Due to rainouts there were no games played in the 50's Division.

Super '60s Division:

Robin's Nest 7, Creative Too 3

Ray Pelesko led the Nesters with three hits and Harry Streep continued his strong pitching. Howard Gerber settled down after allowing the Nesters to score five in the first to pitch a strong game. The victory was the Nesters' third victory in four tries vs. Creative Too.

The Office 11, Li'l John's 10

The Office jumped out to a 7-4 lead after three, but the pizzamen scored six unanswered runs to take a 10-7 lead going into the sixth. The Office scored two in the sixth, aided by a dropped fly ball, to close the gap to 10-9. The seventh featured singles by Gerald McDermott and Bob Renaud followed by a double by Mike Volpe (just off the DL), to tie the score. Ernie Spinelli ripped a single to center to drive in the winning run, giving Ken Dunbar the victory. The Office was led by Gerald McDermott (2H, 3BH, 2R, 3RBI), Bill Early (2H, 2BH, 2R), Gary Schaller (2BB, 3R, RBI) and Lou Koehler with a key 2R single.

Awnings II 18, Kilkenny House 4

AG IIs explosive attack and strong defense were the key to defeating Kilkenny. Rich Polonitz (4H, 3RBI), Bobby Rahnenfuherer (3H), Bobby Lorincz (3H, 2RBI), Neil Grandstrand (3H, 2RBI), Danny Mendoza (2H, 2RBI), Gary Cutler (2H, RBI), and Rich Grossberg (2H, RBI) led the AG2 offense.

Creative 15, Associated Auto 0

Creative was led by Joe DiPiero (3H, 2R, 2RBI), Steve Ferro (3H, R, 2RBI), Frank Pete (2H, R, 2RBI), Frank DeLuca (2H, 3R) and Tom Lombardi, Karl Grossmann and Dennis Mosier had multiple hits. Tom Lombardi pitched the shutout.

Awnings II 8, Li'l John's Pizza 1

Awnings led from the start. Rich Traub (2H, 2RBI), Bobby Rahnenfuherer (2H), Bobby Lorincz (2H, RBI), Neil Grandstrand (2H, 3BH, RBI), Gary Cutler (2H, HR, RBI), Tom Pasko (2H, RBI), Tommy Colandro (2H, RBI), and Rich Grossberg (2H) led the AG2 offense.

Robin's Nest 16, Associated 9

The Nesters were led offensively by the strong hitting of Ed Kushner, John Symczak and Harry Streep with three hits each. Streep picked up another complete game victory. Associated was led by Phil Fink, Paul Brody and Rich Krov with three hits each. Contributing two hits apiece were Pat Sarullo, Bo Bodine, Ron Hrinko and David Levine. Pat Sarullo, Teo Fernandez and Bo Bodine contributed to a strong AAP defense, while playing out of their normal position.

Kilkenny House 10, Creative 9

Kilkenny scored six in the first and then held on. Leading Creative hitters were Tom Straniero (3H, 3RBI), Brian Williams (2H, 2R, 2RBI) and Frank Pepe, Frank De Luca, Steve Ferro and Karl Grossmann had multiple hits.

SURBRUG SLUGS 3-RUN HR; ALVAREZ 3 SINGLES, 2 RBI

St. Francis Scores 5 in Sixth, Minimizes St. Max Men, 10-8

By DAVID B. CORBIN
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Anthony Blasi "The Younger" blasted pitcher Anthony Blasi "The Elder" for a leadoff home run in the third inning, but Blasi "The Elder" had the last laugh when his team, St. Francis, scored five runs in the bottom of the sixth inning and held on to pull off a 10-8 come-from-behind victory over St. Maximillian in St. Bart's Oldtimers Men's Softball League action at Jerseyland Field in Scotch Plains on the 70th anniversary of D-Day.

Aware of the nature of this father/son showdown, Blasi "The Younger" said, "They got us the first times. It's our turn this time."

It almost happened, except for St. Francis' five-run outburst in the sixth inning.

St. Max out-hit St. Francis, 17-9, but defensive miscues made the Frans look larger on the imaginary scoreboard. Blasi "The Younger" also had another hit, while teammate Gus Alvarez slashed three singles, scored twice and added two RBI. Rob Stratton also had three singles with an RBI and a run scored. Pitcher Howie Bialos plunked an RBI double, singled and scored once. Jim Killeen had a pair of RBI singles and walked once. Paul Leso (2 runs) and Jim Richey (run) each had two singles, and Jeff Friedlander chopped an RBI single.

Mike Surbrug had the hammer for St. Francis with a three-run home run to go with his single with a run scored and RBI sacrifice fly. Kevin Woodring went 2-for-2 with a run scored, an RBI and a walk. Paul Erba also had a pair of singles, scored once and walked once. Dave Hill skid an RBI triple and scored once. Paul Newton singled once and scored in all three of his at-bats. Dan Margolis slapped an RBI single, Larry Szenyi had an RBI and John Stueck scored twice.

The Max men struck for two runs on five hits in the top of the first. Leso lashed a leadoff single to right, young Blasi yanked a single to left and Alvarez reach first on a groundout. Stratton hobbled an RBI single past short, Bialos singled and Killeen dropped an RBI single into center. Francis barked back with one in the bottom of the inning. Erba fanned and later scored on Woodring's single to center.

In the Francis second, Stueck reached first on an error then came all the way around to score when Newton's fly to center was dropped. Surbrug's RBI sac fly to right made the score, 3-2, and stirred the bench to shout, "Way to get him in Mike."

Blasi "The Younger's" leadoff homer ignited a four-run surge and a 6-3 lead for the Max men. Alvarez and Stratton each hacked singles to right and Bialos plopped a lazy RBI double into shallow center. Killeen drilled an RBI single and Friedlander lofted an RBI sac fly to right.

Offensive silence prevailed until St. Francis spoke up with two runs in
