Deaconess Dolores Graves Celebrates 90th Birthday

Deaconess Dolores Graves of Westfield, N.J., celebrated her 90th birthday the week of July 12. Her grandchildren hosted a buffet dinner party on Friday, July 12, at Snuffy's in Scotch Plains, N.J. The party was attended by 40 family members and close friends. Family photos were taken in the lobby before dinner. Dolores was surrounded by expressions of love, gifts and flowers. Her great-grandchildren presented her with a special bouquet of flowers.

The 90th birthday celebration continued on Sunday, July 14, at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Scotch Plains. Dolores is a "Mother" of the church. Pastor Clement Griffin delivered a spiritual service followed by a party of 100 guests in the dining hall. The party was hosted by Dolores' children. The hall was beautifully decorated by family and church members. A delicious birthday cake was decorated with purple crosses and flowers. The program included prayer, a poem, a solo, and greetings from community groups and personal expressions from each of Dolores' eight children.

Westfield Mayor Shelley Brindle attended and read a proclamation from the Town of Westfield highlighting Dolores' spirit, dedication and service to her family, church and community.

She earned a nursery school certificate from Kean College and was co-owner with her late husband, Harry Graves, of Lorey's Day Care for 30 years.

Mayor's 0.5K on August 18 To Benefit METAvivors NJ

SCOTCHPLAINS — Scotch Plains Mayor Alexander Smith and the Greater Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce (GWACC) will host the second annual Mayor's 0.5k — The Anti 5k, on Sunday, August 18. This fun-filled family event takes a light-hearted view on exercise while supporting a local chapter for a national nonprofit, METAvivors of NJ.

The event will be held in Alan Augustine Park at 430 Park Avenue and includes a Child's Play Challenge Course, food trucks, dance party and, of course, the 0.5k Anti-Race for kids and adults.

Check-in begins at 1 p.m., followed by an official kickoff at 2 p.m. Tony Bianchino, owner of Out Run Your Fork, will lead participants in a pre-race stretch.

Registration includes children and adult races, swag bag, free ice cream or beer (age depending) and much more. Runner registration is $15 per person for children ages 5 to 14 and $25 for ages 15 and above. All event details and registration are available on GWACC's website, gwaccnj.com/0\_5krace.

"This event is a great addition to our downtown events. It gives our residents the opportunity to spend time with family and friends in our historic downtown and supports a national nonprofit, METAvivor, which has a chapter headquartered in Scotch Plains," said Mayor Smith. Race proceeds will benefit METAvivor, which funds research for Stage IV metastatic breast cancer treatment options as well as support to those battling this disease. Last year, METAvivor funded 17 research grants worth $2.35 million. However, more progress still needs to be made. In 2019, it is anticipated that 115 men and women will die every day from Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

"I am so pleased that the committee chose METAvivor as this year's proceeds recipient in honor of my late wife, Geraldine (Geri). She was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer in June 2011, and although she lost her battle with cancer after only two years, she was a METAvivor," added Mayor Smith.

"On behalf of the Greater Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, I am delighted to co-host this event with the mayor and Deputy Municipal Manager Margaret Heisey. Working in conjunction with the local METAvivors and bringing focus to their mission has been an honor," said Heather Bryant, GWACC board member and event chair.
