

Genevieve C. Mooers, 92, Nurse; Active With Republican Club and Hospital

Genevieve Colleen (Farrah) Mooers, 92, of Westfield, N.J., formerly of Wappingers Falls, N.Y., entered into rest on Tuesday, September 23, 2014.

Born in Perryopolis, Pa., she was the daughter of the late Abraham and Julia (Murray) Farrah, and wife of the late Woodford J. Mooers. She is survived by her children, Marcia Hill (Michael) of Ashland, Mass., Kimberly Mooers, Julia Diddell (Eric) of Westfield, N.J., and Woodford J. Mooers III (Nadine) of Mahwah, N.J. She was the grandmother of Ensign James F. Diddell USCG, Woodford J. Mooers IV and Christiana L. Mooers, and sister of the late Samuel Farrah, Elias Farrah, Ralph Farrah, Edna Rose and Ruth Tabita. She is survived by her sister, Olga Creighton, and many loving nieces and nephews.

She was a graduate of Ramsey High School, Mt. Pleasant, Pa., and Latrobe, Pa. School of Nursing. A proud member of the U.S. Cadet Nurse Corps, she was a 45-year Red Cross Volunteer Nurse. She was a longtime private duty nurse for many patients, including Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, author of "The Power of Positive Thinking;" founder of the Republican Women's Club, Youngwood, Pa.; a fundraiser for Deborah Hospital, Browns Mills, N.J., and an avid golfer, bowler and bridge player.

Arrangements are under the direction of Gray Funeral Home in Westfield. Go to grayfuneralhomes.com for online condolences. Donations, in lieu of flowers, may be made to Friends of U.S. Cadet Nurse Corps, c/o Shirley A. Harrow, 65 Gladstone Street, Quincy, MA 02171. Services will be held at a time to be arranged by the family.

Guitarist Peter Biedermann To Perform at Library

GARWOOD — Guitarist and composer Peter Biedermann will perform at the Garwood Public Library on Wednesday, October 8, at 7 p.m. Originally from New Jersey, but now relocated to Arizona, Mr. Biedermann has been performing in a variety of musical formats for more than 35 years. Since 2008 he has given a string of solo performances in libraries, house concerts, churches and similar, listener-friendly performance spaces.

The music audience members will hear will consist entirely of original acoustic instrumental music performed on various 6, 8 (Baritone) and 12 string guitars in unique tunings accompanied by the subtle use of ambient electronics. While acoustic guitar pioneers such as Michael Hedges, Bert Jansch, Leo Kottke and Ralph Towner are considered to be major influences on Mr. Biedermann's music, many other, lesser-known visionaries of finger-style acoustic guitar are acknowledged and referenced during his live performances. Interactive dialogue with the audience is encouraged.

CDs of Mr. Biedermann's music will be available for sale after the performance. This program will be free and all are welcome. Registration is required for this event and may be done by calling (908) 789-1670, in person at the library or at the calendar page of the library's interactive website, youseemore.com/garwood.

The Garwood Public Library is located at the corner of Third Avenue and Walnut Street, at the back of the Lincoln School complex. Business hours are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday; Friday, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Belly Fat to Be Focus Of Library Seminar

MOUNTAINSIDE — A free health education seminar entitled "Belly Fat, Stress and Hormones" will be held on Thursday, October 9, from 7 to 8 p.m., at the Mountainside Public Library. Dr. Jason Kaufman of Advanced Integrative Health will be the presenter.

"Belly Fat, Stress and Hormones" will provide attendees with up-to-date, researched-based health information and strategies that will benefit individuals and assist them in their weight-loss goals, even those with busy lifestyles.

Dr. Kaufman's healthy-lifestyle tips are designed to help maximize energy, burn fat, reduce inflammation, balance hormones, enhance heart health and help people live.

The Mountainside Public Library is located at 1 Constitution Plaza. To register for this program, call (908) 233-0115. For more information on library programs and services, visit mountainsidelibrary.org.

