but they followed with an 8-7 loss to the AL Johnson Crusaders. Next, there was a glimpse of hope with a 5-4 win over Union and a 5-1 win over Union Catholic but momentum was seeping with a 3-0 loss to Summit in the UCT first round, a 3-2 victory over the GL Highlanders, who finished with a 21-5 record, and a 3-1 loss to Morristown. Momentum still wobbled with an 8-1 loss to Cranford, a 13-3 shellacking from Summit and a 5-4 stinging by the SPF Raiders.

striking out two. His dazzling four-hitter against Bayonne sent the Bees buzzing back to their hive. Against SPF, he relieved Carlone with two outs in the sixth and retired all four batters he faced. Then in the championship against Ridge, Catanzaro went the distance tossed another four-hitter, walked three — one intentional — and struck out four. Carlone pitched 44.1 innings, allowing 53 hits and walking 23, while hitting a batter and striking out 44 to finish 2-stole eight bases. Defensively, he turned several double plays, including a key one in the semifinal win over SPF. McIntyre was quite scary at the plate. The left-handed hitter enjoyed battering the long ball as he led the team with seven doubles, four triples and two home runs and finished with a .351 BA (26-for-74) with nine RBI and a team-leading 19 runs. He was walked 12 times, was hit once and led the team with 20 stolen bases. In the victory over Ridge, McIntyre, who will play baseball at Rutgers next year, went 4-for-4 with a double and two runs scored.

Flynn went 23-for-63 for a .354 BA with seven doubles, seven RBI, 12 runs scored and eight walks, while being hit six times. He also swiped five bases. Flynn whacked a pair of doubles, singled and had two RBI in the win over Ridge. Junior third baseman Victor Coustan finished with a .267 BA (16-for-60) with two doubles, seven runs scored, eight RBI with five walks and being hit once. Coustan had the game-winning two-run double against Union, scored twice against Bayonne and initiated a double play against Ridge.

Ho, a right fielder, went 19-for-66 for a .311 BA with three doubles, six runs scored, nine RBI, walked twice, was hit six times and stole two bases. Kohler had 13 hits, including a triple, scored 10 runs, had six RBI and walked five times. Senior catcher Mike Charlton, who had courtesy runners, had eight hits, an RBI and a run scored. Junior second baseman Christian Pansini finished with 10 hits, six RBI, five runs scored and six walks, while being hit once.

In his limited time at the plate, Carlone had four hits, three RBI and two runs scored. Junior designated hitter John Czarniecki had four hits, including a triple, scored twice and added six RBI. Junior infielder Jack Bowman contributed two hits, two runs scored and an RBI. Sophomore Jake Bencivenga, used mostly as a courtesy runner, had two hits, four runs scored, two RBI and four stolen bases.

Reiterating what Blue Devil Head Coach Bob Brewster expressed after the final game against Ridgewood, "In some instances, we were over-matched but we battled all through the lineup. Every single batter. It could have been very easy at 5-10 [record] to say ah! The heck with it! But these guys did a great job. It was always a different player. It was Mike Catanzaro, it was Carlone, it was Sean Flynn, it was Matt McIntyre, it was Victor Coustan, Pansini. All of them did something great somewhere along the line. Repeat! First time in Westfield history! Repeat!"

STRONG FINISH DEFENSIVELY...Blue Devil third baseman Victor Coustan made a number of key defensive plays during the sectional tournament.

After falling to Seton Hall Prep, 7-1, the Blue Devils earned a 5-2 win over the New Providence Pioneers, who would go on to win the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 1 Tournament. Next came a 12-1 thumping by Hunterdon Central, an 8-5 victory over Elizabeth and a 4-2 loss to East Brunswick just before sectional tournament time.

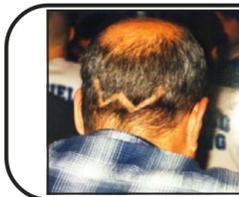

Due to a rather modest team batting average, the Blue Devils relied heavily on their pitching staff throughout the season but the timely hitting, crucial fielding plays and superb pitching all jelled at the right time. The two primary mound aces were seniors MJ Catanzaro and Mike Carlone.

