

NOT DONE YET...After successive successful seasons, this year's Cranford Cougar girls track & field team feel better things are yet to come.

Lady Cougar Tracksters Say That They Are 'Not Done Yet'

Senior leadership with plenty of experience across the board puts this year's Cranford High School girls track & field team high on the list for top honors in Union County (UC), conference and sectional meets. "We have a lot of returning seniors. Our girls are leaders by their actions. They are excited about getting going. They have seen and tasted that success with championships that we have won since they have been here in their freshmen, sophomore and junior seasons. They are looking to continue that and show the young girls that we aren't done yet," Cougar Head Coach Pete Kane said. Last year, the Lady Cougars won the UC Mountain Division and the UC Individual titles. Additionally, the Cougars finished second in the UC Relays, third in their section and fifth in the Group 3 meet, but this year the Cougars are hungry for more. "Our goal is if they are offering a trophy, we want to win it. We set our goals high to win. We finished second to Union in the county relays, but I think that we are very spread out and diverse. We have depth in all of our events in the field that we can give anybody a run," Coach Kane said.

Several seniors, Rebecca Shimonov, Gillian Burke, Megan Schetelich and Kristen VanBenschoten, will harvest points, but junior Bryanna Grant will scoop points in huge chunks. "Bryanna will definitely be a big individual on relays and when we get to the individual season of the counties and the states. Brianna can do multiple things in multiple events, and she's got great people around her in Regine Hunter, Rebecca Shimonov, Ashley McGuire, Gillian Burke and Megan Schetelich. They can all contribute as a relay squad and as individuals," Coach Kane said. Grant, Hunter and Burke offer an ominous 1-2-3 punch in the triple jump. Last year, the trio set a UC Relay meet record in the event with a combined distance of 104-5. Grant took first in the event in the sectional and Group 3 meets and qualified for the Meet of Champions (MOC). Hunter also qualified for the MOC in the event. The trio may also compete in the long jump and high jump. Hunter, a junior, McGuire, a sophomore, and Burke will compete in the sprints. Grant and Shimonov could compete in the 100-hurdles, while Burke, McGuire, Shimonov, Schetelich and sophomores Laura Van Horn and Jenna Ellenbacher may compete in the 400-hurdles. Grant, the Cougars' top pole vaulter, will be joined by McGuire and freshman Erin Meixner.

Van Horn, Ellenbacher, Schetelich are in the mix of girls competing in the 400 meters and 4x400 relay. Senior Megan Byrnes will lead a pack in the 800 and 1,600 meters, and junior Katia Oltmann is the prime runner in the 3,200 meters. Last year, VanBenschoten was the UC discus champion with a toss of 104-1 and later qualified for the MOC with a toss of 114-1.5 at the Group 3 meet. This past winter, she broke the Cranford High School record in the shot put when she took first at the Union County Indoor meet. "She has such a great work ethic. She is so coachable. She works with [coaches] Mike Dow and Kerry Drexler in the throws. She is ready to go. She cannot wait to get started," Coach Kane said. Junior Aaron Wichelns will also compete in the shot put, while senior Rebecca Haupt and sophomore Alex Krowicki will compete in the discus. Krowicki will also toss the javelin.

Year 2 at the varsity level looks to be a much more promising year for the Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School girls lacrosse team that performed quite well in its inaugural season, advancing to the second round of the Union County Tournament, qualifying for the state tournament and finishing with an 8-10 record. "We are going into our second year varsity. We had a pretty successful season last year. I only graduated three seniors and only one was a starter. I have a good group of seniors back. I also have good group of younger girls as well," Raider Head Coach Rob Rafferty said.

our goal is to make contact early in transition, be aggressive, be able to communicate well, and we do have a good group of girls, who had a lot of varsity time last year," Coach Rafferty said. That trio of defenders will make a strong attempt to make matters much easier for sophomore Megan Welch, who took over the goalie position early in the season last year and kept it. "She put a lot of time in the off-season. Megan had just under a .500 save percentage last year, which is not too shabby for a first-year varsity program," Coach Rafferty said. Midfielders, senior Liz Schiller, and juniors Annie Cannone, Olivia nine goals and eight assists. Presently, junior Elsa Leistikow and sophomores Julie Haggan and Andrea McNeeley will be the front line attackers. Last year, McNeeley (All-National Division Second Team) scored 21 goals and added three assists and 25 ground balls. Haggan netted 11 goals and scooped eight ground balls. "Liz Schiller was our leading scorer and close behind her was Andrea McNeeley. Julie Haggan can put the ball in the net. I expect a lot of things from her, and Elsa has great stick skills and a great shot too," Coach Rafferty said. The Raiders also have a strong group of sophomores, who could make con-

RAIDER LAXER CAPTAINS...Junior Jessie Klein, left, and senior Allison Grimm have been selected co-captains of the Lady Raiders lacrosse team. The Raiders, in their second year of varsity, expect a highly improved season.

