

William P. Taylor, Jr., 83, Was Husband, Father, Grandfather and Friend

William P. Taylor, Jr., 83, passed away on Sunday, July 22, 2012, at Overlook Medical Center in Summit, N.J., surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y. on November 1, 1928, Mr. Taylor was the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. William P. Taylor, Sr. He was predeceased by his sister, Betty (Sam) Wood of Portland, Ore. and is survived by his brother, Peter, of Wallingford, Conn. and several nieces and nephews. Bill lived in Westfield since 1965.

Bill is survived by his wife of 56 years, Joyce (Dimmer) Taylor; seven children and their spouses, and 22 grandchildren: William P. III, his wife, Kim, children, William P. IV and Katherine; Michael, his wife, Mary Beth, children, Michael, Sean, Megan and Kate; Janie, her husband, John Hughes, children, Michael, Kyle and Taylor and his wife, Courtney—with a great-grandchild due in January, 2013; Sue, her husband, Jim Case, children, Thomas and Meredith; Julie, her husband, Jeff Ratkus, children, Ashley and Taylor Light, Caroline and A.J. Ratkus; John, his wife, Chris-Ellen, children, Danny, Jordan, Luke, Sarah and John; Marybeth, her husband, Chip Mulzoff, and children, Joy and Hunter.

Mr. Taylor graduated from The Nichols School in 1946 and from

Colgate University in 1950, where he was a goalie for the hockey team. He served his country with pride in the Army during the Korean War. As a Human Resources Manager, Bill was employed by Kraft Foods for over 25 years and retired from Hoffmann-La Roche. He volunteered for St. Joseph's Social Services in Elizabeth, N.J. and was known for making weekly deliveries of his famous homemade soups that he shared with his many friends. He was a voracious reader and avid sports enthusiast. He enjoyed his retirement by spending time with his family and friends and was a wonderful and loving PopPop to his grandchildren.

Mr. Taylor was a member of Echo Lake Country Club, where he enjoyed great fellowship with his weekly lunch group, "The Romeos." A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10 a.m. today, Thursday, July 26, at St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church in Westfield.

The Higgins and Bonner Echo Lake Funeral Home of Westfield is handling the arrangements. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St. Joseph's Social Services, 118 Division Street, Elizabeth, N.J. 07201 or the Westfield Rescue Squad.

Obituaries

Kenneth Drysdale, 83, Was Executive; Enjoyed Music, Scouting and Golf

Kenneth Gordon Thomas Drysdale of Wilmington, Del., formerly of Mountainside, N.J., passed away on Monday, July 16, 2012, due to a long illness with cancer. He was 83.

Born in Toronto, Canada on February 6, 1929, Ken was the son of William Gordon and Evelyn (Freshwater) Drysdale. He moved with his family to Massachusetts in 1943 and became a U.S. citizen in 1957.

Ken graduated from William H. Hall High School in West Hartford, Conn. and from Yale University in 1950 with a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Administration. He met his sweetheart, Perrie apJones, in Greenwich, Conn. and they married in October of 1954.

He followed his father into the insurance industry and began his 40-plus years in marine insurance working for the Insurance Company of North America in New York City. While there, Ken also was a member of the National Guard based in Brooklyn, N.Y. Ken joined The Marine Office of America in 1956, first living in Boston, Mass. and then Jacksonville, Fla.

He joined Wm H. McGee and Co., Inc. in 1964, and after a number of responsibilities, was elected chairman and CEO in 1979. In addition, he was president of the Sun Insurance Company of New York, The Baloise Insurance Co. of America, Marine Indemnity Insurance Company of America, Phoenix Assurance Company of New York, and the Fortress Insurance Company of America.

A well-respected leader in the industry, Ken was chairman of many prestigious organizations during his career. He was chairman of the American Committee of Lloyd's Register, American Institute of Marine Underwriters, American Hull Insurance Syndicate, International Underwriters of Marine Insurance, the War Risk Reinsurance Exchange and the Water Quality Insurance Syndicate. His work took him to many places around the world, traveling yearly to Europe and Asia, many times with his wife.

One of Ken's passions was golf, which he acquired from his father. Having learned when he was young, he played for 75 years, winning a number of insurance and member guest tournaments. He always enjoyed the many new people he met and the challenge of the game.

Music was a source of joy for Ken throughout his life. He sang with the Yale Alley Cats (nine-person barbershop) and church choirs in Greenwich and Mountainside. Later on, he introduced his family to barbershop quartets and the works of Gilbert and Sullivan. He was the very model of a modern major general.

Ken's leadership skills found their way to the Boy Scouts as he served as an assistant scoutmaster and scoutmaster for Troop No. 771 in Mountainside. He led many camping expeditions and taught many a Scout the Boy Scout oath and law.

through his example. While a leader, he helped more than 15 Scouts attain their Eagle rank.

After his retirement in 1991, Ken and his wife spent their summers on Cape Cod, Mass. There, Taid, as Ken was called by his grandchildren, instilled his love for card games and puzzles of all kinds. Ken had a great sense of humor, whether it was a good limerick, a comedy play or movie, or joking with friends. Weekly trips to the Brewster Cultural Center are well remembered.

Co-workers and friends alike respected his strong work ethic, unflagging ethics and his ability to get things done with a smile and a firm handshake. Always the leader and organizer, Ken was a doer and one who developed the skills of others. He spent his time helping others achieve their dreams, and with that, his as well. He influenced and challenged everyone he met to live up to their potential. His daily mantra was "Another day in which to excel." He will be severely missed by all who were blessed to come in contact with him.

The family would like to extend their deep gratitude to their friend, Dr. Joseph M. Garfield, and all the doctors, nurses and staff for their care, respect and friendship during Ken's long illness.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Perrie Drysdale (apJones); his son, Matthew Gordon Drysdale (Kathy) of Hockessin, Del.; daughter, Marjie Drysdale Ripsom (Jon) of Wilmington, Del., and his grandchildren, Brian Drysdale (Heather), David Drysdale, Kristine Drysdale, Evelyn Ripsom and Stephanie Ripsom, all of Delaware.
