

Edmund W. Bowden, Jr., 88, Manager Of Labor Relations at Western Electric

Edmund Warren Bowden, Jr., 88, formerly of Westfield, passed away peacefully at his Greensboro, N.C. home surrounded by family on Thursday, July 12. Warren was the son of Edmund Warren Bowden, Sr. and Ruth Larzelere Bowden.

Edmund Bowden, Jr.

A memorial service was held at the Centenary United Methodist Church in Greensboro. Graveside service and interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield on Saturday, July 28, at 11 a.m.

Born in Camden, N.J. in 1923, Mr. Bowden lived with his family in Westfield and graduated from Westfield High School in 1941. His college education at Lehigh University was interrupted by the Second World War, when he served as a captain in the U.S. Army in Europe. He was an intelligence officer in the 89th Infantry Division, where he earned a Bronze Star. After the war, Warren returned to Lehigh and graduated in 1948 with a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering. He worked most of his career with Western Electric as Manager of Labor Relations in New York City and Greensboro. He was married to Doris Roeder and after her death, to Deane Smith, who also preceded him in death. Warren was an active member of the Centenary United Methodist Church and the Pittard Sunday School Class in Greensboro. He also was involved in numerous community, social and civic organizations. An avid dancer, he was a longtime member of Club 75.

Mr. Bowden is survived by his children, Sally Vikner and her husband, Paul, of Allentown, Pa., Susan Schwarz and her husband, Doug, of Westfield, Robert Bowden of Whippany, N.J. and Judy Stoner and her husband, Chris, of Park City, Utah. He also is survived by a sister, Barbara Scofield, and her husband, Gerald, of Tafton, Pa.; his grandchildren, Mark Vikner and his wife, Carolyn, Sarah Vikner, Brad Schwarz and his wife, Mary, Chris Schwarz, Peggy Logan and her husband, Grant, Paul Stoner and Rick Stoner, and great-grandchildren, Hannah, Benjamin and Mason Vikner and Abby and Isaac Logan.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Centenary United Methodist Church, 2300 W. Friendly Avenue, Greensboro, N.C. 27403 or to Hospice and Palliative Care of Greensboro, 2500 Summit Avenue, Greensboro, N.C. 27405. James T. Dettre, 80, Family Man; Had Long Career With Johnson & Johnson

James Thomas Dettre, 80, of Westfield passed away peacefully at Overlook Medical Center in Summit on Tuesday, July 10, 2012, surrounded by his loving family and after many long and courageous battles against prolonged illnesses.

Jim was born in Philadelphia, Pa. to Thomas and Emma Dettre, graduating from Upper Merland High School in Willow Grove, Pa. in 1949 and from Drexel University in 1955 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He began his professional career for Vick Chemical Company as a traveling salesman on the West Coast, which helped to inspire his love of travel. Jim's long and successful tenure at Johnson & Johnson began in 1959. He was a true "company man," bringing a great passion and dedication to his work in the marketing and promotion of J & J baby and personal care products.

Jim's long and active retirement from Director of Communications at J & J's Consumer Products Company began in 1990, and included providing his time and talent to the Touch Research Institute, Holy Redeemer Home Care, Drexel University, and most especially the Westfield Symphony Orchestra.

An avid sports fan, Jim loved the St. Louis Cardinals, and also enjoyed basketball, tennis and football. He derived great joy from spending time with family and friends, as well as traveling, reading, music and movies. Jim especially enjoyed trips with family and friends to the Delaware shore and Vermont's Green Mountains. His kind, gentle and generous nature has been a source of joy, comfort and peace to many. He was a true gentleman in every sense of the word.

Jim was predeceased by his parents in 1975 and his brother, Robert, in 2009. He is survived by his loving and devoted children, son Thomas and his partner, Robert Johnson, of Essex Junction, Vt. and daughter Joanne Turner and her husband, Stuart, of Westfield; his beloved grandchildren, Olivia, Carson and Camille, and his longtime companion, Carol Tenter.

A funeral service took place yesterday, Wednesday, July 18, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Westfield, followed by interment at Fairview Cemetery in Westfield.

Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation at www.pdf.org. For further information, please visit www.dooleycolonialfuneralhome.com. July 19, 2012

Elaine Gould, Was Longtime Resident; Enjoyed Family, Travel and Reading

Elaine L. Gould (née Monti) passed away peacefully on Saturday, July 14. Elaine was born in New York City and grew up and lived in Westfield for over 50 years. She moved to Roselle Park in 1998, where she continued to live in close proximity of her children and grandchildren.