The Raider Lady laxers may have spent much of last summer at the beach, but it was not just for getting a tan. "This summer we took two teams to a beach tournament in Wildwood. My varsity squad won the Open Under 18 Women's Division. It was a good experience," Coach Rafferty said. The Raiders will be relying on a strong defensive group comprised of seniors Allison Speck and co-captain Allison Grimm, and junior Taylor Smith. "Defense can keep you in games. That's one thing we are emphasizing. I know we will be able to put the ball into the net offensively. Defensively, Mendez, Haley Regan and co-captain Jessie Klein, all have one season of varsity experience under their belts. "We have a good group, who are all back. We have speed. All five will play offense and defense. They rotate it depending how the game's going. All five of those girls have free reign in transition. They have free reign to communicate back-and-forth," Coach Rafferty explained. Last year, Schiller led the Raiders with 32 goals, while adding eight assists and scooping 41 ground balls. Regan (First Team All-National Division, All-Union County Honorable Mention) netted 19 goals and nine assists, while scooping 32 ground balls. Cannone earned National Division Second Team honors and netted 16 goals with six assists, while scooping 32 ground balls. Klein (All-National Division Second Team) led the team with 48 ground balls, while adding contributions, so mixed with all the returning veterans, Coach Rafferty views an even brighter outlook. "Maybe we can go a little further. Maybe we can get through two rounds of the state tournament and win a couple of county games. Our county is tough. People know that with Oak Knoll, Summit, Kent Place and Westfield. Overall, we are looking to compete. We are in the Freedom South Division, but we do play the likes of Madison, Verona, Morristown Beard and Villa Walsh. Millburn is in there. We are looking to win the games that we are supposed to win and maybe pull of a few upsets," he said. The Raiders will open against Millburn on Monday, April 2, at home at 4 p.m.

Police Officers Set Memorial Bike Ride

A benefit will be held on Saturday, April 14, at Flannery's Bar in Fanwood from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. to raise funds for the Law Enforcement Memorial Bike Ride. Fanwood Sgt. Russ Yeager will join 2,200 police officers from all parts of the world to ride a bike 330 miles from the World Trade Center site in New York City to Washington, D.C. on May 9. A $45 donation will provide for beer, wine, food, entertainment and door prizes at the benefit. Tickets can be purchased at Flannery's or by calling (908) 251-1662. Donations can also be mailed to the Police Unity Tour, P.O. Box 615, Scotch Plains, N.J. 07076.

for the third base position. Plick could see some time at first. Sophomore Sam Sheer may find time behind the plate. "I am not really confident with our infield, our outfield, our pitching or our hitting yet. We need to put a lot of time in the field. We need to get ourselves strong mentally off the field as well. So we have a long way to go," Coach McCaffrey said. The Cougars open at home with Union on April 3 at 4 p.m. then will travel to Scotch Plains to play the Raiders on Thursday, April 5. "We literally try to take the approach of one game at a time. We don't look ahead. I ask the kids not to do it, so I don't do it," Coach McCaffrey said.

is our number 1 singles player. Adam Greene is our number 2 singles player. Both are juniors, so that bodes well for the future. Most, if not all, of the rest of the starting team will be composed of seniors," Coach Kapner said. The other doubles candidates are seniors Jacob Harris, Rickles (17-2 last year), Will Geoghegan, Alex Goldschmidt and junior Justin Cafiero. "Those are people, who we are looking at right now, but with doubles, anything can change. Singles is pure challenge matches. The kids decide. If they win, they move up, but doubles is a coaching decision. I would love to find two teams that are solid and stay together all year. That's the best case scenario," Coach Kapner explained. The Blue Devils will open with Livingston in Westfield on Monday, April 2, at noon.
