two RBI. Jake White singled and had three RBI. Jonny Audino singled, walked and scored twice. Rever had an RBI single and scored once. Matt O'Connor and Jack Moranz both singled, and Chris Giglio and Joe Rigney both scored once. Jack Bowman was robbed of a hit when his wicked liner was snagged by Springfield shortstop Vinny Pulice.

"You teach the kids basic baseball. They are all athletic and we wanted to have athletic at-bats. Be smart, know the count, know the outs, who is on base and play some basic baseball. Put the ball in play. Do it enough times, you are going to come up ahead," Coach Love said.

Westfield White went ahead, 5-0, in the bottom of the first inning and Love began the action with a walk, followed by consecutive singles from Murphy, Pardo and Audino. After a strikeout, Rever ripped an RBI single to right and White brought in the fifth run with a groundout to second.

Westfield added a run in the second when Giglio bunted and reached first safely on bad throw then Love lashed an RBI single down the first baseline. In the scoreless third inning, Springfield centerfielder Tom Saverino made a great running grab of Rigney's drive.

After Murphy struck out three of the four batters he faced in the fifth, Westfield added the final four runs in the bottom of the inning. Love led off with a double to center and scored on Murphy's grounder to short. Pardo singled, stole second, moved to third on a passed ball and scored on a wild pitch. Audino and Rigney both walked then White whacked a two-run single to right to end the game.

with a fine force out at home and third baseman Brett Robertshaw followed with the key unassisted double play to kill Blue's bid for a breakout inning.

July 7, 2007: The South Orange/Maplewood nine-year-old baseball team seized a 9-2 victory over the Westfield White in Babe Ruth/Cal Ripken League District 12 action at Booth Field in Scotch Plains. Rowan Oberman drilled a double and scored a run. Owen Murray singled and scored the other run. Parker Hess launched an RBI sacrifice fly.

July 8, 2006: Watson Avenue pulled out a 5-4 victory over Russell Road in Fanwood Old Men's Softball Association action at Forest Road Park. Matt DeMasi finished 2-for-3 with two RBI. Quinton Redding had two hits, an RBI sac fly and swiped a bag, and Jimmy McKeon had a key

RBI double and a single.

July 10, 2005: The Scotch Plains Dempsey baseball team advanced to the championship round of the Cal Ripken District 12 Tournament by defeating Westfield White, 11-6, at Booth Field. Dempsey's Ryan Haggerty rapped a two-run double and a grand slam home run and Joseph Carroll ripped a single and a two-run homer. Westfield's Tim Younger went 3-for-3.

July 7, 2004: The Jade Isle squashed NY Ortho, 17-7, at Brookside Park in the A Division of the Scotch Plains Men's Softball League. John Ratchko went 4-for-5 with an RBI and two runs scored. Damon Roth pounded two singles and a double, while scoring three times and knocking in two runs. Steve

Probitas Verus Honos

Brainiard had three hits with four RBI and a run scored.

July 10, 2003: The Westfield Police-Isotballer force pulverized the Springfield PD, 24-6. Barney Tracy's devastating home run, highlighted an 11-run pasting in the fourth inning. Tracy's firepower additionally claimed two doubles, two singles and six runs. Ed Belford banged four hits and five RBI.

July 10, 2002: Benzmania took a big step forward in the A Division of the Scotch Plains Men's Softball League by stalling out Fanwood Transmission, 7-3, at Brookside Park. The victory gave Benzmania and Fan Tran identical 12-5 records, just one game behind the league leading PEP Again men at 13-4. In the eighth inning, a pop fly in foul territory down the left field line had three chasers but no one seemed to have a chance to catch it. Suddenly, Benzmania shortstop Neil Kaufman made a desperate, fully outstretched lunge and snagged the ball about three inches off the ground before he skid across the grass on his chest. Mark Nies hammered a colossal two-run homer into the trees beyond the centerfield fence.

July 11, 2001: Fortunate trade winds blew in the sixth inning and Jade Isle took advantage with seven runs to breeze past the local Neighborhood Painters, 10-7, in Scotch
