities for women.

Westfield resident Shirley Hooper named Kathy Storcks, also of Westfield, as president. Mrs. Hogan was named vice-president. Also installed were Marge McCormack of Westfield, treasurer; Betty Evans of Mountainside, corresponding secretary; Lois Patchett of Westfield, recording secretary; Virginia Toenes of Westfield, Chaplain and Sue Miller of Basking Ridge, Guard.

Additionally, Chapter U officers held an initiation ceremony for Nora Sutter of Westfield and the chapter welcomed her as a new member.

On March 4, the New Jersey P.E.O. reciprocity group meeting took place at the Flemington United Methodist Church in Flemington. Chapter U officers and delegates in attendance included Kathy Storcks, Lee Mumford and Betty Evans.

P.E.O. owns and supports Cotley College, a two-year college for women in Missouri. The P.E.O. Sisterhood provides International Peace Scholarships for foreign graduate students to study in the United States or Canada, as well as loans for women who need assistance for education beyond high school.

It also provides grants to women in the United States and Canada who need to resume their education later in life and awards select graduate students in the United States and Canada.

The P.E.O. Sisterhood was founded at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1869. There are 5,909 local chapters in the United States and Canada, with 250,583 active members. For more information, please visit www.peointernational.org.

Temple Carnival to Feature Activities for Whole Family

WESTFIELD - Temple Emanuel, located at 756 East Broad Street in Westfield, will hold its annual Kids Carnival, open to all ages, on Sunday, March 26, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Carnival games, arts and crafts and a "moon walk" will be among the offerings for children, with prizes to be awarded. Adults will be able to bid on more than 100 items during a silent auction, such as gift certificates to local restaurants, professional teeth whitening and a one-month pass to the Shackamaxon Pool Club. There also will be a 50/50 raffle.

A full snack bar will feature lunch items and traditional carnival fare. The carnival will be open to the public and admission is free. Tickets purchased at the event will allow access to games, entertainment and other activities. Proceeds from the carnival will benefit Temple Emanuel's Early Childhood Education Program by providing funds for program enhancements and scholarships for families in need.

The Early Childhood Education Program, serving children ages two through six, is accredited by the NAEYC's (National Association for the Education of Young Children) National Academy of Early Childhood Programs. For more details, please call the Early Childhood office at (908) 232-6770, extension no. 130.

Miller-Cory to Spotlight Colonial Games Sunday

WESTFIELD - The Miller-Cory House Museum, located at 614 Mountain Avenue in Westfield, will present "Loo and Other Colonial Games" from 2 to 4 p.m. this Sunday, March 19.

The Hallada family of Westfield will demonstrate games like "loo," "snail" and "goose." Both children and adults will have a chance to learn the rules and try their luck at playing these now-unfamiliar pastimes.

The Halladas - Esther, Thomas and Fran - also are members of Mott's Artillery, a Revolutionary War re-entertainment group that has participated in other events at Miller-Cory.

Volunteers dressed in authentic period clothing will give tours of the pre-Revolutionary farmhouse. In the museum's Frazee Building, members of the Cooking Committee will demonstrate open hearth cooking techniques. Taste treats will be available. The gift shop also will be open.

Admission to the museum is $2 for adults, 50 cents for students and free for children under age six. On Sunday, March 26, the museum will feature "Tin Piercing." For more information, please call (908) 232-1776.
