Pineda Conservatory Preserves Aladdin Jr.

CRANFORD – The Pineda Conservatry Starlight Theatre presents Aladdin Jr., the musical at the Cranford Community Center. The show is suitable for all ages and not especially aimed at musical theater.

The show is a pre-kindergarten through third-grade musical for children who are interested in acting or singing. The show will feature young performers who will also be involved in the production as stagehands or crew members.

The show has been adapted from the classic fairy tale, Aladdin, with music and lyrics by Alan Menken and Howard Ashman, and book by James Lapine.

Aladdin Jr. tells the story of a young boy who dreams of becoming a prince and living in the palace. Aladdin’s father is a poor merchant who sells the boy’s lamp to a man who is really a genie. The genie makes Aladdin rich and allows him to have three magical wishes.

With the help of his faithful friend Abu, Aladdin is able to fulfill his wishes and become a prince. However, the wicked woman Jafar is jealous of Aladdin’s success and tries to take away his wealth and power.

In the end, Aladdin is able to defeat Jafar and become king of the palace. The show runs from July 27 to August 1 at the Cranford Community Center. Matinees are at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., and evening performances are at 8 p.m. on July 27 and August 1.

For more information or to purchase tickets, please contact the Pineda Conservatory at 908-233-1700 or visit www.pinedaconservatory.org.

Happy Independence Day!...

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY...

Students to the pre-kindergarten and kindergarten students celebrate the country’s independence in their own, special way. More than 500 children received their own fabric-covered, fourth-of-July themed dance bags.
