REINHARDT WINS 200, 500 FREE; BALDWIN 50, 100 FREE

Blue Devil Swim Girls Douse Mount St. Mary's, 105-65

Caroline Baldwin and Ellie Reinhardt each won two individual events and swam on two winning relays, and the undefeated Westfield High School girls swim team also received extra points from its depth to overwhelm the Mount St. Mary's Lady Lions, 105-65, at Wallace Pool in Westfield on January 17.

Aside from touching first in eight of the 11 events and placing second in six events and third in five, the Blue Devils collected more team points with five fourth places and four fifth places.

"We knew that they lost a lot of really big stars from last year. They still have a few people, but their depth wasn't really there. We were hoping to get those fifth places to fill in the cracks and to swim our best," Blue Devil senior co-captain Jess Cronin said.

Mount St. Mary's lack of depth coupled with the Blue Devils deep squad, also allowed Coach Jeff Knight the opportunity to work with his lineup.

"We had to switch around some people and put in people like seniors. He tried to put them in instead of some of the younger people, so they would have a chance to swim against them," Cronin said.

Baldwin teamed with Becky Zhang, Erika Daniel and Sarah Cronin to win the opening event, the 200-medley relay, with a time of 1:52.36.

Jess Cronin, Kathleen Bond, Courtney Day and Lauren Schmeider touched third at 1:58.34.

Reinhardt took top honors in the next event, the 200-freestyle, with a time of 2:00.66. Maeve Maloney touched fourth at 2:06.19, followed by Audrey Bangs at 2:09.09. Reinhardt also won the 500-freestyle with a time of 5:21.83. Bangs took fifth at 5:44.02.

Reinhardt joined Loren Ball, Sarah Cronin and Baldwin to win the 200-freestyle relay at 1:41.51. Schmeider, Courtney Han, Day and Amy West touched third at 1:49.13. Reinhardt, Sarah Cronin, Schmeider and Ball touched first in the final event, the 400-freestyle relay at

FULLER, M. BARBER, CLINE EMERGE WITH KEY WINS

Blue Devils Go the Limit, Nip Brearley Bear Matmen, 31-25

Bonus points and winning key bouts became the key deciding factors in the showdown at Jonathan Dayton High School in Springfield on January 18 between the 12-0 Westfield High School wrestling team and the Brearley Bears, winners of every Union County Tournament since 2006.

The Bears appeared to match up better with their lineup and both teams won seven bouts, but the Blue Devils won some key bouts and grabbed a 10-4 edge in bonus points to pull out a 31-25 victory, which was not decidated until the final bout when Blue Devil Mike Kalimtzis pinned Nick Cantalupo in 1:00 with an arm bar stack at 120-lbs.

The first key victory came in the first bout when Blue Devil Brian Farrell recorded an arm-drag takedown and a double-leg takedown, to go with a penalty point to defeat Dylan Oliva, 5-0, at 126-lbs.

The first bonus-point victory came next at 132-lbs. Blue Devil Matt Barber and Mike Disko were locked in an intense bout midway through the third period. Barber began a side single takedown but quickly pivoted in time to catch Disko out of step to pin him with a half nelson in 5:30.

"I was sick last week, but I trained hard and did what I had to do. I had him in a single and then I cranked him. I felt him getting weaker, and then I came up with the head and brought him onto his back," Barber explained.

At 138-lbs, Blue Devil Nick Rotondo was expected to win but bonus points were needed. Rotondo recorded four double-leg takedowns, a penalty point and a reversal to earn an 11-3, majority decision over Eoghan Savona to give Westfield a 13-0 team lead.

Persistence overcame resistance twice for Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School senior Sean Cannon, who battled his way through a very tough semifinal bout and an even tougher final bout to grab the 152-lb wrestling crown and the Outstanding Wrestler Award (upper weights) at the Union County Tournament (UCT) in Union on January 22.

Brearley (B) earned its seventh straight team title with 180 points, followed by Westfield (W) at 153 and Roselle Park (RP) at 146.5, but Cannon's performances helped put the Raiders (SP) in fourth with a total of 139, beating out the Governor Livingston (GL) Highlanders, who placed fifth at 129.5. Cranford (C) placed sixth with 107.5 points. Blue Devil Head Coach Glen Kurz was named Union County Coach of the Year.

Seeded third, Cannon won his first

Daunno Development is proud to introduce 4 Forest Glen Court in Westfield New Jersey! This new home construction project is the latest offering from the Daunos and will be the next home on Forest Glen Court, their 3 lot sub-division backing Tamaques Park. Together with architect David Bailey, Daunno has successfully blended a classic colonial exterior with a modernized interior to recreate the traditional appeal and charm of colonial Westfield architecture while maintaining an open floor plan that invites light, air, and style into the home. The exterior will boast Hardie plank siding, AZEK trim, and cultured stone. The interior will feature hardwood floors throughout, custom detailing and moldings, elegant cabinetry, and a gourmet kitchen with generous allowances for appliances and stone tops. The master suite includes a tray ceiling, a HUGE walk in closet, a large sitting area, and spa style bath. The first floor bedroom has an attached full bath. The second floor laundry room is strategically placed between the bedrooms. The walk out basement can be easily converted into a luxurious "man-cave." The complete landscape package includes sod, shrubs, paver walks, retaining walls, a trex grill deck, and lawn sprinkling.

Offered By Daunno Realty Services for $1,399,000.
