

MR. AND MRS. DERON JAMES WOLFE
(She is the former Ms. Kirsten Lynn Vincentsen)

Ms. Kirsten L. Vincentsen Marries Deron J. Wolfe

Ms. Kirsten Lynn Vincentsen, the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Egee Vincentsen and Martin Jockers Vincentsen of Westfield, was married on Saturday, September 16, to Deron James Wolfe. He is a son of Dr. Nancie Bollinger Wolfe and Dr. David Edwin Wolfe of Philadelphia, Pa.

The Reverend Dr. Raymond Roberts and the Reverend Dr. William Forbes performed the afternoon ceremony at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield. A reception followed at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore an ivory Vera Wang silk gown and a veil made from the French lace that covered her mother's gown at her parents' wedding in 1967. She carried mini calla lilies and big fun roses.

Mrs. Sarah Glick Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., a friend of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridal attendants included Ms. Katherine Anne Cox of Charlotte, N.C., Ms. Alyssa Gady Dubin of Martha's Vineyard, Mass., Ms. Tyra Gustavson Leonard of Chicago, Ill. and Ms. Anne Yost of New York City, all friends of the bride, and Ms. Julie Anne Vincentsen of Boston, Mass., a cousin of the bride. All wore strapless J. Crew bridal in black and carried big fun roses.

Miss Tabitha Vincentsen of Palm Bay, Fla., the bride's niece, was the flower girl.

Eric Wolfe of Tokyo, Japan was the best man for his brother. Serving as ushers were Christopher Cocks of Denver, Colo., Kevin Haas of Columbus, Ohio, Matthew McMahon of New York City and Scott Thorell of Ambler, Pa., friends of the bridegroom, and David Vincentsen of Palm Bay, Fla., the brother of the bride.

Zachary Vincentsen of Palm Bay, Fla., the bride's nephew, and Kai Wolfe of Tokyo, Japan, the bridegroom's nephew, were the ring bearers.

The bride, who is known as Kiri, is an account director with the advertising agency TBWA\Chiat\Day in Manhattan. She graduated in 1998 from Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pa., where both her parents and her maternal grandfather also matriculated.

Her father is the owner of Vincentsen, Thompson and Meade, a Westfield construction consulting business. The bride's mother is an architect and the owner of Vincentsen Associates, a Westfield architectural firm.

The bridegroom is a senior vice president with Keefe, Bruyette and Woods in New York and a 1993 graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. His father is an adjunct professor of Spanish at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pa. and his mother is a psychologist, also in Philadelphia.

The couple first met at a friend's wedding in 1993 and began dating in 2003. They became engaged two nights before Thanksgiving 2005.

The bridegroom's family hosted the rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding at the Liberty House Restaurant in Liberty State Park in Jersey City.

Following their wedding trip, the couple resides in New York City.

Youth and Adult Activities On Tap at Local Library

WESTFIELD—Activities for youth and adults are planned next week at the Westfield Memorial Library, located at 550 East Broad Street.

Local author and former librarian Gale Sypher Jacob will visit for a special "Pajama Storytime" on Monday, September 25, from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Ms. Jacob was a media specialist at Coles Elementary School in Scotch Plains for 20 years.

In addition to selections read by the children's librarian, Ms. Jacob will read her recently published bedtime story "Pajama Light." Children age three to six are encouraged to wear pajamas and bring a stuffed animal.

This free program is open to full-service Westfield Memorial Library and MURAL cardholders. To register, please call the Children's Desk at (908) 789-4090, extension no. 3.

Two free programs will be held for adults. TGIF: Classic Movie Week on Friday, September 29, will feature On the Town at 1:30 p.m. It is open to Westfield Memorial Library or MU-RAL cardholders.

"Puzzled by the Internet" will take place on Wednesday, September 27, at 10 a.m. A hands-on beginners' class that will teach basic skills, it is open to full-service Westfield Memorial Library cardholders only. Participants must be able to use a mouse and a keyboard.

Several other free programs will be presented for young children. All are open to full-service Westfield Memorial Library cardholders. "Toddler Group," for toddlers to age two-and-a-half and a caregiver, will be held Tuesday, September 26, at 10 a.m. It will include stories, songs, finger plays and movement activities.

"Tots' Storytime," for those age two-and-a-half to three-and-a-half and a caregiver, will be offered Wednesday, September 27, at 10 a.m.

Youngsters three-and-a-half to five years old may attend "Preschool Storytime" on Wednesday, September 27, at 1:30 p.m. or Thursday, September 28, at 10 a.m.

"Art History Adventures," for those in kindergarten and up, is scheduled for September 28 at 3:45 p.m. Children will learn about great artists and be encouraged to create their own works of art. Advance registration is required.

"Baby Rhyme Time," for babies not yet walking and a caregiver, is set for Friday, September 29, at 10 a.m.

Mother Goose (Ann Coppola) will visit the library from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, September 30, at 10 a.m. She will share nursery rhymes, songs and other activities with young children. Advance registration is required.

Children may play chess on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon at the library. This program is open to Westfield Memorial Library and MURAL cardholders.

For more details on any of these programs, please call (908) 789-4090, visit www.wmlnj.org or stop by the library for a copy of its quarterly newsletter.

Son, Rowan Edward, Born to Mac Kenzie

Edward and Michele Mac Kenzie of Bound Brook have announced the birth of their son, Rowan Edward Mac Kenzie, on Friday, July 7, at Overlook Hospital in Summit.

