Against Morris, UCRFC got on the board with a try by Pat Stanley from a beautifully executed backline play. The half ended, 5-0. In the second half, both teams struggled in the rain. Jacob made a penalty kick for the only score of the half.

The U15s lost to eventual champions, Morris, in their first match but bounced back to beat Parsippany, 40-0, to take third place. The UCRFC girls finished their season in third place as they tied Kingston, 5-5, in a playoff game for third. Westfield 6th Laxers Wrap Season with Tough Tourney

Westfield's White sixth grade boys lacrosse team wrapped up its season with a tough round of play at the Platypus Tournament this past weekend, June 2-3.

The White team boys looked strong as the offense charged in early with shots and goals from Nick Arnold, Brian Githens and Kevin Mikovits. Lucas Bizzaro and Liam Collins provided assists. Matt Kephart did an outstanding job at goal for the first round of play, but the team came up short against a very aggressive opponent.

Blue Sharks Overcome New Providence, 3-1

Proving she can score goals in addition to stopping them, goalie Melissa McKenna scored a second half goal to give the Scotch Plains Blue Sharks U14 Girls Intercountry team some needed breathing room as they began defense of their league title with a 3-1 victory over New Providence on June 2 in Scotch Plains.

The Sharks fell behind early but finally evened the score midway through the first half on a nice shot by Alyssa Young. They went ahead just before the end of the half as New Providence scored an own goal.

Both sides had chances in the second half but McKenna, who switched positions with Erin Brown, took a pass and dribbled within 20 yards where her hard shot eluded the goalie.

Other standouts included Sarah Lazarus, Amanda Rodriguez, Lauren Berk, Lauren Buckley, Emily Cohen, Rebecca DiGiacomo, Emma Kaplan, Jessica Feeley and Toni Ann Capece. Special mention is given to Robert Berk and James Buckley who handled flag duties.

In the second round against Kennelton, the team stepped it up with some tightening up on defense. Will LaCosta, Liam Devin, and Tim Walsh helped to keep the score in check by protecting the backfield, while Liam Keller added a number of saves at the goal. Kinnelon answered with a number of goals to push ahead. Shakiyl Glasco and Spencer Kolek were able to get the ball downfield with their speed and maneuvering, but Westfield only managed to come up with one goal, a quick pass to Nick Arnold, with the help of Nicholas Constantine.

Westfield shook things up a bit in the final round against Glen Ridge. Joseph Flescher came out fighting on the line to win some faceoffs, while Connor Chopey, Alex Breakstone, and Connor Moore charged forward on attack. Glen Ridge sent things back downfield quickly and scored. Nick Pinho and Collin Barber did a great job fighting for the ball on defense and getting things in play again for Westfield's offense. Nick LaFace moved in to attack and did his best to fight for the net. Andrew Bogin also added some great shots, but Westfield was unable to score and Glen Ridge came away with the win.