Catanzaro proved to be very deceptive on the mound all season. In 55.1 innings, he allowed 50 hits and walked just 16, while hitting two batters and striking out 33 to finish with a 7-1 record with two saves and a team's best 1.77 ERA. But his most outstanding performances came at sectional time. He pitched the final three innings against Union and allowed just one hit and a walk, while 5 with a 3.63 ERA. He pitched the first four innings against Union in the sectional, permitting six hits and a walk, while striking out one. Against the Raiders, he allowed eight hits, a walk and hit a batter, while striking out six.

Sophomore Christopher Ho in 21.2 innings, yielded 16 hits and 31 walks, while hitting seven batters and striking out 33 to finish with an 0-4 record with one save and a 4.20 ERA. When he was not playing first base, junior Danny Kohler spent 10 innings on the mound, allowing eight hits and seven walks, while striking out seven to also finish with a 4.20 ERA.

Seniors Matt McIntyre (centerfield), Andrew Caminiti (shortstop) and Sean Flynn (leftfield) were the most dangerous Blue Devils at the plate. Caminiti, who sat out several games at the beginning of the season, was quite welcomed when he returned. He rewarded his team with a .407 batting average (BA) going 22-for-54 with three doubles and 13 runs scored and seven RBI, while walking seven times and being hit twice. Caminiti, who will attend Georgetown University, also

Devil's Den Kaplow Named County Baseball Coach of Year

By BRUCE JOHNSON
Specially Written for The Westfield Leader and The Times

Dave Kaplow knew what he wanted to do with his life about 10 years ago. He was graduating from Drew University when he "got the teaching-coaching bug."

Kaplow, who will turn 30 in late July, began substitute teaching while spending a year as an assistant at Drew. "That was when I knew I wanted to be a teacher and coach baseball," said Kaplow, who recently was named the Union County Baseball Coach of the Year for the job he did at David Brearley Regional in Kenilworth.

"From subbing," he said, "I began working as an instructional assistant in special education classes, which eventually led me to becoming a special education teacher."

Kaplow spent a year coaching the middle school in Kenilworth, a year as an assistant at Oratory Prep, a year as the head coach at Cardinal McCarrick in South Amboy (the team went 13-7 a year after a four-win season), then he came to Brearley in 2015 as the junior varsity coach. His JV teams went 23-15 before he took over the varsity in 2018.

"We struggled that first year, going 5-16," Kaplow said. "We walked too many hitters and we didn't make enough routine plays. We blew eight games in the late innings."

Which made this season's 14-9 record, and playing in the North 2, Group I sectional championship game for the first time in 10 years, all the more remarkable.

"We improved a lot," he said. "Our team batting average was up almost 100 points. Our pitchers walked 50 less hitters and struck out 50 more hitters. And we lowered our team earned-run-average from 5.07 to 2.62."

Kaplow credits the top-notch coaching in Union County among his major influences, along with playing under Bob Brewster at WHS.

"There are so many great coaches in the county," Kaplow said. "I've learned stuff from just playing against them and seeing how they achieved success. It's also very cool to receive the same honor that Brew has received numerous times, and the past two years. Playing for him were some of the most memorable times of my life. Our (county) championship run in 2006 was unforgettable."

Brewster remembers Kaplow as somebody who battled for anything he got.

"David was one of the hardest working players I ever coached," Brewster said. "He came to WHS as one of three catchers in the Class of 2006. Mike Murray started for the varsity in 2003, Tom Layton started on the JV team that year and Dave started on the freshmen team."

WHS graduate Dave Kaplow, the second-year head baseball coach at David Brearley Regional in Kenilworth, was the nj.com Union County Coach of the Year.

Murray, of course, was one of the great hitters in school history and was inducted into the Westfield Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016, his first year eligible. Layton transferred, but Kaplow stuck it out and eventually was a regular as the designated hitter on the 2006 team that won the Union County Tournament.

"Dave realized catching might be a dead end, so he put a lot of time and effort into playing third base," Brewster said. "Unfortunately, things didn't work out for Dave there, but as a senior, his desire to play was so great that he dedicated himself to work on his hitting and force me to find a spot for him in the lineup. He was our DH (.356) that year and had perhaps his biggest moment of the season with a bases-clearing double in the UCT semifinals against Cranford that propelled us to a 6-3 victory."

"Being someone who had to work very hard to find a spot on a team makes you know what it's like to focus on the details. And that attention to detail is what makes a good coach."

Of course, any good coach knows he's only as good as his assistants.