Rowan weighed 9 pounds and 12 ounces and measured 22 inches in length at birth.

The baby's maternal grandparents are Richard and Sandra Smith of North Kingstown, R.I., formerly of Scotch Plains.

Ed and Barbara Ferrara of Northampton, Pa. are Rowan's paternal grandparents.

Miss Alicia F. Starkey and Steven J. Florio

Miss Alicia Fawn Starkey To Wed Steven John Florio

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Starkey of Westfield and Mr. and Mrs. Steven T. Florio of Sag Harbor, N.Y. have announced the engagement of their children, Miss Alicia Fawn Starkey and Steven John Florio.

The bride-to-be is the assistant director of Corporate and Foundation Relations at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York City. A 1999 graduate of Westfield High School, she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with honors from the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. in 2003.

Miller-Cory Museum Plans 'Fashion Show'

WESTFIELD—The Miller-Cory House Museum will feature a program on Sunday, September 24, from 2 to 4 p.m. entitled "Properly Attired—Early 19th Century Fashions."

Renate Maroney and Darlene Palombo, dressed in Regency attire, will discuss women's fashions from 1800 to 1820. The presentation also will include a display of clothing, bonnets and other accessories from the museum's costume collection.

Museum docents will be available on Sunday to guide visitors through the restored, fully furnished Colonial-era farmhouse. Members of the Cooking Committee will prepare food over the open-hearth fire and offer taste treats to visitors. The museum's gift shop also will be open.

The Miller-Cory House Museum is located at 614 Mountain Avenue in Westfield. Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1 for students and free for children under four. On Sunday, October 1, the museum will present a "Ghost Walk with Psychic Lorraine Moore." Pre-registration is required. For more information, please call the museum office at (908) 232-1776.

Miss Starkey is completing a Master of Public Administration degree at New York University's Wagner School of Public Service in Manhattan.

Her fiancé is the associate manager of Online Consumer Marketing at Condé Nast Publications in New York City. Mr. Florio graduated from Chaminade High School in Mineola, N.Y. in 1996 and also earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the College of the Holy Cross in 2000.

He is completing a Master of Business Administration degree at the Stern School of Business at New York University in Manhattan.

The couple resides in New York City. They became engaged this summer in Paris, France while traveling in Europe. A wedding is planned for October 2007.

Gene Fox to Give Talk On 'Village Cooper'

SCOTCH PLAINS—The Historical Society of Scotch Plains and Fanwood will meet on Tuesday, September 26, at 8 p.m. at the Scotch Hills Country Club, located at Plainfield Avenue and Jerusalem Road in Scotch Plains.

Gene Fox will discuss the important role of the village cooper, or barrel maker, in Colonial times. A retired biology teacher, he has studied and collected cooper's tools for 30 years. He will bring along tools and some finished barrels for the audience to examine. Mr. Fox also volunteers at the Museum of Early Trades and Crafts and at the Great Swamp Watershed Association.

Admission is free to everyone. Refreshments and fellowship will follow the program. For more information, please call Historical Society President Richard Bousquet at (908) 232-1199.

Just 2 weeks left on our Annual Toy Session!

Bring in a new toy for an underprivileged child and your studio session is FREE - a savings of $225

the Image maker
DISTINCTIVE PORTRAIT DESIGN

Mendham
14 West Main St.
973 543 4130

Berkeley Heights
430-B Springfield Ave.
908 665 2089

Toys are donated to
The Valerie Fund,
The Santa Claus Shop,
and other
children's charities

Does God Exist?

• Is Faith Foolish?

• Can a scientist believe in God?

John Clayton, a former atheist and retired science teacher, will be lecturing on the compatibility of Faith and Science. He came to believe in God while reading the Bible to refute it and by studying science. He believes that all men can rationally and logically believe in God. He holds a B.S. and M.S. from Indiana University in math and physics and a M.S. from Notre Dame University in Earth Science.

Friday, October 6th

• 7:30 p.m. — "Does God Exist?" - Followed by Q&A Session

Saturday, October 7th

• 6:30 p.m. — "The Nature of God and Man in His Image"

• 8:00 p.m. — "Which God Should We Serve?" - Followed by Q&A Session

The lectures will be held at the Edison Intermediate School
800 Rahway Ave. Westfield, NJ 07090 Free Admission • Free materials will be available

Mr. Clayton will also be speaking at the regular meeting times of the Echo Lake Church of Christ on Sunday, October 8th.

• 9:30 a.m. — "God's Finest Design—The Church"

• 10:30 a.m. — "Why I left Atheism"

• 6:00 p.m. — "The Problem of Human Suffering"

Sponsored by the Echo Lake Church of Christ
419 Springfield Ave (908) 233-4946 www.echolakechurch.org

The Kids are Raised.
The House is Yours.
It's Time to Smile!

You've spent years taking care of others. Now it's time to take care of yourself. Why not start with your smile

See Dr. David Weinman at Distinctive Dentistry.

Offering comprehensive dentistry complemented by advanced technology, Dr. Weinman can help you and your smile look and feel absolutely wonderful.

This is your time. Smile! Call today!

522 E. BROAD ST. • WESTFIELD
(908) 654-7200

For more information, visit
DavidWeinmanDMD.com

Distinctive Dentistry by David A. Weinman, D.M.D.
Enhancing the Beauty and Health of Smiles

©2006, GPM Inc.