Edible Plants Walk On Tap For Today

FANWOOD — The Fanwood Environmental Commission invites the public to join a Wild Edible Plants Walk today, Thursday, October 2, starting at 5:30 p.m., at the new rain garden in front of Fanwood Borough Hall, located at 75 North Martine Avenue. This family-friendly event will only be cancelled in the event of a downpour or thunderstorm. The walk will take about an hour.

Educator, naturalist, nutritionist and wild plant expert Debbie Naha will lead participants around Borough Hall and then to nearby Carriage Road Park and point out those plants that can be harvested for salads and snacks. For more information, visit fanwoodec.org.

ELEGANT HOME...Beveled glass, Doric columns and American Chestnut wood highlight this 1905 shingle clad neoclassical home on Westfield Avenue in Westfield. This home is one of four classic homes on the Deck the Halls Holiday House Tour, sponsored by the Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield. The event is scheduled for Saturday, December 6, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Rake and Hoe Invites All To Holiday House Tour

WESTFIELD — The Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield will sponsor its 2014 Deck the Halls Holiday House Tour on Saturday, December 6, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Only presented every four years, the event showcases the efforts and talents of this group of floral designers and gardeners. It is the club's primary source of revenue in support of its many service projects to the town, county and state.

Among the four featured homes on the tour will be the Torricollo residence at 625 Westfield Avenue. "Birch with a Twist of Moss," the theme of this home, will be enhanced with the seasonal palette colors of lavender and Clementine orange. Guests will notice the club's use of unique containers, the presence of sparkle and reflections, and seasonal fruits, unified by the key elements of birch and moss. Two of the many designs will be a large handmade terrarium in the living room and a "pot et fleur" centerpiece for the music room.

The other homes, which include a colonial revival shingle style home built in 1906, a low impact green

Westfield Y to Address Child Sexual Abuse

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Area Y is taking steps to educate adults and protect children within the community by participating in the "Darkness to Light" program. A Child Sexual Abuse Prevention Training program will be held on Tuesday, October 7, and Thursday, November 6, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Main Y Facility, located at 220 Clark Street in Westfield.

This program educates adults to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse. The training session will help adults build awareness of what to look for and steps to follow in order to protect children.

The training will be free, for adults only and open to both Y members and the community. Interested persons are asked to register in advance and in person at the Welcome Center.

For more information or to schedule training for any adult group, call Susan Morton at (908) 654-8460 or e-mail smorton@westfieldny.org.

FW Community Foundation Sets Annual Meeting Oct. 26

FANWOOD — The Fanwood Community Foundation's Board of Directors invites members of the community to attend its annual meeting on Sunday, October 26, at 1 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Fanwood Volunteer Fire Department station, located at the rear of the Fanwood Municipal Building at 75 North Martine Avenue.

This year, the Foundation will discuss the direction it is taking as well as the growing need for volunteers to help support its administrative needs.

The mission of the Fanwood Community Foundation is twofold: First, it provides financial assistance in the form of grants to individuals or groups in need of assistance who live, work, support or serve Fanwood, and second, it raises money to meet these needs by seeking donations and providing philanthropic leadership to the greater Fanwood community. As it is a non-profit corporation, all donations are tax-deductible.

Established in October 1998, the Foundation has accumulated assets in excess of $130,000, made up of contributions from local residents and businesses, bequests and memorial donations. From the interest earned on the invested assets, the board of directors has annually made grants ranging from a few hundred dollars to over $1,000 to eligible applicants seeking assistance.

The Foundation has awarded grants to purchase emergency equipment for the Fanwood Fire Department, purchase a new camera for TV-35, fund the purchase of materials for the Fanwood Memorial Library and has given grants to support the work of various community organizations including the Resolve Community Counseling Center, the local food bank and Heart for Humanity. Anyone interested in helping or making a donation to the Foundation is invited to attend the annual meeting or to visit fanwoodcommunityfoundation.org.