"I firmly believe that," Kaplow said.

"Greg Baker has been a key component in my coaching career. We've coached together for nearly 10 years, going back to club teams and Cardinal McCarrick. We currently coach together in the Metropolitan Collegiate Baseball League, a college summer league. I played with Greg during the summers when I was in college and his knowledge of the game and his coaching philosophy has been instrumental in shaping who I am as a coach."

Kaplow, whose father Richard graduated WHS in 1969, was a lifelong Westfielder until moving out in 2014. He now lives in Metuchen where, ironically, Murray is the athletic director and baseball coach at St. Joseph High.

"My parents are a tremendous influence on me," Kaplow said. "They've always taught me to stay positive, even in the darkest situations. They have been through it all throughout my baseball career. They're always there to support me."

"I didn't know his dad went to Westfield, but he was definitely one of our biggest fans," Brewster said.

Richard Kaplow, the proud pop, said he's been to every one of Dave's games, at WHS and Drew.

"My dad has been to A LOT of games," Dave laughed. "Every one of them?" Maybe not. But he has seen it all.

Sounding a lot like Brewster's former WHS coaches Norm Koury and Dick Zimmer, Kaplow explained his coaching style.

"This year we had to be able to manufacture runs, so we worked extensively on bunting and base running," Kaplow said. "We had some good seniors (Vince Rappa made first team all-Group 1), but we were a fairly young team, so we really had to teach the game and hammer down the fundamentals."

DEVILS OF THE YEAR

There was no way to break the deadlock and select just one male and one female Devil of the Year this year. So here are the 13th annual Devil(s) of the Year:

Matt McIntyre: He hit .351 as the left fielder on WHS's state Group 4 finalist and as the centerfielder on this year's state Group 4 semifinalists. The leadoff hitter led the team lead in at-bats (74), runs (19), hits (26), doubles (7), triples (4), home runs (2), RBI (9) and stolen bases (20). After missing what would have been an exciting football season because of shoulder surgery, he ran on the state Group 4 winning mile relay in indoor track. Matt is going to Rutgers.

Devon McLane: The four-year starter led the lacrosse team in scoring the past three years. He became the first WHS boys lacrosse player to score 100 points in a season, finishing with 120. He also established school career records for points (306), goals (135) and assists (171). He also became the first Blue Devil to have over 50 goals and 50 assists in one year (58 and 62). Devon is going to Brown.

Erica Lawrence: She finished fourth in the state shot put at the indoor track Meet of Champions with a school-record toss of 39 feet, 10 1/2 inches. A two-time Union County and state sectional champion. She was also a four-year starting catcher and graduates No. 1 all-time in doubles (32), No. 3 in extra-base hits (50), No. 3 in hits (132), and No. 5 in runs (87) and RBI (70). She hit .424 for her career, including .463, .459 and .476 the last three years. Erica is going to Saint Joseph's.

Julia Romano: The four-year shortstop set school records for single-season doubles (12) and extra-base hits (22, 12-5-5); she's tied with Cali Chambliss for No. 1 all-time in extra-base hits (53). She's also in the top 5 all-time in career doubles (28), triples (13) and home runs (12), and her .571 batting average this spring was the program's highest ever by anyone not named Cyndil Matthew, who hit .642 and .625 in 2007 and 2008. (No. 4 on the list is the .557 average of Miekko Saito ('91), the mother of freshman star Kalea Calugay.) Julia is going to Lafayette.

Sam Stravach: She broke the school record in the javelin at the recent outdoor track Meet of Champions, and missed the school record in discus by one foot. In basketball, she was a three-year player, with 484 career points (No. 19 all-time), 426 career rebounds (No. 5) and 216 single-season rebounds (No. 6). Those basketball teams went 57-23. Sam is going to Penn State, but won't be playing sports.

Previous Devils of the Year: Tommy Bonard 2007; Alexi Kuska and Erin Miller 2008; Chris DeLaFuente 2009; Matt Meserole and Suzanne Lemberg 2010; A.J. Murray 2011; Brennan Haley and James O'Rourke 2012; Lexi Borr 2014; Caroline Baldwin 2014; Jack Simcox 2015; Jack Curry 2016; Matt LaCorte and Danielle Rinaldi 2017; Jake Vall-Llobera and Natalie Bond 2018.
