

15-yard TD. The Cougars got great field possession near midfield after the ensuing kickoff, but Schetelich's pass was picked off by Moise at the Ram 25. Cranford's defense tightened up and forced a punt to the Cougar 47. On the first play, Schetelich pitched out to Christiano, who sprinted 53 yards for a TD, but a holding penalty negated the play. "It was a good pitch by Jack and a good block on the outside. We got a holding call, but you can't let that affect you. There's nothing you can do about it. You got to keep driving and get a first down," Christiano said. "Their defense was definitely good. We did get two touchdowns. We did stuff well, but we also did stuff bad that cost us some other touchdowns. The reason why we weren't scoring in the first half was because our dumb mistakes. A dropped ball here, a holding there and that kills all the momentum," Schetelich said. In the third quarter, the Cougar defense stuffed the Rams and forced a punt that was fielded on the Roselle 37. On the sixth play, Schetelich found a huge opening and scrambled in for the 11-yard TD. The two-point conversion attempt failed.

Kevin [Doran] and [Nick] Ballas on the left side were doing great, and [Kevin] McNeil and [Will] Fries on the right side. They were playing with more attitude and more intensity. They drove those Roselle kids off. It was great! It was making my job easy," Schetelich said. The Cougars next job may not be so easy when they host the Summit Hilltoppers tonight, October 2, at 7 p.m. "That's going to be awesome. I can't wait for that game. We have to get that attitude we applied in the second half and we have to have it the whole game. It's going to be exciting," Schetelich said.

After Cougar linebacker Ethan Tom inflicted a 10-yard sack on Hairston, the Rams went three-and-out again. Cranford took over at the Ram 46, and on the first play, Schetelich rolled left down the sideline for the TD with 6:04 left in the third quarter. Norton's successful point after put the Cougars on top, 28-27. The Cougars' final TD came on the first play of the fourth quarter when Schetelich slipped in from the two after a nine-play, 67-yard drive.
