It Feels Good to Have Helped The Families at St. Joseph's

On Saturday, September 15, I organized a charity baseball game to benefit the Saint Joseph's Social Service Center of Elizabeth. This event was the second annual; the first being last year's Charity Game for Children's Specialized Hospital. Once again it was very successful, thanks to the generosity of many people and companies. Food and drinks were donated by Bagel Chateau, Manhattan Bagels, Shoprite and Stop N Shop, Pathmark, Costco, BJs and Starbucks. In addition, raffle items were generously donated by Rita's, Galeria Art and Framing, Salon 1100, Gennaro's, Blue Tulip, Northside Trattoria, Garwood Lanes, Barons Drug Store, Cusi, Jolley Trolley, The Green Room, Westfield Running Company, Ferraros and Starbucks. Special thanks to Julia Cerefice (personal trainer), Fred Scalera (ESPN) and Jen Pottheiser (NBA and Nets) for the wonderful silent auction items. Stitch City generously donated T-shirts for the game. I would like to make a special thanks to Guy, who is the store manager at the Starbucks here in Westfield. Not only did he donate an awesome coffee package, but he also donated coffee that was sold at the game. I really appreciated what he did for me. I want to thank our friends and fellow Westfield residents for their participation and support. Thanks to the 19 8th-graders who played in the game, to umpire Jeff Harris and coaches Joe McHugh and Harry Kalimtzis for making the game so fun. Thanks to the parents and friends who helped set up, stayed to watch the game, purchased lots of raffle tickets and bid on silent auction items. I also want to thank those who weren't able to be there but still donated generously. Special thanks to Deirdre Malacrea, who came up with the "Bat for Bucks" idea and raised over $300 by reaching out to her family and friends to pledge. In total, we raised $2,350 for St. Joseph's, and would never have been so successful without everyone's generosity.

I would also like to thank the following friends who helped the day of the event: Jeff, Theresa and Jessica Harris, Tom and TJ Lutz and Philip Edwards. Without them, I would have been so busy that I wouldn't have been able to play in the game. I also want to thank my sister, Kim, my cousin, Brittany, and my mom and dad for all their help. The game was fun, the weather was great and the Gold team (my team) beat the Black team in the last inning, 8-7. It feels good to have helped the families at St. Joseph's and I am looking forward to running this game again next year.
