IHM 6th Boys Win Garden State League Title

On March 27, Scotch Plains' Immaculate Heart of Mary's sixth grade boys basketball team won the Garden State League Championship. The Garden State League includes local teams from Clark, Westfield, Summit and Warren as well as teams from as far as Mendham and North Hunterdon. Finishing their regular season with a 12-1 record, the IHM boys defeated Immaculate Conception of Bridgewater and Warren in the playoffs then defeated Summit in the championship game, 62-57.

CREATIVE CONCRETE... Close to 200 students in Westfield High School's Foundations of Art classes worked collaboratively to create an enlarged anamorphic perspective chalk drawing in the school's courtyard. The drawing has a 3-D effect and is based on techniques developed during the Renaissance period and made popular by current artists. The chalk creation on the concrete courtyard at Westfield High School, with penguins seemingly diving into a universe of ice, was based on ideas from Tim Stumbers' students Sameena Asija and Meghan Pettit. According to fellow art teacher Roy Chambers, "We studied works from English artist Julian Beever, who is famous for his street chalk drawings that, when viewed from the correct angle, brings them into a 3-D effect, seeming to defy the laws of perspective."

WF Foundation Gives 15K Grant to Imagine

WESTFIELD - Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, a new, year-round grief support center opening in Westfield in May 2012, has received a $15,000 grant from the Westfield Foundation.

"We are extremely grateful to the Westfield Foundation for their generous support," said Keith Hertell, board chairman of Imagine. "We are on track with our goal for 2012 to serve 20 families, which is approximately 60 children and adults, and to train a minimum of 20 new volunteer facilitators." Imagine serves children ages 3 to 18 coping with loss due to the death of a parent or sibling, and their parents or guardians. Direct service in the form of peer support groups is made available through the time and dedication of community volunteers who attend a 32-hour training program to become facilitators and who commit to one year of service. The March training class is full. The next training classes will take place in August and November.
