

cradle and, boom, she scores. Weber and Julie are very good passers. They can also do crease rolls. That's why I like having Julie and Erin back there then have Andrea cut. She has 106 career goals now. She's tied for the all-time lead in our school history," Coach Rafferty said.

Power gave the Cougars their only lead when she ripped the net within the first five minutes, but it took less than a minute for McNeeley to score on an assist from Voorhees. One minute later, Weber set up Haggan for a score then McNeeley scored unassisted. With 14:39 left in the half, Weber scored unassisted. Leu set up Sarah Ross to make the score, 4-2, then Haggan, with Weber's assist, made the score, 5-2, at the half.

It took only 35 seconds in the second half for Power to notch her second goal then she fed Hannah Ross to make the score, 5-4. McNeeley scored with assistance from Weber then Hannah Ross set up Sarah Ross for a score. Haggan slammed in an unassisted goal. Power (Sarah Ross assist) followed with her third goal then Sarah Ross tied the score, 7-7, with 9:06 on the clock.

Haggan answered on Weber's assist then Hannah Ross retied the score with the help of Sarah Ross. With 4:09 remaining, Weber scored unassisted to set the score at 9-8. From that point, defense was the name of the game.

The victory was much needed for the Raiders, especially since suffering a stinging 13-12 defeat in the final second against Livingston on April 2.

"That Livingston game was a rough game, but it's finally nice to get this win, especially against Cranford. They are kind of our lacrosse rivals," Welch said.
