Library Friends Group Seeks Afghan Makers

WESTFIELD - Sharing the Warmth, the Friends of the Westfield Memorial Library's latest endeavor, donated seven afghans to Camp Happy Times last year. Camp Happy Times is a free, one-week overnight camp for children, ages 5 to 21, who have had, or are currently undergoing, cancer treatment. Located in Tyler Hill, Pa., the camp is operated by the Valerie Fund. Between 180 and 200 children attend the camp each summer for a week of recreational activities.

The completed four-foot by six-foot afghans made from 12-inch knitted or crocheted acrylic squares are given to the campers to use and later take home. The Friends of the Westfield Memorial Library hope to complete more.

Interested participants are invited to join the group at the Westfield Memorial Library, located at 550 East Broad Street, on the following dates: Tuesdays, April 3 and 10, from 1 to 3 p.m., and Thursday, May 17, from 2 to 4 p.m.

If possible, individuals are asked to bring 100-percent acrylic yarn and size 8, 9 or 10 knitting needles or hooks. Patterns will be available.

Senior Citizens Club To Meet on April 5

GARWOOD - The Senior Citizens Club of Garwood invites any senior citizens interested in joining the club to come to its next meeting on Thursday, April 5. The club meets the first and third Thursdays of each month in the Garwood Fire House meeting room.

On Wednesday, May 16, club members will have dinner and see Uncle Floyd's "Don't Bet Your Life," a comedy spoof, at The Royal Manor in Garfield. Tickets are $42 per person.

The bus will leave at 10:15 a.m. and will return at approximately 5 p.m. For further information or to purchase tickets, call Walter at (908) 789-1067.

Free Art Workshop to Be Open to Adults and Teens

SCOTCH PLAINS - The Scotch Plains Public Library, located at 1927 Bartle Avenue, will present a free art workshop for adults and teens. It will take place on Friday, April 13, at 2 p.m.

Scheduled to coincide with local schools' spring break, the workshop will be led by Veronica Lawlor, artist and author of "One Drawing A Day: A 6-Week Course Exploring Creativity with Illustration and Mixed Media" (Quarry Books, 2011).

Ms. Lawlor will speak, lead a drawing exercise and sign books. Copies of her book will be available to purchase, although no purchase is required to attend this session.

This workshop will be geared towards beginners as well as experienced artists. Ms. Lawlor will use principles from the book, which she describes as "work of myself and the other seven members of Studio 1482."

I selected work from our One Drawing a Day blog that I thought would be perfect to inspire readers, and then wrote an exercise that would be an extension of that illustration that they could do themselves."

Ms. Lawlor creates illustration for advertising, editorial, publishing and institutional clients, with a focus on reportage drawing and a fashionable flair. Pen and ink work is a specialty. She is president of Studio 1482, an illustration collective, and teaches at Pratt Institute, Parsons School of Design and Dalvero Academy.

Registration is open to adults and teens, grades 7 and up, and is required for this program. To register, go to the library's website, scotlib.org/register-for-a-program/, visit the library in person, e-mail library@scotlib.org or call (908) 322-5007, extension no. 204.
