LINDROS WINS 500, 200 FREE; ON 2 WINNING RELAYS

Blue Devil Boys Pull Away From Bergen Catholic, 93-77

Team depth paid off, especially in both freestyle relays, for the Westfield High School boys swim team that overcame a 32-30 deficit after four events to pull away from 6-1 Bergen Catholic (BC) en route to a 93-77 victory at Wallace Pool in Westfield on January 24.

The 9-1 Blue Devils took first in only two of the eight individual events but finished 1-3 in the 200-free relay and added emphasis by finishing 1-3 in the final event, the 400-free relay. But team depth helped them from the beginning when David Lindros, Tyler Lessner, Stephen Husch and Aram Barmakian placed second in the 200-medley relay and Kevin Clauss, Dan Myers, Noah Stiles and Austin Kreusser finished third to hold BC to just a two-point lead after the first event.

John Lindros, swimming in Lane 6, led a 1-2-3 sweep in the 200-free when he tapped the wall at 1:46.56, followed by Aedan Collins and Alec Penn to push the Blue Devils into a 19-11 lead. However, BC led by John Om at 1:56.36 placed 1-2-4 in the 200-individual medley to knot the team score. Husch and Myers finished 3-5. BC then took the 32-30 lead when Liam Kelly at 22.72 led a 1-3-5 run in the 50-free.

BC's John Sembrano took first in the 100-butterfly at 51.39, but Husch, Lessner and Barmakian finished 2-3-4 to re-knot the score. Kelly won the 100-free at 49.37, but the score remained

Somewhat strategically deceptive maneuvers may or may not have been needed but one thing for sure, the No. 1 ranked Westfield High School girls swim team facing an eight-point deposit after five events poured it on to outflank No. 2 Immaculate Heart Academy (IHA) of Bergen County, 87-83, at Wallace Pool in Westfield on January 24.

Seniors Caroline Baldwin and Sarah

Cronin each won two individual events and swam on two winning relays, while Gwyn Devin won an individual event and swam on two winning relays, and Erika Daniel won an individual event and swam on a winning relay.

The 11-0 Blue Devils not only remained undefeated, but the seniors have never lost a meet, which included three victories in a row over IHA.

"Every year they were the strongest competitor we've ever come up against. They were even more competitive today. We are really proud of the way we were swimming today," said Cronin, who added, "When we were freshmen, there was a big snowstorm, so it just wasn't meant to be."

"There's a lot of history behind this meet. From our sophomore year, they are an amazing team every year. We knew that we had to do what we had the past two years to bring everything, because they are very strong," Baldwin said.
