One-Pitch Softball Fundraiser Success for Wustefeld Family

Sunday, September 14, turned out to be a fabulous day for a Fundraiser and One Pitch softball tournament to help benefit the Wustefeld family for their son Jacob, who has been diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma this year three days before his 18th birthday.

Many family members and friends came out to Brookside Park in Scotch Plains to help support the family by buying food, baked goods, tee shirts, silent raffle or just donating. Nine local teams committed to play in the tournament on three Scotch Plains fields and the recreation department.

The semifinals game at Brookside put Those Guys against Deegan Roofing, but Martin Marks' senior boys were no match for John Deitch's loaded team as they won in commanding order but would have to face Scott Savarese's returning champions Murph Farms from New Providence.

Those Guys could not handle the barrage of hitting power from the produce pickers from New Providence as they took this year's title once again. MVP big Tim Rauschenburg showed everyone how to hit by recording only two outs all day and batting .900 in five games played.

A thank you is given to all of the providers who made this day such a great success, specifically, Marie Barba, Jessica Wilkins and Erin Ridge, who organized the concession and baked goods stand, Dan McGrath and John Palazzolo, who always manages the grill, Isabella Didario for performing such a beautiful National Anthem to kick off the games. Special thanks is given to Ed Zazzali for organizing the umpires on all fields and always volunteering for many games at Brookside and the many children and others who consistently provide their time to help each year!

Special thanks goes out for all of the local businesses and providers of goods and certificates to help raise money for the Wustefeld family.

The list includes: Greater Union County NJ Softball Umpires Association for umpires and insurance - Jim Peters/Ed Zazzali, Village Shoprite-Watchung/BlueStar for providing drinks and food - Art Paradise Sr., Party Stop of Westfield - Bruce Campbell, US Food for providing food - Emidio Monaco, Twp. of Scotch Plains for providing the fields - Ray Poerio, Rossi Funeral Home for providing tee shirts - Bernadette/Bill Mariani, Rick Chesky for providing the tee shirts/sweatshirts for the family, The Stagehouse Tavern for providing the after party - Meghan Denman, 5 Guys Burgers of Westfield for providing a special fundraiser - Bill Gellart, Charlie Browns restaurant - Nick/Andrew, Darby Road Public House - Joe Mortarulo, Oh Brian's Pour House - Brian Walter, Posh Car Wash - Deanna/Eric, Vine Republic - Russ Mineo, Cioffi's Deli of Springfield - Jerry Cioffi, The Movers Band for providing live music at Brookside Park - Rob Bianco/Benny Harrison.

Great thanks to Corrie Rinaldi & Julio Parada for donating their time to photograph the entire day.

Rashaad Pendleton for a 15-yard TD. The Cougars got great field possession near midfield after the ensuing kickoff, but Schetelich's pass was kicked off by Moise at the Ram 25. Cranford's defense tightened up and forced a punt to the Cougar 47. On the first play, Schetelich pitched out to Christiano, who sprinted 53 yards for a TD, but a holding penalty negated the play.

"It was a good pitch by Jack and a good block on the outside. We got a holding call, but you can't let that affect you. There's nothing you can do about it. You got to keep driving and get a first down," Christiano said.

"Their defense was definitely good. We did get two touchdowns. We did stuff well, but we also did stuff bad that cost us some other touchdowns. The reason why we weren't scoring in the first half was because our dumb mistakes. A dropped ball here, a holding there and that kills all the momentum," Schetelich said.

In the third quarter, the Cougar defense stuffed the Rams and forced a punt that was fielded on the Roselle 37. On the sixth play, Schetelich found a huge opening and scrambled in for the 11-yard TD. The two-point conversion attempt failed.

After Cougar linebacker Ethan

Tom inflicted a 10-yard sack on Hairston, the Rams went three-and-out again. Cranford took over at the Ram 46, and on the first play, Schetelich rolled left down the sideline for the TD with 6:04 left in the third quarter. Norton's successful point after put the Cougars on top, 28-27.

The Cougars' final TD came on the first play of the fourth quarter when Schetelich slipped in from the two after a nine-play, 67-yard drive. Schetelich was quite appreciative of his team's fine blocking.

"The whole line was [blocking]. Kevin [Doran] and [Nick] Ballas on the left side were doing great, and [Kevin] McNeil and [Will] Fries on the right side. They were playing with more attitude and more intensity. They drove those Roselle kids off. It was great! It was making my job easy," Schetelich said.

The Cougars next job may not be so easy when they host the Summit Hilltoppers tonight, October 2, at 7 p.m.

"That's going to be awesome. I can't wait for that game. We have to get that attitude we applied in the second half and we have to have it the whole game. It's going to be exciting," Schetelich said.

Totten, Rosenthal and Grace Pugliese. MSO closed the gap to two runs in the fourth and fifth, but Westfield posted three insurance runs over the final two innings to seal the game. Rodrigues, Lezynski and Pugliese were driven home by Miller, Currie and Casey Concannon.

Westfield played strong defense. Leading the highlight reel was a caught popup by catcher Rosenthal. Michelle Audino, Rodrigues, Miller, Lezynski, Currie, Totten and Guerrero recorded putouts and assists.
