but I got an arm bar with it. I pushed down with my right arm and pulled up with my left, and I turned him over and got my three back points," he said.

"It's great that we are both in the room now and still going on to states, because we will practice harder," Jacobs said.

Opoku kept working on the barrel roll early on in his quarterfinal bout with Anthony DiRosa of Watchung Hills (WH) and wound up with a 7-2 decision.

"The last time I wrestled him, he was stretching it out, so it was a little tough to get at first. I kept working on taking him down. He was broken after the second period," Opoku said.

After dropping his semi bout with Jorge Lopez (Delbarton-Del), Opoku pinned Kyle Robertson (Hanover Park - HP) in 5:55 then scored four points in the third period, which included a single-leg takedown to defeat Christian Signorelli (Parsippany Hills - PH) to earn his trip to AC.

"I had to keep my composure. My single was my go-to move. I wanted it badly," Opoku said.

After dropping a 7-3 decision to Ryan Merkel (Roselle Park - RP), Barber made his move on Cougar Markovitch in the wrestlebacks with a pair of takedowns, two near-falls and a reversal to grab a 12-0, majority decision.

"I knew that I was better than him on my feet. His only chance to beat me was on top, but I got out. I wanted to show him that he was not beating me ever again," Barber said.

Barber's next bout would be against Dylan Painton (SoP), who had defeated Raider Sean Cannon, 3-1, in the quarterfinals.

"I am going to do what I do right, and I am going to make it to Atlantic City," Barber predicted.

Barber went on to defeat Painton, 5-0, only to face Cannon for third place and a trip to AC. Each competitor recorded an escape, and with the score knotted, 1-1, late in the third period, Barber was hit with his second warning to give Cannon a 2-1 lead. With four seconds remaining,