Elaine L. Gould

After graduating from Westfield High School and Katharine Gibbs, she was employed by MacPherson Controls Products. In 1960, Elaine was married to Frederick T. Gould (Duke) and raised three children, Karen, wife of Donald Bachert, Jeff and Chris, husband of Jackie Gould. Elaine enjoyed her four grandchildren, Brandon and Morgan Gould and Trevor and Sarah Bachert. She was an avid reader and loved family vacations in Stone Harbor, N.J. and other travel. She also enjoyed lifelong friendships with many childhood and high school friends.

A service was held on Tuesday, July 17, at the Higgins and Bonner Echo Lake Funeral Home, 582 Springfield Avenue in Westfield. Cremation was private. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations in her memory to Roselle Park First Aid Squad, 535 Laurel Avenue, Roselle Park, N.J. 07204.

Condolences can be sent to the family at www.higginsandbonner.com. July 19, 2012

Anthony Bianco, 93, U.S. Army Veteran; Had Owned Barber Shops In Westfield

Anthony "Tony" Bianco, 93, passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 19, 2012, at Bethesda Hospital in Boynton Beach, Fla.

Relatives and friends are kindly invited to the memorial mass at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 21, 2012, at St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield. Interment of cremains will follow at St. Mary Cemetery in Plainfield.

Mr. Bianco was a resident of Westfield until 1980, when he retired to Delray Beach, Fla. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U.S. Army.

Tony was the owner of Tony's Barber Shop and the Colonial Barber Shop, both in Westfield, for many years and was a member of the Associated Master Barbers of New Jersey, where he held various positions on their executive board. He enjoyed gardening.

Tony was predeceased by his wife, Mildred, in 2000 and his son, Raymond, in 1990.

He is survived by his son, Vincent, and his wife, Barbara, and his daughters, Elsie Powell and her husband, Dennis, and Noreen Lund and her husband, Albert. He also will be deeply missed by his eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Memorial donations in his memory may be made either to the Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675 or to the Hospice of Palm Beach County, Florida, 5300 East Avenue, West Palm Beach, FL 33407.

WARM WELCOME... Temple Sha'arey Shalom of Springfield recently welcomed Rabbi Ari Rosenberg as its new spiritual leader, teacher and mentor. He takes over the bimah from Rabbi Joshua Goldstein, who retired June 30. Rabbi Rosenberg comes to Temple Sha'arey Shalom after serving as Associate Rabbi for Hefveh of Southern Berkshire in Great Barrington, Mass. for four years. Rabbi Rosenberg received ordination from the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion on May 31, 2008. He was awarded his bachelor's degree from Rutgers University in 1996. Rabbi Rosenberg grew up in Waterford, Conn., attending Temple Emanu-El, where his father, Rabbi Aaron Rosenberg, has been the rabbi for over 30 years. He resides in Springfield with his two children.

Salvatore Chiarelli Slates Return Visit to Library

FANWOOD - The Fanwood Memorial Library will welcome back Salvatore Chiarelli on Wednesday, August 1, at 7 p.m. for an evening of traditional, popular and classical Italian, Neapolitan and American songs. This is a re-scheduled program from the spring.

Mr. Chiarelli, a native of New York City, was vocally trained in both Italy and New York City for the opera stage. Having only begun his performing career four years ago, Mr. Chiarelli already has been heard on television and radio as well as on the opera stages of both North America and Europe. He has performed as a soloist on satellite television, reaching 75 countries around the world.

At the very outset of his vocal training, he was one of only three tenors chosen in the United States to participate in a five-week concert tour of Europe.

Attendees will hear favorites songs such as "O sole mio (It's Now Or Never)," "Mamma, Dicitencello Vuje (Just Say I Love Her)," "Parlami d'amore (Tell Me That You Love Me Tonight)," "Chitarra Romana (Roman Guitar)," "Ritorna Me (Return To Me)," "Anima e core (Heart and Soul)," "O marenariello (I Have But One Heart)" and "Come prima (For The First Time)," among others.

For information and registration, call the library at (908) 322-6400 or visit fanwoodlibrary.org. The Fanwood Memorial Library is located at North Avenue and Tillotson Road.
